And there, with the pale moonlight and the yellow glow from the house about her.

"Not always, but for quite a time I seknowishe told her that he loved her. He was rather incoherent, but so ardent that he folt an undercurrent of surprise at himself.

"O, you may smile," he burst out, when he saw agicam of anusement on her face. "I was at the shore, then—my first summer out, and you were just through the institute, Don't you remember, now that I have given your memory a jog?

"Of course, my unfortunate name was against you recalling it, but I assure you it was predeatined.

"Three weeks? I tell you, since the beginning of time this has been planned. I have known you always have waited for you always; Marian, we have always known each other."

He came near, but Marian slipped hack, There was a strange look on her face that stayed him.

"Not always, Will," she said; and his heart.
