

PROGRESS OF THE PLAGUE

Including Two Suspect Cases, Nine Is Now the Total Affected.

GEORGE ANDERSON STRICKEN

Fumigation and Vaccination Now the Order of the Day—Important Action by the District Commissioners—List of Inmates of the Houses in Which Smallpox Appeared.

The smallpox record for the preceding twenty-four hours, as entered at the health office up to 12.30 o'clock this morning, shows one new case and two suspected ones, making the total to date: Deaths, 2 cases, 5, suspected, 2.

The new case is that of George Anderson, a messenger in the Interior Department, which structure appears to be the storm center of the contagion. Mr. Anderson's residence is No. 623 G street northwest, nearly opposite the City Postoffice.

Mr. Anderson was at once removed to the postoffice. The two latest cases of suspicion are located in Carroll street, a small thoroughfare extending between First and Second, B and C streets southeast. Neither of these cases are, however, believed to be genuine.

There are five patients now in the smallpox hospital, viz: Mary Thomas, Mary Brown, both colored; Judge E. Barton Blacker, William Owens, and George Anderson, white.

As a matter of prevention and safety to the citizens of Washington the three public buildings, the apartment houses, and the houses of the infected houses or came into daily contact with those who have been stricken down by the dreaded disease.

These cases in contact: Inmates of No. 623 G street northwest, where G. L. Anderson was taken with smallpox.

Mr. G. L. Anderson, Andrew G. Hutterly, Annie G. Hutterly, his wife, Three Hutterly children (Willie, Annie, and George).

A. H. Lutz, William Ketter, The two latest cases employed in the jewelry shop on the first floor of the Anderson residence. All the above have been vaccinated and are under daily observation of the health officials.

Inmates of No. 433 Fourth street northeast, where Mary Munde was taken sick: Edward Forrest, Martha Forrest, his wife, Emily Dyer, Brown Brown, Brown children (Maggie and Robert), Samuel Munde, Mary Munde, his wife, Maudie children (Murray and Henry), Samuel Duckett, a shoemaker, now under observation in Anacostia.

All of the above are cured, and have been vaccinated. Inmates of No. 302 Fourth street southeast, where Owens lived: Mrs. A. H. Baker, Mrs. A. S. Fowler, Mr. E. F. Owens.

All the inmates were vaccinated and are under observation. Inmates of No. 243 Fourteenth street northeast, where Mary Thomas lived: Mrs. Somerville, his wife, Mrs. Somerville children (Francis, Felix, Arthur, Mary, and Florence).

All have been vaccinated except Alex Somerville, who will be this morning. In the COSTON HOUSEHOLD: Inmates of the Coston residence, No. 430 Fourth street northeast, where the epidemic originated: Mr. Coston, who has had the smallpox, Mrs. Coston, their son.

The Costons have all been vaccinated and are believed to be out of danger, as the period of incubation is about over. Inmates of No. 1104 Twelfth street northwest, where Judge Lucker was taken with the disease: Judge Lucker, his wife, Mrs. Lucker, their son, Mrs. Lucker, their daughter, Mrs. Lucker, their son, Mrs. Lucker, their daughter.

The Costons have all been vaccinated and are believed to be out of danger, as the period of incubation is about over. Inmates of No. 1104 Twelfth street northwest, where Judge Lucker was taken with the disease: Judge Lucker, his wife, Mrs. Lucker, their son, Mrs. Lucker, their daughter, Mrs. Lucker, their son, Mrs. Lucker, their daughter.

DEFENSIVE TO WATCH SUSPECTS. To prevent, as far as possible, a further spread of the malady by persons from infected houses moving into other localities or leaving for other cities, some quiet but effective detective measures will be done under the special auspices of the District health department and the United States Marine Hospital service. Dr. Woodward said to a Times reporter last night that while his forces cannot detain persons in houses in which smallpox has appeared, or prevent them from leaving Washington, they can and will notify by telegraph the cities to which these parties are going, and towns along the route.

"Suspected parties are being watched," added the health officer, "and it will prove more convenient for them to stay here and have it out than to go away and be held up by the authorities elsewhere."

Health Officer Woodward also desires the announcement of persons who will be vaccinated at the health office. He has made arrangements to have that service performed at the President's Hospital and all the free dispensaries in the city, also by the physicians to the poor. Arrangements may be made to-day by poor applicants vaccinated at the Emergency Hospital, the vaccine points to be furnished by his department.

