

Independent Candidate for Delegate to Congress.

King S. Woolsey.

Election November 5, 1878.

Hon. HUGH FARLEY is a candidate for district attorney of Pima county.

THE recent election in Indiana impresses a democratic United States senator—probably Voorhees.

THE entire Mormon vote of the Little Colorado is one hundred and thirty, and is counted "solid" for Colonel Woolsey.

GEN. O. B. WILCOX, Col. Weeks and others left Prescott on Saturday last for a trip to Camp Apache and Eastern Yavapai.

BON ISHERSOLL is lecturing on Bob Burns in the eastern cities. Wonder what he thinks of "The Cotter's Saturday Night?"

UNITED STATES Marshal C. P. Dale has just recovered from his recent illness, and is busy attending to important matters connected with road agents and stage robberies.

TERRITORIAL treasurer Butler, on the 18th, paid to Suro & Co., San Francisco, through the Bank of Arizona, $2,300, and took up ninety-two interest coupons of twenty-five dollars each of the territorial prison bonds.

MARICOPA county, the home of Col. King S. Woolsey, is sure to cast four-fifths of her vote on the 5th of November for that gentleman. We know whereof we speak, and the result will bear us out in the prediction.

IT is rumored that a marked change has taken place in the political pulse of Yavapai county within the last two weeks, and that hundreds are openly declaring their intention of supporting Colonel Woolsey for delegate to congress in preference to either of the other candidates.

JOE WHEELER, the confederate cavalry officer who acquired so much unenviable reputation during the "late unpleasantness" as a rider upon the provisions trains of the union army, is the most prominent democratic candidate for the United States senate before the Alabama legislature.

THEY are singing out on the Little, "The Campbell is coming." John G. left for that country a few days ago, it is said, to secure the vote of one solitary boulder that had rolled down on the other side of the Mogollon mountains. The other boulders are all "solid" for Stevens and Davis.

UNDER the Canadian law such a thing as paying for drinks and buying job presses for newspapers, is made punishable by a large fine. If that was the law of Arizona, it would be the means of closing up Campbell's Prescott saloon and depriving the Enterprise of a now profitable addition.

COL. KING S. WOOLSEY, Maricopa's favorite candidate for congressional honors, returned to Phoenix on Wednesday last. The colonel has visited a great number of places in the territory, at every one of which he has been received with marked favor by all classes of our citizens. His election is a foregone conclusion.

THE Tucson Star (Stevens' organ) states that "St. Johns, on the Little Colorado, will poll 125 votes next November. Colonel Woolsey will get away with the revenue." The Star is quite correct in this statement, but fails to mention hundreds of other places in the territory that Colonel Woolsey "will get away with the revenue."

IS another column will be found an article giving a brief history of Colonel King S. Woolsey. It shows what indomitable energy and pluck will do. It will also show of what material our next delegate to congress is composed. No man has ever lived in Arizona who has done more for her prosperity and advancement than Colonel King S. Woolsey.

THE Prescott Miner, of a late date, sums up the result of the race for delegate as follows: "Colonel Woolsey will poll, on the 5th of November, just as sure as the sun illumines the heavens, 800 votes in Maricopa county, 300 in Pinal, 200 in Pima, 600 in Yavapai, 150 in Yuma, and 100 in Mohave—making a total of 2,150 in the territory, or 300 more than is necessary for a choice."

A DISPATCH to the HERALD, dated Prescott, October 24th, says: "Campbell cannot carry this town. It is divided between Woolsey and Davis. Eastern Yavapai is solid for Woolsey. Let Maricopa do her duty and the victory is sure." Our friends in Yavapai can rest assured that Maricopa county will poll a rousing majority for her favorite candidate, Colonel King S. Woolsey.

GIVE CREDIT WHERE DUE.

