

DREYFUS DENIES ALL

Dramatic Refutation of the Bordereau Charges.

JUDGE IN ROLE OF PROSECUTOR

Rennes Tranquil as the Trial of the Famous Prisoner Progresses.

BAYONETS GLISTEN IN CHAMBER

Col. Jouanet, President of the Court-martial, Conducts Examination of the Accused at the Barracks, Showing Impatience at the Accused's Vehement Denials—Secret Doors to Be Considered Behind Closed Doors—Entire Absence of Disorder—Next Session on Saturday.

(Copyright, 1899, by the Associated Press.)

Rennes, Aug. 7.—The ancient capital of Brittany was never less than a feverish city. It seemed a hundred thousand miles away from Dreyfus and his exciting case. Dreyfus was known to be a good soldier, and he had been a good soldier until yesterday he refused to see the last set of photographs of his children, brought from Paris by his brother-in-law.

He had remarked to his brother, Mathieu Dreyfus, on the strangeness of his fate, so strange that he himself could not realize it. Nothing, he said, distinguished him more than to find factions distinguished by the name of Jews, or anything like that. The Paris journalists who had come to report the trial seemed calmed by the quietude of this dead city.

It was expected that the Dreyfusites and anti-Dreyfusites would show each other and put up at different hotels, but they have tacitly agreed to sink their differences in each other's company. They not only lodge at the same hotels, but they take their meals at the same tables and amicably pass to each other the dishes. Dreyfus does not want them to be theatrical, and so they do not pose as ferocious patriots, but are glad to drop the characteristics for the drama-loving public of Paris.

PRISON FOR COUNCILMEN

Fourteen New York City Legislators To Be Arrested for Contempt.

300 Press Representatives.

No idea has Rennes that the eyes of the world are upon her, although there must be within her walls 300 press men, representing journalists all the world over. It never before occurred to me what a far-reaching institution the press is, or at least I never realized it so peculiarly.

We were all up at 5 this morning, and the journalists all the world over. It never before occurred to me what a far-reaching institution the press is, or at least I never realized it so peculiarly.

New York, Aug. 7.—In the Supreme Court today Judge Fitzgerald ordered that Councilmen Cassidy, Oakley, Foley, Engel, Goodwin, Murphy, Wise, Hottenrott, Franco, Letch, Doyle, Williams, Conly and Murray pay a fine of $100 each, and that they be committed to prison until they comply with the command of the writ of mandamus to assemble and authorize the Comptroller to issue corporate stock for the purpose of paying Conly to whom a contract for the erection of the new hall of records.

It is not at all likely that any warrant will be prepared until Wednesday, and if the bonds to the Comptroller are not authorized, the warrant will probably be dropped. If the bonds are not authorized, the warrant will probably be dropped. If the bonds are not authorized, the warrant will probably be dropped.

Some of the Notables.

Capt. Dreyfus crossed the hall close to the door, and he was followed by a crowd of witnesses, who were taken to the doctor's room. Gens. Billot, Mercier, Charbonnet, Zurlinden, and de Boleff were in uniform, as many of the field and staff officers were.

The widow of Col. Henry leaned upon the arm of Capt. Wuno. She was most anxious to see Dreyfus. The judge and Mercier. She looks stony and not ladylike.

Gen. de Pelloux kept aloof. M. Cavagnier cheerfulness seemed forced, but President Dreyfus was smiling, and his face was a study. He wore a summer suit, and his hair was white, waistcoat, and a straw hat.

Col. Picquart was in plain clothes and he had a note from him, written in Tokyo, to the effect that he expected to be in France on August 8. He is coming home on the Princess of India, upon which he sailed from this country.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE EN ROUTE.

The Last Indiana Statesman Due at Vancouver Tomorrow.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 7.—The first definite news that has reached this city from United States Senator Beveridge for two weeks was received to-day through the insurance agency, which representative at New York has long been a personal friend of the Indiana Senator.

The telegram stated that the New York friend had a note from him, written in Tokyo, to the effect that he expected to be in France on August 8. He is coming home on the Princess of India, upon which he sailed from this country.

