A Recommendation to Be Proud Of.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 12, 1894. Mr. A. MATHIEK LOW, Business Manager of THE WASHINGTON TIMES.

DEAR SIR: I take pleasure in informing you that at the last meeting of this Federation our members were requested to carefully read the advertising columns of THE TIMES every day and to patronize as much as possible those merchants and others whose advertisements appear in THE TIMES.

Our members were also requested to secure in every way possible new subscribers for THE TIMES, and bring the merits of the paper before those who are not our subscribers.

Our members all feel very friendly toward THE TIMES, and of course want to see it succeed. They are willing to help everybody who helps the paper. Respectfully,

JOSEPH K. POTTER, Secretary Federation of Labor of the District of Columbia.

WEARERS OF THE RED CROSS.

It has been often claimed that the Episcopal Church is conservative, and that it gives too much time to the formality of worship. Especially has the church been called to account for a lack of the future missionary spirit which characterizes many other creeds of Protestantism.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, now in session in the city, is a living, active and well-organized religious organization. Few societies equal this one in efficient work among young men, or in the wider work among older laymen into which the organization has branched.

Another UNSAFE BUILDING. Notwithstanding the reported feeling of security existing among the workmen in the post-office repair shop, Secretary Bissell, or his assistants, should at once move the force of repairers to safe quarters.

FOR THE SCHOOL CHILDREN. In the course of a day or two THE TIMES will make an announcement of peculiar interest to the children attending the public schools of the District of Columbia.

THE CASE OF COUNT ZICHY. Nobility of title sometimes proves itself possessed of that greater nobility of the heart.

SON RUSSELL. Springfield Republican.—A brother and a son of ex-President Harrison have now spoken, and both say he would look favorably upon a unanimous renomination, but unfavorably on any other.

MOTHER GOOSE REVISED. Jack and Jill went up the hill To fetch a pail of water; Jack he was the milkman's son.

Mathes Cleared of the Charges. Providence, R. I., Oct. 11.—James B. Mathes has been acquitted of the murder of "Monk" Saunders, at the Foreman's Park track, on June 9.

For a Catholic Summer School. Chicago, Oct. 11.—The committee of clergy-men and laymen appointed to effect arrangements for a Catholic summer school in the West met here to-day and selected Madison, Wis., as a temporary location for the schools, thereby fixing the first session to be held in 1895 at that city.

Boys and girls who attend the public schools will see something in THE TIMES in a few days which will please them.

THE SUNDAY TIMES, twelve-pages and magnificent art supplement, all for 3 cents.

THESE ARE PORTENTS.

If a cow breaks into the garden it is a sign that some one in the family will die within six months.

Other signs of death are the howling of a dog outside the house, the squeaking of a mouse behind the sick person's bed, or the flight of a bird or bee into the room.

To cut one's nails on Sunday brings the devil with one all the week. To break a looking glass brings trouble for seven years.

The bad effect of seeing the new moon through glass may be mitigated by turning over the money in one's pocket.

Crickets and spiders bring good luck. So does it to touch a hunchback's hump.

If an unmarried person sits between a man and a woman on any day between Christmas and Twelfth Night he will be married within a year.

There's luck in finding a pin or a horseshoe or in stumbling upstairs.

For a storm that hid itself for two weeks, Wednesday's article was a bright and shining example of staying quality.

BALTIMORE is sorry that, having a good thing, she pushed it along.

RENO IN POSSESSION OF ONE OR TWO STREET CARS AND ONE OR TWO OF NOVA SCOTIA COAL.

It's a case of continued Russell with the Republicans of Massachusetts.

HOKE SMITH'S best explanation of that Georgia election would be a promise that he will never again indulge in any bifurcated silver sentiments with Speaker Crisp.

THE actions of the Empress Dowager have given the Chinese Emperor very decided views on the subject of women in politics.

DAVID B. HILL started his tour at Syracuse last night. Before he is through he hopes to make a short stop at Albany, and a longer stay at Washington.

MEMPHIS Commercial-Appeal.—Gov. McKinley is in the next Republican nominee for President. Fortune, however, never knocks at a man's door more than once.

THESE are the bad times, very bad times for political wood growers and calamity howlers.

NO manufacturing industries are closing down because the McKinley law is repealed.

It means that the people want the silver of the daddies restored to full monetary power.

Springfield Republican.—A brother and a son of ex-President Harrison have now spoken, and both say he would look favorably upon a unanimous renomination, but unfavorably on any other.

Jack and Jill went up the hill To fetch a pail of water; Jack he was the milkman's son.

Mathes Cleared of the Charges. Providence, R. I., Oct. 11.—James B. Mathes has been acquitted of the murder of "Monk" Saunders, at the Foreman's Park track, on June 9.

Boys and girls who attend the public schools will see something in THE TIMES in a few days which will please them.

COMING TO THE THEATERS.

Admirers of Shakespeare may look forward to seeing their favorite tragedian's productions admitted and well acted at Albaugh's Grand Opera House next week, when Frederick Ward and Louis James make their farewell appearance together in Washington.

The Jubilee Choir Singers present their second programme at Albaugh's Grand Opera House next Sunday.

The Academy of Music will have a stupendous attraction next week in the Sandoz Trocadero Vaudeville.

A noteworthy engagement in Washington will be the appearance at the National, week of October 13, of Augustus Daly's famous organization from Daly's Theater, London and New York.

When the ill-matched couple reached this city last Sunday they proceeded at once to the residence of Shaw's sister, named Tolliver.

THE Indian Expert's Report Emancipated by Commissioner Wright.

Thomas Donaldson, the expert on the history of North American Indians, yesterday asked for an injunction against Labor Commissioner Carrol D. Wright.

HE says, in his bill filed yesterday, that, without any solicitation, he was chosen by Superintendent of the Census Robert D. Porter, to gather and collate the information for the publication of the Indian Tribes.

Wright, he asserts, so changed and emasculated the report as to make it worse than useless, and published the same report with his own name as author.

THE order of injunction in answer to the petition was made out, but was not signed.

COMMISSIONER Wright in his letter of transmittal to the Interior calls attention to Donaldson's dissatisfaction with the report as changed, but asserts that no essential variations from Donaldson's report appear in the one so published.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Miss Jessie Ackerman, an "around the world" missionary of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, arrived in Chicago to-day, after a trip of 150,000 miles, which she claims, is the longest journey ever made by a woman.

ESCAPES ARE EASY.

Several Reform School Boys Regain Their Freedom—Peculiar Methods of Punishment.

It was reported at the police court yesterday afternoon that there had been frequent escapes of late from the District reform school for boys, which is situated on the Bladensburg road.

The latest escape, it is said, occurred yesterday, when a colored lad, known as Sambo, succeeded in getting away from Officer Heary, who was guarding a number of boys which were playing on the spacious lawns.

New York, Oct. 12.—The stock market opened and closed firm, but in the interim the speculation was irregular, with the tendency in the main to lower values, and though there was quite a spurt upward in the final trading, the early losses were not recovered, except in a few instances.