The following just and well merited article, in reference to Colonel Woolsey, appeared in the Prescott Miner of a late date:

Hon. King S. Woolsey, the most formidable candidate before the people of Arizona for election to congress, settled at the Agua Caliente ranch, in the valley of the Gila, then in Yavapai county, in 1891—eighteen years ago—and was the first white man to plant his standard in Yavapai county. He left the Gila in 1893, and came to the northern part of the territory with other brave pioneers for the purpose of rescuing a rich and desirable country from the wild Apaches. There is hardly a child in this section but what is familiar with Colonel Woolsey's record since that period. He gave his time and means toward settling the country and John Apache. He led several expeditions into the Apache strongholds, and in company with his brave followers suffered exposure, hunger and fatigues of the most unendurable nature. He located the Agua Fria ranch in 1893, and built on it the first farm house in Northern Arizona. He brought forty thousand dollars to this section and invested it all in three mills which he erected. He formed a co-partnership in the mining business with Governor Goodwin and Secretary McCormick, and while in company with these gentlemen, went behind fifty-six thousand dollars. They left the country and their debts. Col. Woolsey's property was sold to pay a portion of this indebtedness, and he was reduced to poverty. He did not close his eyes or turn his back upon his creditors, but went to work bravely and liquidated the sum. He is now the owner of 2,000 acres of land in the Salt River valley, 1,400 acres of which he caused to be planted in wheat this season. He owns, in company with John Smith, of McDowell, the finest flouring mill in the territory, and with David Neahr, of Yuma county, he owns the Agua Caliente ranch, on the Gila, and 800 head of cattle. In Yavapai county he owns extensive salt mines, and is working many men on the same. He is an active man in all positions and places, and when we send him to represent us at Washington he will do it with judgment and determination. Col. Woolsey has worked shoulder to shoulder with the miners, farmers, teamsters and business men. He has worn moccasins and fine boots, overalls and broadcloth, and is a man among men. His heart is with the working classes—he is in favor of free schools and every thing else calculated for the good of Arizona. Can we say as much for his opponents?

THE Homestead Law. In the article published in THE HERALD last week, relating to the homestead laws of the United States, was in the main correct, with the following exceptions:

Transfers of desert land entries are not recognized by the secretary of the interior.

All the papers in a homestead can be filed in Phoenix.

In preemption claims the preceptor is obliged to go to the land office to make an affidavit, but he need not take his witnesses.

An able correspondent of the Cleveland (Ohio) Leader seems to be quite in earnest in urging the nomination of Grant and Fremont by the republicans in 1880. He says: "When the talismanic words 'Grant and Fremont' are spoken, then will go up a shout that will reverberate from rolling prairie and mountain-side, that from the parks of Arizona to the pines of faithful Maine, and from the surf-beaten shores of Puget Sound to the everglades of Florida, shall bespeak condemnation to every scheme of opposition."

WHERE is Hiram S. Stevens? Does anybody know? Perhaps he has hurried on to Washington to see if our miserable mail facilities cannot be remedied, or perhaps he has become interested in a quiet game of "draw" with the boys in some secluded spot. Ah, Hiram, that game of draw on the sovereign voters of this territory is about "played," and you can make up your mind that any "fill" you may hold won't elect Hiram S. Stevens as our next delegate.

SAYS the Miner of the 18th: J. G. Campbell leaves for Little Colorado tomorrow. We will guarantee that he will find the boulders on the Mogollon solid voters and all pledged, and he can't turn their minds.

A PETITION has been forwarded to the department at Washington asking for the establishment of a postoffice in the Tombstone district. The petitioners asked for the appointment of O. H. Dupuy as postmaster.

OLIVER BOYER, the murderer of M. A. Sweeney, was arrested in Sonora September 16. The prisoner is now in Tucson, his captors having arrived there with him October 9.

LARGE deposits of stone coal have been discovered about thirty miles north of Brigham City, on the Little Colorado, in Yavapai county, in this territory.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

Ben. Butler is worth $3,000,000. Philadelphia counts up this year 180,040 votes.

November 5th will be the date of the Massachusetts election, and Ben. Butler's sixtieth birthday.

It is said that the recent visit of Postmaster-general Keys to San Francisco will result in the erection of a fine postoffice building in that city.

R. A. Hawkins, stock broker in San Francisco, has been found guilty of certain crookedness in obtaining one hundred shares of San Xavier mining stock.

Ex-Secretary Boutwell says he will be disappointed if Butler is not beaten by more than 25,000 majority in his canvass for the governorship of Massachusetts.

A majority of nearly 3,000 of the voters of New Haven, Conn., have decided to put the Bible into the public schools again. The catholic vote contributed to the result.