Goebel Democrats Open the Campaign.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 7.—The campaign for Governor, headed by William Goebel for Governor, was opened to-day, meetings being held in a dozen or more of the principal towns of the State. Congressman Settle, and Rhea, and Rhea made addresses at Frankfort, Dixson, Hopkinsville, and Russellville respectively. Congressman Rhea is the most prominent of the Hardin leaders in the campaign. He is expected to take the stump for Goebel. Candidates on the State ticket made speeches in various parts of the State.

Col. Jouanet, in stentorian voice, declared the trial began, and ordered the accused to be brought in. All eyes were turned upon Dreyfus. His fresh complexion astonished all. The figure remains clean. He enters with measured step. He made of saluting the court was

TO STRIKE THE YAQUIS

Mexican Cavalry Start on a Perilous Expedition.

500 AMERICANS STILL IN DANGER

Capt. Ross, an Arizona Miner, Just Arrived from the Scene of Hostilities, Says the Number of Gold Hunters Along the Yaqui River Has Been Overstated—Believes Most of Them Will Get Warning in Time to Make Their Escape.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 7.—A dispatch received here to-night from Casas Grandes, State of Chihuahua, Mex., saying that one regiment of Mexican cavalry had just left there and started on its way to the upper waters of the Yaqui River, in the State of Sonora, and that it is the evident intention of these troops to enter the Yaqui Indian country from the north and endeavor to drive the warring braves out of their strongholds in the Saburapa Mountains, where they are gathering rapidly in large forces.

One body of rebellious Indians have fortified themselves in the Bacateo Mountains, between the Yaqui and Matopo Rivers, and an effort is to be made to keep the two forces of warriors apart. It is known, however, that the two divisions are in constant communication by means of couriers, and it is feared the Indians are planning to draw the Mexican soldiers into an ambush.

Also dined Rich Mines.

Two more parties of American prospectors have just arrived at Casas Grandes. They had a rich placer mining camp near the junction of the Pappigochic and Bateo Rivers, which they abandoned upon hearing alarming reports of the commission of terrible outrages committed by roving bands of Yaquis at points below them.

Capt. Martin Ross, an old Arizona prospector, is a member of one of these parties. He was one of the first prospectors to enter the Yaqui country after it was made safe for gold hunters. He says the Indians are undoubtedly well prepared for a long and bitter resistance. He believes the majority of American prospectors will hear of the uprising in time to escape if they will heed the first warning that comes from Drayton. Any delay in breaking camp may mean their death.

All Day Yet Escape.

Capt. Ross also says there are not many American prospectors along the Yaqui River as is generally supposed. Several thousand went into the new country during the last two years, but the majority of them were disappointed in their search for gold and got out as quickly as they could. He estimates that there are only a few hundred Americans in the district. There is only one extensive mining plant with any reach of the Indians. It is owned by California capitalists.

MR. CARNEGIE'S CITIZENSHIP.

The Question Comes Up in Parliament in Connection with His Association.

London, Aug. 7.—The Lord Advocate of Scotland, the Rt. Hon. A. G. Murray, O. C. S., replying in the House of Commons to a question of Mr. Thomas Buchanan, a prominent young man of this place, and John McClinton, a negro, were wounded in a fight between the whites and negroes living in the vicinity of the Poe mill. The churches were soon deserted and the negroes, arming themselves with shot-guns, revolvers, axes and other dangerous implements, went to the mill. The Sheriff and Chief of Police assured them that Moore was in jail, but they refused to believe them, and one of the negroes said, "We will get the Chief of Police if Moore is lynched."

DESPERATE SABER DUEL.

Herr Wolf Twice Badly Wounded by a Colleague of the Reichsrath.

Vladivostok, Aug. 7.—A sensational saber duel was fought to-day between Herr Wolf, the notorious German Radical member of the Reichsrath, and Herr Krzke, a German Liberal Deputy. It was a furious encounter. Herr Wolf received a wound in the head, and the other doctors declared him incapable of continuing the duel, but he persisted, though his face was bathed in blood. Ultimately he sustained a second wound in the head, and was carried home in a dangerous condition.

