

IT IS

No easy matter to provide styles and patterns in Boys' Clothes to suit everybody. We came nearer to it than anyone else, for we are willing to wager that we sell a larger percentage of the customers who come to look than any other store in town, and we couldn't do so if we did not have the proper garments at proper prices.

There's a big invoice of new styles in Children's $5, $6, and $7 Suits at better values than you'd find elsewhere at these prices. Come in to-day and look them over, you'll be more than satisfied with the style and qualities.

Boys' Furnishings, too, of every description are here, all the best makes, at less than furnishing store prices.

Brooklyn Handicap Winner Put Another Race to His Credit.

BANQUET COULDN'T GET THERE The Dwyer gelding Flattered His Backers for While, but the Doctor Always Held Him Safe--Sirocco Was Favorite in the Third Event, but Was Badly Beaten.

New York, May 18.—The attendance at the Gravesend track was again large to-day, although there was a slight falling off from yesterday. The chief interest of the day was in the promised contest between Clifford and Dr. Rice at 122 pounds each in the Parkway handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, but to the disappointment of all, Clifford was scratched, leaving Banquet as the chief contender. In view of the smallness of the field, the Dwyer gelding was well supported, and flattered his backers for awhile, only to give up in the end.

Up to the three-quarter pole the four contenders ran nose and tail at a cracking gait, Blitzen leading the way, with Dr. Rice second, Banquet third, and Herald last. The mile was run in 1:41 1/2, and then Blitzen shut up suddenly and dropped to last place. Banquet tried hard to overtake Dr. Rice, but could not, and the latter won a well-run race in fast time.

The Sly Dance colt won the opening dash very easily from an ordinary lot, although whatever chance the Morris filly Monotony had was spoiled by a wretched start. An ordinary lot was in the second race, and the favorite, Leoville, won easily enough. Walter Biggs had no trouble to get the place at long odds. No tickets were sold on him for the place in the match.

The favorite, Sirocco, was short a race and was badly beaten in the third race, the victor turning up in Appomattox, who ran well backed by his owner, Fifteen 2-year-olds started in the fifth race at selling weights, and to the surprise of everybody a prompt start was made, with the favorite, Nanki Pook, in a good position. Second attempt led to the last furlong, but Tamerlane and Nanki Pook set sail for him, and both passed him with ease. A few more jumps would have landed the race for the favorite, but the post was too near and Tamerlane won. Summary:

FIRST RACE—Four and a half furlongs. Sly Dance colt, 118 (Griffin), 6 to 5, won by one and a half lengths; Monotony filly, 118 (Lantry), third. Time—1:20 1/2. Second race—One mile. Ladr Adams, Sappho, and Ironsides also ran.

TRAGEDY ON A TRACK. Jockey Goodale Thrown to the Ground and Killed by Virden's Hoofs. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 18.—About 4,000 people attended the fourth day's races of the Louisville Jockey Club at Churchill Downs. The track was dusty and about one second slow. Only five races were run to-day. The fourth event was declared off. In the second race Judge Payne fell just beyond the half-mile pole, throwing jockey Goodale. Virden, who was last and coming at full speed, stepped on his forehead, crushing it in and causing concussion of the brain, from which he died about twenty minutes after the fall. He was laid buried to-day, three favorites winning. Weather cloudy.

Only One Favorite Won. ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 18.—On a track heavy and worse than mud, and the weather so cold as to render everything and everybody almost unmovable from stiffness, it was no wonder that to-day at the fair grounds only one favorite was successful in landing the money placed on him. All the favorites went to outside. The favorite was Jim Lee in the fifth race, when Earl Cochran rode out to a successful finish. The track was in such condition as to make the sport little less than a farce.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs. Gallop in won; Blake second; William third. Time—1:29 1/2. SECOND RACE—One and one-quarter miles. Gray Forest won; Perrine second; Henry Jencks third. Time—2:17 1/2. SPORTING GOSSIP.

Baseball Games Prevented by Haze--Several People Not Anxious for a Bout. Bats played a star engagement in several of the league cities yesterday, and prevented the games scheduled to be played. Up to 3 o'clock the chances here were in favor of the Senators and Orioles being able to play, but the storm came along and knocked all calculations into a cocked hat. But two games were played in the league, and the New Yorks and Bostonians doubtless wish neither of these had been possible.

From the manner in which Stein held the Giants down it would seem as if the Brooklyn pitcher had recovered his form of last season. If such should happen to be the case, it will be of immense advantage to the Bridgegrons and add considerable strength.

This afternoon the Senators will make another effort to down the high-flying Orioles on the Baltimore grounds. In all probability Esper will be brought out from his seclusion and utilized in the points for Washington, while McMahon will twist the sphere for the Orioles.

Judging from the failure of the efforts of Jack Adams and others to get Jack Bolan to agree to make a match with a team, as if Bolan was not very anxious to come to terms with any man of reputation, if he desires to do business for a stake and purse, he can be accommodated. Walter Campbell is particularly anxious to have a go with Bolan.

Evidently the Clifford people did not care to try conclusions with Dr. Rice in the Parkway handicap yesterday, although the western crack was drawn. As a result the full consequences of Clifford's poor start in the Brooklyn handicap could not be determined.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

Baseball Games Prevented by Haze--Several People Not Anxious for a Bout. Bats played a star engagement in several of the league cities yesterday, and prevented the games scheduled to be played. Up to 3 o'clock the chances here were in favor of the Senators and Orioles being able to play, but the storm came along and knocked all calculations into a cocked hat. But two games were played in the league, and the New Yorks and Bostonians doubtless wish neither of these had been possible.

From the manner in which Stein held the Giants down it would seem as if the Brooklyn pitcher had recovered his form of last season. If such should happen to be the case, it will be of immense advantage to the Bridgegrons and add considerable strength.

This afternoon the Senators will make another effort to down the high-flying Orioles on the Baltimore grounds. In all probability Esper will be brought out from his seclusion and utilized in the points for Washington, while McMahon will twist the sphere for the Orioles.
