

You'll

Have lots of time yet in which to wear Light-weight Clothes, and you will find HERE a bigger and better variety of both dress and business Suits than you can anywhere else in town, and what is more they are BETTER and FINER garments, are more stylish in cut, and will FIT better, all of which can be easily proved by an inspection and comparison with what the others offer you, and if for any cause whatever you are not satisfied with any garment purchased here bring it back and get your money. Suits, good ones, at $10, $12, and $15, the kind that you'll be proud to wear and that don't have the best ready-made look about them; in fact, they are custom-made in everything except that your individual measure wasn't taken for them, but they'll FIT you perfectly.

Chance for Corbett and Fitzsimmons. New York, Aug. 14.—The Olympic Athletic Club of New Orleans has offered a purse of $25,000 for Corbett and Fitzsimmons, the winner to take all. The latter to-day accepted and Corbett's answer was: "I never saw the color of Fitzsimmons' money. Why does he not come out like a man and issue a challenge to the world, backed by cash. And if no one accepts it then it is my duty to do so."

MERCER LOST HIS OWN GAME.

The Young Man Was Unsteady in the Tenth and Cleveland Won. Mercer pitched superbly yesterday against the Spiders, only three hits being made off him. But the young man lost his own game. He grew nervous in the tenth amid the yelling of the Clevelanders, and after O. Tebeau had been retired he hit McGarr and gave G. Tebeau and McAlister bases, the latter under instructions. Zimmerman then won the day for his team. He made his second hit, and McGarr came home with the winning run. The game abounded with many beautiful fly catches, Abbey and Hassaman distinguishing themselves. The former's catch of Young's fly prevented the visitors from scoring in the eighth inning. Ward had his left thumb injured, and as O'Rourke went out to take his place a loud call went up for Radford. O'Rourke was called back, and as Paul took the bag applause followed. The Senators missed their only chance to score in the seventh when McGuire singled after Abbey went out. Selbach's base on balls advanced the former a base, and on Carter's hit to McKean, on which Selbach went out at second, he went to third. While Cartwright was signaling second Zimmerman returned the ball to Young, and McGuire thinking he was throwing to second he started for home and was run down.

G. Tebeau, the ex-Senator, covered first base, his brother, Oliver, taking care of second. The hitting was very weak on both sides and the heavy sluggers were retired with ease. The errors made by the several players did not enter into the score. Shuteck made a wonderful pickup and throw in the tenth. One of the most gratifying features of the game was the umpiring of Mr. Timoney. Hurst. Not a protest was heard, although he had two very close decisions to make.