RUSSIA WARNS CHINA.

Alliance with Japan Would Be Attended by the Most Serious Consequences.

Peking, Aug. 8.—M. de Giers, the Russian Minister, has addressed a note to the Tsung-Li-Yamen, warning that body that the conclusion of an alliance with Japan would give great offense to Russia, and that the consequences to China would be most serious.

"All Well" with the Shamrock.

Limerick, Ireland, Aug. 7.—The steamer Shamrock, which arrived here to-day, reports having spoken Sir Thomas Lipton's steam yacht Erin, towing the cup challenger Shamrock, at 7:15 Friday evening, ten miles southwest of Funchal. There was a light wind blowing. The Erin signalled "All well."

Gen. Pierron Succeeds Gen. de Negrier.

Paris, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pierron has been appointed to succeed Gen. de Negrier as a member of the Supreme Council of War. Gen. de Negrier was removed from membership in the Supreme Council of War on July 25 for making remarks incompatible with military discipline.

Free Thinkers and Catholics at Odds.

Madrid, Aug. 7.—Serious disturbances have occurred at Castellon. Opposing bands of Catholics and Free Thinkers fought in front of a church yesterday and several persons, including a priest, were injured.

Japan Has Not Seized Wake Island.

Berlin, Aug. 7.—A dispatch received here from Tokyo says there is no truth in the report that the Japanese flag has been hoisted over Wake Island, northwest of the Marianas.

High Honor Conferred on M. Delcasse.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—The Czar has conferred upon M. Delcasse, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Alexander Nevsky Order in diamonds.

Mayor Jones to Address Strikers.

Teledo, Ohio, Aug. 7.—Mayor Jones announced to-day that he will address the Cleveland street car strikers on Wednesday night. He will advocate municipal ownership as the remedy for strikes. The Mayor will also argue against the boycott, which he does not believe will be successful.

$250,000 Cement Plant Burned.

Glens Falls, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Fire, entailing a loss of about $250,000, totally destroyed the works of the Glens Falls Portland Cement Company yesterday. The buildings, which the Japanese flag has been hoisted over, were in one hour the entire plant was in ruins.

RUSSIAN COUNT AN EMBEZZLER.

Held in New York to Await the Arrival of Extradition Papers.

Administration Influence in the Ohio Campaign.

PRESIDENT'S PERSONAL CONCERN

Federal Office-holders Who Can Speak Will Be Expected to Join Senator Hanna Upon the Stump or Otherwise to Work for Republican Success—Easy Limitations Against Display of Partisanship—Effect of McLean's Nomination on the State.

There is no concealment of the fact that the President and his administration will do everything possible to aid in the election of Judge Nash as Governor of Ohio.

Anticipating the nomination of John R. McLean, the Democrats, the Republican leaders look forward to an extremely hard campaign. There was a time, some six weeks ago, when Chairman Dick, of the Republican State Committee, welcomed McLean's nomination, believing that he would run at least 20,000 votes behind his ticket. This feeling has now changed. It is realized that he is an excellent organizer, that he has close personal relations with Republicans who are not sympathetic with the candidacy, and with Hanna, and that he is popular in those cities where the Republican cause is the weakest. In Hamilton County, for instance, McLean is sure to receive a large vote. The labor element will be especially friendly to the Republican ticket, and the people generally he is popular. He has the faculty of remembering names and of offering cordial greeting to his acquaintances. If, in addition to his personal qualities, he should receive the support of George B. Cox, he would insure in Hamilton County a Democratic majority. Cox's support is not beyond possibility. The two men have always been close friends, and although Cox went over to Hanna at the Columbus convention, he is receiving in return therefor the nomination of Judge Caldwell to be Lieutenant Governor. He has nothing to gain from Nash's election.

Hanna to Go Upon the Stump.

