Jones' daughter, Miss Zella Jones, has been appointed to teach in the Williams schools the coming year. Miss Jones visited with her parents the latter part of the week. "Nevvy" Smith, and his young son, were in a day or so this week from the Canyon Diablo and Tolchaco Indian trading posts, where "Nevvy" increases the fame of the white man's medicine among the aborigines, the which success in the same is enhanced greatly by his failure ever to look sick. Ed Priest, after being in bed for some time, part of which he was believed to be spending in heated argument with a sinister angel bent on removing him hence, seems to have won the argument, as he reappeared on our streets the last of the week, still weak, but otherwise feeling a lot better.

The working man will find the best overall in town for $1.25 at Sid Gassman's. Mercer Hemperly, formerly of Flagstaff, but now located at Phoenix, was here for a few days on court business. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Griffin motored in from Grand Canyon the last of last week and spent a few days visiting friends here. Beware of fake and dishonest magazine solicitors. We give you as low single or club rates as they can. — Brown's Newsstand. Billy Switzer and his daughters motored out to the Cameron bridge over the Little Colorado on Sunday, then visited "Rimby" Jim Giddings' winter ranch. Tanlac builds up the weak, run down system and makes you feel strong, sturdy and well, as nature intended. Breen-Lewis Drug Co. — Advertisement. Judge J. E. Jones performed the marriage ceremony, June 15th, which united Tom Owen Maxwell, age 35, of Phoenix, to Miss Nettie Ann Peterson, age 31, of Flagstaff. Mr. Maxwell is a railroad engineer. The interior of the Orpheum theatre looks very neat and tasty, having been repainted and redecorated, with new in the rear of the theatre to keep out the chill winds. The box office is now on the left side of the lobby, and the main entrance will be in the center, the side doors being used for exits. The other day County Engineer J. B. Wright's car refused to resume its job. County Supervisor W. H. Campbell drove in ahead of it, a tow-roped was fastened on, and W. H. stepped on her. When the latter reached Slaughter House hill he looked back for the first time and discovered that the other car was not there. He drove back five miles, where the rope had broken, and took a fresh hold.

Harben, assistant county attorney, and Under-sheriff S. O. Thompson, spent part of Wednesday in Garland Prairie on legal business. "I feel twenty years younger," is what thousands have said after Tanlac restored them to health. Try it. Breen-Lewis Drug Co. — Advertisement. Charles Wade came up from Williams last week to visit around and renew old friendships. He is being spoken of as a likely democratic candidate for sheriff. Messrs. Howe, Luke and Hughes, the three state tax commissioners, were here Monday on their rounds of the state, attending to the duties of their office. They returned to Phoenix Tuesday. Tom Stevens, former service man, arrived here Tuesday morning from his home in southern Missouri to visit his uncle, Hayes Weidner. Mr. Stevens comes with the idea of locating a homestead in this section. Visitors here: Fred H. Griffith, Mercer Hemperly, A. Henderson Stockton, I. P. McConkey, L. F. Wilson, Chas. R. Howe, Frank Luke, E. A. Hughes, Phoenix; J. A. Ellis, Art Blodgett and wife, Ed Weaver, Prescott. M. J. Riordan is still under the weather as a result of a recent attack of the grip, though he cheerily announces that he expects to be entirely himself again in time to take full advantage of the first real days of spring. W. T. and A. R. Plummer, who arrived here from Huntington, W. Va., about a week ago, to make Flagstaff their home, are on a two weeks' hiking trip to Oak Creek and surrounding territory. Being civil engineers, they are used to walking. News is received here of the recent pardon of Davis, sentenced here less than a year ago to from 3 to 5 years in the state penitentiary after he had confessed robbing the Babbitt Bros. store at Williams, where he was employed as manager of the hardware department. Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Nava adopted Maxamiana Esqueda, 13 years of age, Judge J. E. Jones allowing the adoption on a proper showing of the parties concerned. The father of the child is dead and the mother gave her written consent to the adoption. David Lewis is slowly gaining in strength after his illness, but is still very weak and it will be several weeks before he will be able to get around in the same old way. Two of his daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Bales of Phoenix and Mrs. Lena Douglas of Pasadena, are here with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. Robert Clayton has returned to Doney Park after an absence of several years. Mr. Clayton traveled overland from California, driving a four-horse team. He says he has covered a good many miles since he left here, but has found no place he likes so well. Mr. Clayton will farm his old homestead this year. The cold wave here for the past few days has not been a local one. Phoenix and southern towns also complain of the unseasonable weather. Weather conditions all over the country have been unusual. Denver on Monday experienced the heaviest snow storm of the season. Floods back east along with tonadoes have been taking heavy toll. Cuthbert P. Hanna and bride, Miss Maude Labille of Chicago who were married in Albuquerque, last Wednesday, have returned to Flagstaff after a brief honeymoon and are now occupying the Hanna residence, Aspen avenue and Humphrey street. The boys "charivariated" the happy couple Monday night. One song proved enough, and Cuthbert bought the boys off.

