LOST IN THE TENTH. Orioles Pulled Out Victory Over the Senators by Heavy Hitting.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 2.—The Baltimore team to-day won the eleventh and last game in the series with the Washingtons. It was a postponed transferred game, and was full of excitement. Four home runs were made.

The heavy hitting of the visitors in the last two innings was offset by errors in the first part. With the score tied in the last half of the ninth inning, Brothers lined out a triple and Kelley brought him home on a two-bagger.

A regular umpire did not put in an appearance, and Clarke and McGuire, catchers of the two teams, did well. Attendance, 2,000. Score:

The Game at New York. NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—To-day's game resulted in a tie and such wild scenes were probably never seen on a ball field. With the score 1 to 1 against them, the Giants knocked Nichols out of the box in the fifth inning. German's work in the second inning was so bad that Westervelt took his place, and he in turn was relieved by Kautz. Emalie called the game out at the end of the ninth on account of darkness. Attendance, 10,000.

Wilson's $3.50 Shoes. Long before we began to manufacture these shoes we realized that $3.50 was the most popular price to pay for a shoe for men, women, and children. We were right in thinking so, for we sold thousands of pairs since they first came on sale. You cannot compare it with others $3.50 shoes. For we make it ourselves—strong, tested, leather—sell them direct to you—thus saving all middle profits, and really giving you a $5 shoe for $3.50. We close at 7 o'clock—Saturday as usual.

NEW OFFICIALS SWORN IN.

Health Officer Woodward and Coroner Hammett Take the Oath of Office.

The new health officer, W. C. Woodward, and the new coroner, C. M. Hammett, entered upon the duties of their respective offices yesterday, after taking the oath prescribed by law.

Dr. Hammett at noon surrendered his old office to Dr. Woodward. Before leaving the health officer Dr. Hammett received calls from all the employees to say adieu. B. F. Peters, one of the oldest assistants, who has been in the office for many years, was the retiring health officer. Dr. Hammett replied, thanking the clerks and others for their cordial support during his administration.

Health Officer Woodward left with Dr. Hammett to visit the morgue to view the body of a colored man who had been drowned early in the morning.

Dr. Woodward called on the Commissioners later in the day and was closeted with them for some time discussing matters pertaining to his new duties.

Prof. Conrad of East Washington, is strongly indorsed for the position now held by Chief Clerk Tracy, and it is thought that he will get it.

Nothing can be learned as to what the Commissioners will do, respecting the management of the health office.

Secretary Carlisle, to whom was referred the House or Stone bill providing for the inspection of immigrants by United States consuls at the port of embarkation, has made a report in opposition to the bill.

He says the law of 1893, under which the Department is now acting, is daily becoming more useful and efficacious and should not be hampered by a dual administration of the State and Treasury Departments, as would necessarily be the case under the Stone bill.

He speaks of the adverse report on this same subject made by the immigration commissioner to Secretary Foster, and gives in detail the objections urged by that commission, which were in effect that it would probably lead to international complications; would confer upon consuls duties not recognized by international law, and would doubtless result in a lower class of immigrants coming to this country than now, and in a lesser number of them.

He speaks of the adverse report on this same subject made by the immigration commissioner to Secretary Foster, and gives in detail the objections urged by that commission, which were in effect that it would probably lead to international complications; would confer upon consuls duties not recognized by international law, and would doubtless result in a lower class of immigrants coming to this country than now, and in a lesser number of them.

Accompanying the Secretary's adverse report on the Stone bill was the draft of a bill amendatory of the present immigration law. This bill Senator Hill yesterday reported from the Committee on Immigration. Its principal object is the exclusion of anarchists.

The first section of the substitute provides that no alien anarchist shall be permitted to land at any port in the United States, but that this provision shall not so construed as to exclude political refugees.

The bill provides for hearings in the cases of the landing of reported anarchists, and in case the hearing is held by the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to send the accused back to the country whence he came. The bill also provides for the deportation of any unnaturalized foreign-born person who, upon trial in any court, shall appear to be a member of the class in the first or second cabin, or in any part of the vessel.

He is also to give information as to any suspected persons, and to admonish the master of the vessel of the character of any immigrant if objectionable, who is to be required to pay a penalty of $100 in case he transports such a person, and to report the same to the United States consul at the port of departure.

It is also provided that the fact that an immigrant has given notice of intention to be a citizen shall not constitute a bar to proceedings against him.

The Committee on Immigration, of which Senator Hill is the chairman, gave a hearing yesterday to Representative Barthold, of Missouri, and Herman Scheuber, a labor agitator, both of whom opposed the Stone bill.

When Senator Hill introduced his substitute bill in the Senate, Mr. Chandler, a member of the committee, reserved the right to oppose the substitute and advocated the passage at this time of the original House bill, but he hoped the Senator from New York would bring up the two bills with a view to securing some legislation before the adjournment of this session.