It is not likely that the President will make any speeches in Ohio, although the fact that he will pass through the State on his way to Chicago and return in October may be seized as an opportunity for some rear-platform utterances. Hanna, however, will go upon the stump as soon as the campaign opens. He is very much pleased with himself as a campaign orator, and believes that he can personally win many votes. The entire situation concerning Ohio will be worked with equal earnestness for the Republican ticket. All of the office-holders are not stumpers, and those who cannot talk will be expected to co-operate with the State committee in effecting organization. The Republicans are expected to remain quiet. Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Brigham, who is always in request as a public speaker, will be expected to get out upon the stump in Hamilton County, and Attorney General Richards, who is another popular orator, will also be in demand. Commissioner Watson, who is engaged in Washington in codifying the laws, and Commissioner Kennedy, who is at Porto Rico Commission, also expected to travel through the State making speeches.

RACE CLASH IN GREENVILLE.

Negroes Rose Up When Told There Had Been a Lynching.

Greenville, S. C., Aug. 7.—Ben Odum, a prominent young man of this place, and John McClinton, a negro, were wounded in a fight between the whites and negroes living in the vicinity of the Poe mill. The churches were soon deserted and the negroes, arming themselves with shot-guns, revolvers, axes and other dangerous implements, went to the mill. The Sheriff and Chief of Police assured them that Moore was in jail, but they refused to believe them, and one of the negroes said, "We will get the Chief of Police if Moore is lynched."

A White Man and Five Blacks Wounded Before the Falsity of the Report Was Shown—Two Arrests Cause More Excitement.

Greenville, S. C., Aug. 7.—Ben Odum, a prominent young man of this place, and John McClinton, a negro, were wounded in a fight between the whites and negroes living in the vicinity of the Poe mill. The churches were soon deserted and the negroes, arming themselves with shot-guns, revolvers, axes and other dangerous implements, went to the mill. The Sheriff and Chief of Police assured them that Moore was in jail, but they refused to believe them, and one of the negroes said, "We will get the Chief of Police if Moore is lynched."

CHIEF OF MOROS KILLED.

Naval Force Encounters Resistance Upon Landing in the Island of Balabac.

The following dispatch was received yesterday from Admiral Watson, in command of the Asiatic Station: Secretary Navy, Washington, D. C.

Naro, the commander of the Manila, on July 21, received from the Balabac, Balabac, Philippine Islands, a report that a party of 130 men, under the command of Estan E. L. Bisset, encountered resistance. A party of 100 men, under the command of Estan E. L. Bisset, encountered resistance. A party of 100 men, under the command of Estan E. L. Bisset, encountered resistance.

MUST LEARN TO SHOOT.

Gen. Miles Instructs Officers to Give the Men Plenty of Target Practice.

Gen. Miles is anxious that the new recruits be especially efficient with small arms, and an order was sent to the commander of each regiment yesterday, directing that target practice be given by the officers to the recruits. A statement prepared at the War Department shows that by the 25th of October there will be at Manila or on the way to the Philippines, 40,000 men. They will all reach the islands before the beginning of the rainy season.

ACETYLENE PLANT BLOWN UP.

Town of Washett Gets a Severe Shock and Is Left in Dark.

Washett, Ind., Aug. 7.—The gas works of the Logansport and Washett Valley Gas Company were destroyed by a terrible explosion, which blew the city up to 10 o'clock to-night there is no evidence of further trouble, but the Governor was asked to order the local militia to hold itself at the disposal of the Sheriff, and this he did.

BAR HARBOR FERRY-SLIP CALAMITY.

No More Bodies Found, but One of the Injured Is Not Expected to Recover.

Bar Harbor, Me., Aug. 7.—A careful examination by divers in the vicinity of the Mount Desert ferry slip, the scene of a terrible accident yesterday, and investigation on shore by the officials of the Maine Central Railroad and others, up to 10 o'clock to-night there is no evidence of further trouble, but the Governor was asked to order the local militia to hold itself at the disposal of the Sheriff, and this he did.