A man by the name of Brown, who lives near Middleton, Kentucky, was sold as a vagrant in Franklin a few days ago. He was purchased for fifty cents.

John Donovan, of Memphis, was in Texas when the fever almost annihilated his family. They telegraphed to him to return, but he made answer: "I can do no good by going; my life is of importance to my little ones if they are spared."

Among the men who have recently enlisted in the regular army at Washington is one who held the rank of captain in the army before the war, and who rose to the rank of major-general in the confederate service.

Trabing's ranch, on Crazywoman creek, 28 miles north of Fort McKinley, was entered by road agents, eight in number, Saturday night last. Several persons were present at the time, but no resistance was offered. One United States horse was taken, and the store was robbed of everything valuable, which was carried away on twelve pack animals.

At Chicago, on Saturday, the 13th, in a special trial by Hopeful for a purse of $1,000, to beat the best wag on time on record, the first heat was made in 2:16 1/2; second and third heats, 2:17 each. Hopeful and Great Eastern left for New York, Rarus was to trot against time in Omaha this week. Sweetzer, the great pacer, has been purchased by a gentleman named Perrin, of New York.

Arizona's Wealth. The Oakland (Cal.) Tribune states that an old Arizona pioneer, now in that city, believes the day of prosperity for Arizona is now dawning, and fully corroborates the statements made in the newspapers of the territory, as to the rapid increase of population during the past three years, and says the beneficial effects of the extension of the Southern Pacific railroad to Yuma, have been felt all over the territory—not so much in the actual reduction of freights and more rapid and cheaper traveling facilities, as in the moral effect on the community, from the fact that it is the great undeniable exponent of civilization, and the certainty that the road will at once be built to Maricopa Wells, two hundred miles east from Yuma, where it will tap the center of all the territory, has infused new life into the whole people. Our informant is a miner in the Bradshaw mountains, north of Phoenix, and states that more attention has been given to mines in Maricopa and Yavapai counties, by outsiders, in the past ten months, than in the previous five years. Parties from California and from the eastern states are prospecting about, quietly buying promising properties, and examining the country. Even Chinamen have commenced working over the old abandoned placer diggings near Prescott. The Tipton mill, which works ores from Humboldt district, fifty miles north of Phoenix, ships to San Francisco about $50,000 in silver bullion monthly, and the Peck mill, twenty miles further north, sends nearly the same amount. Hoisting works are now building here, for the Tiger mine, ten miles south of the Peck mine, and many other silver mines are being opened so rapidly as the limited means of their owners will permit. In gold mining similar activity prevails. The Golden Star company is erecting a large mill in the midst of a cluster of gold mines thirty miles north of Phoenix. A ten stamp mill has recently been shipped to the Oro Bonito gold mine in Tiger district, in the Bradshaw mountains. The old Vulture mine, near Wickenburg, which has been worked by a ten stamp mill, has been taken hold of by a heavy company which proposes to put up an eighty stamp mill. The Vulture has been opened to a depth of 300 feet, has been worked since 1864, and has yielded over a million of dollars worth of gold, and is rich in the bottom as on the surface and perfectly dry.

POLITICAL.

Democrats, Beware!

It is in vain to the knowledge of the Democratic Central Committee that certain Non-Partisan and Independent candidates are having their names printed upon Democratic tickets, leaving out the name of the regular nominee and substituting their own instead. The following is the regular Democratic ticket nominated by the County Convention on the 10th day of August, 1878:

County—C. H. Gray. Assembly—John T. Alsap and E. F. Gleason. District Attorney—John E. Naylor. Sheriff—Reuben S. Thomas. Recorder—Nori F. Osborne. Treasurer—M. L. Peralta. Surveyor—William M. Breckinridge. Supervisors—John L. Gregg, J. H. Lively. Public Administrator—R. P. Hillands.

The committee respectfully warn all who wish to encourage and support the grand old principle of Democracy to examine carefully their tickets before voting, and see that the names of all of the convention's nominees appear upon it. Uncompromising Republicans, and what is still less worthy of your support, sore-headed Democrats who have not manhood enough to rise above their desire for office and stand by the nominees of their party convention, take this means of fixing themselves upon the people, and our only remedy to be anxious carefully our tickets before voting.

By order of the Democratic Central Committee. PHOENIX, A. T., October 22, 1878.
