New Wagon Scares Them

James Vandenus Zebo Hance, the gentleman who has a handful of burros attached to an express wagon, was in the center of considerable excitement Wednesday morning, all of which was caused by attaching them to a new express wagon with lemon colored running gear. When the Jackasslets turned around and discovered what they were up against, they started for the county hospital with the layout. By the united efforts of J. Frank Brooks Dr. E. Solomon Miller, Tom Munchansen Smith, a telegraph pole and Jim Hance, they were talked into being reasonable and compelled to stay put down town. By carefully facing them away from the oat bin, they will now stay put.

HONOR CONVICTS ENJOY THEMSELVES

Charles White, a negro convict, presumably serving a life term in the Arizona state prison for murder, but in reality drunk on the street in Globe, was arrested Monday afternoon by Sheriff Frank Haynes and is now in the county jail, sobering up.

Three other convicts from the same honor camp in the Pinal mountains near Globe, are also in the county jail—sobering up.

The three others were brought in from the honor camp Monday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Rawlings and Voris, who went to the camp after them in an automobile.

When the officers arrived at the camp they found two of the convicts, who give their names as Frank Williams, Jr., and Old Folks, tied up and ready to be loaded into the car. They had been drinking and were overpowered and bound by some of the other convicts.

One of them had his finger badly chewed by the other during the brawl.

Camp Superintendent Marvin, who came to Globe to enlist the assistance of the sheriff's officers, stated that one of the gang had brought whisky to the camp from Globe Sunday night. The cook, who says his name is Johnny Williams, is alleged to have brought the whisky to camp.

When White, the life term, was searched at the jail, about a dozen strychnine tablets were taken from him—enough to kill a man with. White said he bought the poison for another man—Globe Silver Belt.

She Knew

The orchestra played No. 6, a selection that seemed to the bachelor very beautiful. He leaned toward his companion and whispered:

"How lovely that is! What is it, do you know?"

She smiled demurely and replied in a low, thrilling voice:

"It is the 'Maiden's Prayer.'"

And at the same time she handed him her program, pointing to No. 6 with her finger.

He read and started, for the real name of the selection was "Mendelssohn's Wedding March."

The bachelor bought the ring next day.