Enforced Tranquillity in Guatemala.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—The steamer San Jose arrived from Panama and way ports to-day. The complete list of dead shows no change from that sent out last night, save that the woman who was designated as unknown has been identified as Mrs. Marjorie Mower, of California.

Demanded Their Release.

Sharp Controversy Over Seizure of Canadian Fishing Craft.

Port Townsend, Wash., Aug. 7.—The recent seizure of several Canadian fishing vessels by the revenue launch guard, in the vicinity of Point Roberts and Blaine, for fishing in American waters, has raised some intricate points in international law. It is claimed there is no law which prohibits foreign vessels from fishing in American waters, and the remaining troops passing the British Embassy at Washington made a demand on the United States government for the immediate release of the vessels.

Deserting Their Flag.

Dominican Troops Said to Be Joining Revolt.

JIMINEZ FEELS SURE OF RESULT

Accepting the Advice of His Lieutenants on the Ground, He Will Not Risk the Dangers of a Journey to Santo Domingo at Present—State Department Without Advice of Important Developments Reported from Cape Haitien.

Havana, Aug. 7.—Gen. Juan Isidro Jimenez, who was interviewed to-day, said he was in daily receipt about twenty-five cablegrams from Santo Domingo, where all was going well. To the interviewer he exhibited a letter, which he said was from a person of influence, advising him not to risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

TROOPERS LEAVE FOR MANILA.

Soldiers from Fort Myer and Their Mounts Start on Long Journey.

Yesterday morning three troops of the Third United States Cavalry, stationed at Fort Myer, Va., left Washington for the Pacific coast. From Seattle they will embark for the Philippine Islands. The troops passed down Pennsylvania avenue at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, and received hearty applause and farewells from the pedestrians on the street at that early hour. At Seventh street the troops divided, Troop M going along Louisiana avenue to the New Jersey avenue station of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and Troop N going down Seventh street to the Maryland avenue freight stations of the Baltimore and Ohio system.

DESERTING THEIR FLAG

Dominican Troops Said to Be Joining Revolt.

JIMINEZ FEELS SURE OF RESULT

Accepting the Advice of His Lieutenants on the Ground, He Will Not Risk the Dangers of a Journey to Santo Domingo at Present—State Department Without Advice of Important Developments Reported from Cape Haitien.

Havana, Aug. 7.—Gen. Juan Isidro Jimenez, who was interviewed to-day, said he was in daily receipt about twenty-five cablegrams from Santo Domingo, where all was going well. To the interviewer he exhibited a letter, which he said was from a person of influence, advising him not to risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

TROOPERS LEAVE FOR MANILA.

Soldiers from Fort Myer and Their Mounts Start on Long Journey.

Yesterday morning three troops of the Third United States Cavalry, stationed at Fort Myer, Va., left Washington for the Pacific coast. From Seattle they will embark for the Philippine Islands. The troops passed down Pennsylvania avenue at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, and received hearty applause and farewells from the pedestrians on the street at that early hour. At Seventh street the troops divided, Troop M going along Louisiana avenue to the New Jersey avenue station of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and Troop N going down Seventh street to the Maryland avenue freight stations of the Baltimore and Ohio system.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.

Accessions to the Army of Revolt.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 7.—Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clema Navarro, Jose Po, and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Pablo Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chagout and Curabo, as far as Jose de Las Matas, as well as the towns of Gayubin, Sabanaeta, Manzanillo, and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half of these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

Gen. Jimenez said he could not leave Havana at present, as he must have a headquarters from which to send orders and at which to receive news, but when all was assumed he would go. He remarked that he could not risk participation in an expedition, as the result was assured, and was only a matter of time. According to the writer, if anything happened to Jimenez, the people of Santo Domingo would regard it as a great success, inasmuch as their ideals and hopes regarding good government were bound up in him. Moreover, the present situation needed a man in some position like Hureaux, whereas the present Executive, Hureaux, was unable to work on the lines followed by Hureaux, was mean, unpopular, and incapable of carrying on the administration with the necessary vigor.