Wonderful values in new spring hats, $3.50 at Sid Gassman's. Union Taxi Company, Phones 75 and 30. — Advertisement. Notice—You can't frighten or bluff the men on "The Iron Trail."—Rex. Milt Ferrell, one of Doney Parks ranchers was compelled to plow up his alfalfa on account of the damage done to it by gophers. Charlie Murray dropped in on Sunday to sned the day. He is now a special officer for the Santa Fe railroad company at Williams. The special state legislature raised the salaries appropriation for the Northern Arizona Normal school from $91,900 to $99,900, and $2,000 was added to the capital investment appropriation. G. Harrison Conrad, the rancher, better known as poet and author, having written many poems and stories of worth depicting the west, its customs and its people, was in from his place at Doney Park Tuesday. "Where there is smoke, there is always fire," so when twenty million well-known men and women in all walks of life say Tanlac is good medicine, there must be something to it. Breen-Lewis Drug Co. — Advertisement. John M. Clark is impatiently waiting for the weather to get more settled. Just as he was feeling about right after his long illness to come down town again, it got too cool to venture farther than the street near his home. Mrs. R. L. Neill, wife of our city marshal, received a telegram Friday morning informing her of the death of her uncle, Watson Eller, a rancher, at Butte, Montana. The remains were taken to his old home at Parsons, Kansas, for burial. At the last regular meeting of the Knights of Columbus the question of increasing interest in the affairs of the council by having socials at times was talked over and a committee on entertainment was appointed. The council has also taken up the matter of purchasing a building for the use of the council. Eric Denver of Bellemont was in town the latter part of last week and gave The Sun a look-in. He says the weather is improving and signs of spring are apparent all around the Bellemont neighborhood, and that the ranchers are busy getting ready to plant their crops. Mrs. Denver is in Phoenix at present with the rest of the family. Miss Rosa Bouton, home demonstration agent, attended a mass meeting at Winslow Thursday evening in the interest of the "clean-up" and "fly campaign." This is "clean-up" week in Winslow. Miss Bouton will attend the Pan-American club meeting at Williams next Tuesday and will arrange to give some lessons in millinery there later. Charles Marshall, who was accidentally shot last week while witnessing a charivari party in the streets of Winslow, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall. Charlie is all right except for a slight limp, and he says he sure had a narrow escape, and that he thought when the bullet hit him that he was a "goner." Percival L. Kidder, employed in the auditing department at Babbitts', left on Saturday for the Yosemite National Park, where he will be warehouseman. Mrs. Kidder will remain here to prosecute the suit she recently brought against Flagstaff for $20,000 for damages sustained several weeks ago when she fell on the icy sidewalk near the Weatherford hotel. The home demonstration agent, Rosa Bouton, will give a demonstration of the use of the "pressure cooker" at Mrs. Hutchinson's home in Doney Park today. Miss Bouton will hold an all-day meeting. A lesson will also be given by the agent in the art of millinery, including the remodeling of hats. The home makers efficiency project will be considered at this meeting. In the last few days City Marshal Neill has arrested three men charged with burglary and one with grand larceny, two of whom afterward plead guilty to the charge of burglary and one to grand larceny in the courts or Navajo county. Which speaks well for the efficiency of the marshal and his assistants, and the watchfulness and care with which they protect and watch over the interests of Flagstaff and its citizens.
