

TAKE

A little time; look all over town, then come and thoroughly inspect our new fall stock of Clothes, Hats, and Furnishings for Men and Boys, and you'll know what a complete line of fashionable, reliable, up-to-date garments we have.

Robinson, Chery & Co., Clothes, Furnishings, Hats, Twelfth and F Streets.

LANSBURGH & BRO.

EXCELLENT FITTING WRAPPERS ONLY $1.25.

The above represents an excellent fitting Wrapper, tea-gown effect, made of best Percale, striped and checked, in all the new shades, including Black and Red, Old Gold and Blue, and other pretty combinations.

Special Price, $1.25.

Order by mail if you live out of the city.

LANSBURGH & BRO.

420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

WATCH THIS SPACE CLOSELY

'Twill Cost You Nothing and Pay Handsomely.

BUCKLEY, THE TAILOR, 810 F. St. n.w., Will Present His Fall Specialties and Bargains Here Tri-weekly.

For Outside Lighting

The Siemens-Langren Gas Lamp is certainly the best. Best because the light is cheaper than electricity and because it gives a steadier and more brilliant light.

Gas Appliance Exchange, 1428 N. Y. Ave.

All the Fall Shapes

Ready refashioning Ladies' Felt and Straw Hats. Also full line of Millinery and Trimmings at WHITING'S, 818 Tenth Street Northwest.

FIRST IN A CLOSE FINISH

Senators Won a Hard-fought Game from the Colonels.

ABBEY'S BATTING A FEATURE

He Made a Hit Every Time He Went to the Bat—Joyce Was Close Up, While Ward, McGuire, Cartwright, and Mercer Excelled in Fielding—Other Games.

Results of Yesterday's Games.

BALTIMORE, 16: CINCINNATI, 1 (first game). BALTIMORE, 8: CINCINNATI, 4 (second game). CHICAGO, 13: BROOKLYN, 5. LOUISVILLE, 6: WASHINGTON, 7.

The Championship Record.

Table with columns for Team, W, L, Pct. Baltimore: 30, 37, .449. New York: 29, 42, .408. Boston: 27, 47, .366. Philadelphia: 25, 52, .326. Cleveland: 25, 52, .326. Brooklyn: 25, 52, .326.

TAIL-ENDERS DO BATTLE.

Senators Defeated the Colonels in a Very Close Game.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 16.—The tail-enders played a very interesting game today. Lake's error in the third and fourth innings lost the game for the home team. The Senators won in the ninth on a base on balls, sacrifice, two singles, and Inks' error. Clark's fielding and Abbey's batting were the features.

ORIOLES' VICTORIES BROKEN.

Cincinnati Won the Second Game from the Baltimorees Yesterday.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 16.—The Reds broke Baltimore's winning record today, stopping the Orioles after they had won eighteen straight games. There were two games this afternoon. Dyer was batted hard, and Baltimore won the first game easily.

DR. EASTON BELIEVES THAT THE MISSION OF THE AMERICAN CHURCH IS TO HASTEN THE MILLENNIUM.

"I believe America to be God's last experiment with the race to lift humanity up to the tablelands of universal freedom, and as America leads so shall the world find its destiny," said Dr. Easton, pastor of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, in an able discourse yesterday morning.

"GOD'S LAST EXPERIMENT."

Dr. Easton Believes that the Mission of the American Church is to Hasten the Millennium.

"I believe America to be God's last experiment with the race to lift humanity up to the tablelands of universal freedom, and as America leads so shall the world find its destiny," said Dr. Easton, pastor of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, in an able discourse yesterday morning.

THE MOST POPULAR POLICEMAN IS

Name..... Precinct.....

FUNERAL PRICES REDUCED.

S. H. HINES, Undertaker and Embalmer, Office, 2300 and 2305 Fourteenth street northwest, Branch office 910 Fourth and-a-half street southwest.

LUTHERAN LYCEUM.

Its First Meeting Held and Several Addresses Delivered to the Members.

The first meeting of the Lutheran Lyceum was held at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Church of the Redeemer (colored Lutheran), Eighth street northwest, above Florida avenue.

CRISP SPORTING COMMENT

But Two Weeks Remain of the Baseball Championship Season.

ORIOLES LOOK LIKE WINNERS

Unless Baltimore Takes an Unexpected Stimp the Pennant Will Go to the Monumental City—Senators Are Sure to Wind Up in Eleventh Place—News and Gossip.

GRANGE CAMP FAIR.

Everything in Readiness and a Long List of Sterling Attractions Provided for This Week.

The programme for the fair of the Grange Camp Association of Northern Virginia on Alexander Island this week contains some very interesting features.

On Tuesday there will be a bicycle contest for handsome prizes, hand-picked, the entries for which close on Wednesday, among which are about fifteen from the District of Columbia and Maryland.

On Wednesday there will be a steam fire engine contest for prizes amounting to $150, at which officers of the Washington fire department will act as judges.

On Thursday there will be a grand military drill for prizes aggregating $450 for Virginia companies only.

Officers of the Morton Camp of Washington, will act as a reception committee to escort the members of the Baltimore Club, for several years Mr. Von der Horst has gone down deep into his pocket and met the losses incurred in supporting a club in the Monumental City.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

CRISP SPORTING COMMENT

But Two Weeks Remain of the Baseball Championship Season.

ORIOLES LOOK LIKE WINNERS

Unless Baltimore Takes an Unexpected Stimp the Pennant Will Go to the Monumental City—Senators Are Sure to Wind Up in Eleventh Place—News and Gossip.

GRANGE CAMP FAIR.

Everything in Readiness and a Long List of Sterling Attractions Provided for This Week.

The programme for the fair of the Grange Camp Association of Northern Virginia on Alexander Island this week contains some very interesting features.

On Tuesday there will be a bicycle contest for handsome prizes, hand-picked, the entries for which close on Wednesday, among which are about fifteen from the District of Columbia and Maryland.

On Wednesday there will be a steam fire engine contest for prizes amounting to $150, at which officers of the Washington fire department will act as judges.

On Thursday there will be a grand military drill for prizes aggregating $450 for Virginia companies only.

Officers of the Morton Camp of Washington, will act as a reception committee to escort the members of the Baltimore Club, for several years Mr. Von der Horst has gone down deep into his pocket and met the losses incurred in supporting a club in the Monumental City.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H. Bacon, of Staunton, Va., arrived on Friday with forty pens of fine sheep and hogs, which are now on exhibition. Over 1,000 chickens, by well-known breeders from several States, have been entered.

Little from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia have been entered, and this feature is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen at a local fair.

Friday's programme includes a military drill between Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland troops. Entries will close Wednesday.

The $200 prize, since the National Penitentiary and Emmet Guard will compete, the association has added a second, a handsome stand of silk colors. The War Department has designated as judges of this contest Capt. J. M. Bell, Capt. M. F. Steele, Sergeant Alexander W. Perry, from Fort Myer, Va.

The fair will conclude on Saturday with a grand Virginia tournament for prizes and the Grange Camp luncheon, a much sought for treat.

Secretary Wedderburn on Saturday deposited $700 in the Traders' National Bank with which to pay the bicycle prizes.

K. H.