Said to Have Married Another. There is a well-grounded rumor that Miss Mary Clippier, who achieved so much notoriety by eloping with Samuel Doyt, who was at the time employed in the Crawford shoe store, corner of Thirtieth and F streets, North, married to Perry Boynton, whose devoted attentions to his wife during the time she was engaged to Samuel Doyt caused much comment. The wedding is reported to have occurred some time between June 14 and 17, in Baltimore.

Struck By a Cable Car. Welby Mountjoy, employed by J. W. Greag, the dairyman, while driving on the west side of the milk wagon on Seventh street, near T street, yesterday afternoon, was struck by grip car No. 13, in charge of Gripman E. B. Clark, and seriously injured. No bones were broken, but it is feared that the unfortunate man was injured internally. Mountjoy was removed to Freedman's hospital, where late last night he was resting quietly.

Miscellaneous Sporting Notes. Senators are scheduled to-day at Boston. Kitchingham won the Goodwood cup. Ward's two errors were of the counting kind. President Robison denies the Cleveland are for sale. Welch defeated Walsenoff 98 to 89 in their live bird match at Philadelphia, breaking the world's record. Madison reports: E. S., Fiorella, Peralto, Roy, and Jim Head. Over 25,000 people attended the race New York-Boston games. The Duke of Westminster's three horse Ballington is dead, due to injuries received in his stall. Pitcher John Clarkson has retired, and will engage in business in Lansing, Mich. Solly Smith, the pugilist, was yesterday charged with vagrancy in Chicago and given twenty-four hours to leave town. Billy McMillan was ready last night to meet Holcomb or representative failed to appear. If the men are matched the fight will be for a stake, to come off within ten weeks.

MANLOVE CAUGHT NAPPING

Grand Prix Defeated Through His Jockey's Taking Things Too Easy.

Three Out of the Five Events Were Won by Horses Little Fancied by the Public—Neary Stole a March on Manlove and Upset the Good Thing.

It was hard lines on the talent yesterday at the Island course, the three last races being won by outsiders in the betting, the result in the closing event capping the climax. Grand Prix was a 2 to 5 favorite, and looked to be winning easily opposite the paddock with Manlove taking things easily. Suddenly Neary went to the whip and brought Johnny Up and past Grand Prix, winning by three parts of a length. Manlove was caught napping and could not get the favorite going until he was well past the paddock, and was well satisfied with Manlove's ride. As good as 30 to 1 was on tab about the winner.

Owing to various reasons the short races were out of the chute, and Starter Cassidy sent the fields away in good style. He appears to be nervous starting before the stand, and this was plainly shown when he lost a splendid opportunity in the fourth race and subsequently sent them in straggling order, with McDonald, the favorite, five lengths in the rear. Little Charlie made the most of his two lengths' advantage, and led to the stretch, where J. Kelly, who was not a favorite, joined issue, and in a drive Emily W. won by a half length from Vocalite, with Little Charlie a head away.

The best price against Lyosium in the opening event was 4 to 5, and at post time 1 to 3 ruled. The favorite laid third to the stretch, and then came in, winning easily by a length from Dr. Helmuth, who beat Tommy Brophy three parts of a length. Scattered round the field in the second to seven, and the odds were practically the same against Belle Blackburn and Miss Bess, with Gypsy Blackbourn and Belle Blackburn, who were joined by three parts of a length from Miss Bess, who beat Gypsy a half.

Hollywood was heavily backed to win the third, and closed at 7 to 5. The favorite was second to the stretch, after which he was not a factor. The finish was a pretty one, four horses finishing close together, Psyche winning by three parts of a length, while Senator, Fairy, and Olive of Telf were heads apart in the order given.

Hon. Run opened at even money in the fourth, but receded to 30 to 1, McDonald closing the choice over Little Charlie and Vocalite. Grand Prix was the best of the field at start, but was beaten out by both Emily W. and Vocalite. In the last race Grand Prix led until opposite the paddock, when Johnny Up came and won by three parts of a length. Summaries:

Pointers from the Paddock. McDonald's chances were killed by the start. Manlove was caught napping on Grand Prix. Johnny was at one time 50 to 1 in the betting. Mary B. ran well for five furlongs and then had enough. Major Hughes will do back when he gets in moderate company. The attendance was good, while the betting was better than usual. Jockey Murphy rode three seconds and one third out of his four mounts. Charley Draney thought Rebecca had a good chance, but she wasn't in it. Yesterday was one of the times when Lyosium didn't sink, and he was heavily backed. While public and horsemen prefer having the race run over the regular track the starting is much better out of the chute. Dr. Hasbrouck in Great Shape. SARATOGA, Aug. 2.—There were seven races on the card to-day, and an extra one was thrown in by some of the jockeys themselves.
