

"The Best, Most Complete and Most Reliable Book of the Soldier in Our Civil War ever Published."

FRANK LESLIE'S SCENES AND PORTRAITS OF THE CIVIL WAR

Magnificent Reproductions of the Famous Frank Leslie War Pictures.

An Absolutely Impartial Pictorial and Descriptive History of the Great Conflict.

A Work that Will Please Everybody, Especially the Gallant Veterans of Both the North and the South.

A Grand Panorama of the Exciting Events of 1861 to 1865.

A book to glance at for a moment. A book to pore over for hours. A book to last a lifetime.

The first part of this excellent book will be embellished with Mr. F. B. CARPENTER'S famous portrait of ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

This work will be published weekly, and be completed in thirty parts. In printing, paper, and illustrations it will in every way equal the best illustrated histories of the War, which cost from $16 to $24.

Never, Never, Never Before. Has the public had an opportunity to secure such a rare historic RELIC at so small a cost.

SPECIAL OFFER to readers of THE WASHINGTON TIMES. THE WASHINGTON TIMES has secured all the right to FRANK LESLIE'S SCENES AND PORTRAITS OF THE CIVIL WAR for the territory covered by its circulation, and to its readers exclusively this splendid work is now offered on exceptionally favorable terms.

Cut from the columns of our daily edition, of different dates, and to cents in coin, we will supply our readers with each part as issued.

HUNDREDS OF STIRRING BATTLE SCENES!

PICTURES THAT HOLD THE ATTENTION WITH UNDYING FASCINATION.

PORTRAITS OF ALL THE CELEBRATED GENERALS.

PICTURES THAT BRING THE SOUND OF MARTIAL MUSIC TO THE EAR!

How to Get this Illustrated War Book For Six Coupons

- 1. Abraham Lincoln. 2. The Sixth Regiment Volunteers leaving... 3. The Seventh Regiment, New York S. M., passing down Cortland street... 4. The German Regiment, Stubbs Volunteers... 5. Troops drilling in the grounds on the north side of the Capitol... 6. Lieut. Gen. Winfield Scott... 7. Col. Ephraim E. Ellsworth... 8. The murder of Col. Ellsworth... 9. Fort Sumter, Charleston Harbor... 10. Castle Pinckney, Charleston Harbor... 11. Lieut. Tompkins at the head of B Company... 12. Camp Corcoran on Arlington Heights... 13. Battle of Great Bethel... 14. Gen. Schenck with four companies... 15. The Battle of Bull Run... 16. The charges of the First Iowa Regiment... 17. Passage down the Ohio River... 18. The charges of the First Iowa Regiment...

ODD FELLOWS; GOOD FELLOWS.

The diamond anniversary of American Odd Fellowship was celebrated on Thursday last by an imposing street parade in the afternoon and a magnificent ball in the evening. The weather was favorable and the arrangements were complete for which the committee deserves special credit. The general programme as carried out consisted of the parade in the afternoon, exercises in Convention hall, and the ball in the evening. Immense crowds of people lined the streets over which the parade passed, and evinced much interest in the fine display that was made.

gallant men and handsome women, many of whom tripped the proverbial "light fantastic toe" to their heart's delight under the inspiration of the music furnished by the Marine Band orchestra. The entire programme was carried out without a hitch. Everybody seemed pleased, and the Seventy-fifth anniversary celebration of American Odd Fellowship in the District of Columbia was concluded with credit to the order and gratification to its many friends.

Monday evening last. There was a good attendance and an interesting programme carried out. Past Grand H. S. Harrell, of Metropolitan Lodge, No. 16, who was recently indisposed, has resumed his usual duties.

Equity Court, No. 1, Justice Cox-Crutchfield vs. Crutchfield; testimony before W. Herbert... Criminal Court, No. 2, Justice Bradley-M. V. Pollard vs. W. C. P. Breckinridge; amount of appeal bond fixed at $100; extended thirty days from date to give appellant time to file a new trial or writ of habeas corpus.

Art Notes. The delightful series of the exhibits of the work of local artists at V. G. Fisher's art gallery closed yesterday with that of R. L. Grand Johnson, who ran successfully during the past week. Through Mr. Johnson came last his brush-work by no means least in merit or beauty.

MARY ANDERSON'S EXPECTED MEMOIRS. More than a year ago Mary Anderson began to write her memoirs, and they were about completed when she left Divine. These memoirs, which are to be published in the United States by the Harpers, and in Great Britain by Osmond, McIlvane & Co., will be a notable contribution to stage history and to the literature of the day.

Richmond (Me.) girl was silly enough to answer the advertisement of a young man in a sensational weekly publication. She thought she had concealed her real name, but he found it out. On hearing that the fellow proposed to pay her a visit the girl tried to get her family to send her to a convent. Doughtless Kinney, of Canton, Ohio, was the prize idiot of the state. He committed suicide after his wife had divorced him, when he might have begun to enjoy life.