The health office received 1,500 vaccine points yesterday from the National Vaccine Company, near Chevy Chase. The large vaccine apparatus, valued at $4,000, and owned by the Marine Hospital service, for disinfecting bedding, clothing, etc., will arrive here today, and be placed in service by Dr. Woodward.

The work of disinfecting the Interior-Department building on Ninth street, between E and F streets northwest, where a branch of the Coston office is located, and in which young Owens was employed, will be continued to-day. Supplies will be used lavishly, and the disinfecting will continue until Monday, or such time as is necessary to complete the work.

PRESIDENT AGAIN IN-TOWN

His Home-coming Was of the Most Unostentatious Character.

GREATLY IMPROVED IN HEALTH

He Was Accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and the Babies—No Public Demonstration at the Station—Secretary Lamont Also Returns—A Crank Visits the President.

After an absence of seven weeks from the National Capital President Cleveland last night returned to the city in the most unostentatious manner possible.

The President is in the best of health and has a much livelier color than he had on the morning of his departure, nearly two months ago, at the conclusion of a long and harassing session of Congress, in whose deliberations Mr. Cleveland had taken the liveliest interest.

It was 10:10 o'clock last night when the colonial express, bearing the Presidential party, arrived at the Pennsylvania station. The party was composed of the President, Mrs. Cleveland, Miss Ruth, Baby Esther and a nurse, and a valet and servant, and occupied the private car of Second Vice President Thompson, of the Pennsylvania road, having joined the President at Baltimore.

Private Secretary Thurston, as usual, was the first to greet the President as he alighted from the train. The President was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND. The Presidential carriage was immediately driven to the White House, which has been in complete readiness for the President's return for some time past.

Secretary Lamont was met at the station by Mrs. Lamont and the two drove away together to their home.

ONLY A MAN AND HIS PIPE.

But They Sufficed to Start a Devastating Conflagration—Furious Wind Fanned the Flames.

STRIKING AT LARGER GAME

Police Commissioner Sheehan Before the Lexow Committee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Police Commissioner Sheehan was the star witness at today's session of the Lexow committee. He had been sent for this morning and had been informed that he must appear to answer the subpoena at the afternoon session. The news that Mr. Sheehan would appear on the stand this afternoon spread rapidly throughout the city, and long before the afternoon session was called to order a big crowd blocked the passage-way leading to the courtroom.

This morning Wardman Cooney was called to the stand and questioned about his relations with Mrs. Hermann, the witness who was arrested in Jersey City yesterday. He denied in detail that he had ever given him money, a gold watch or a diamond ring, or that she had kissed him. The wardman was certain it was some other Cooney who was to have received the gold watch.

Promptly upon the assembling of the committee at 10 o'clock, Mr. Cooney was called to the stand and then called: "Commissioner Sheehan."

Commissioner Sheehan at once took the stand, but before he could be sworn Senator Cantor made a vigorous protest against the examination of the commissioner on the ground that his public duties precluded his appearance at police headquarters. At first Mr. Coffey excused Sheehan until tomorrow morning, as the commissioner had informed him that he was necessary for him to attend a meeting of the police board this afternoon.

Senator Cantor asked that the examination of the commissioner be postponed until after election. Mr. Coffey refused to accede to the request. Then Commissioner Sheehan said that if he must appear to-morrow he might as well be examined to-day and have it over with. He then testified for an hour and a half, and was discharged by the committee at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Coffey said: "Very well; the testimony will be recorded." Mr. Coffey then questioned the commissioner as to the location of the different station houses in his district. The commissioner's answers were given in a list of station houses, as well as police headquarters.

"Does your mind get mixed up with the streets of Buffalo and the streets of New York?" Mr. Coffey asked.

"No, sir," replied the commissioner. Mr. Coffey then elicited from the witness the fact that he had come from Buffalo to this city about eight years ago upon assurance that he would be given a public position.

He decided that he had ever acted as attorney for the Gould estate or that he represented the Gould estate in any way.

Questioned about his law practice Mr. Sheehan said the bulk was in consultation, and that he drew a revenue from it of $4,000 to $5,000 a year. Sheehan said most of his time was spent at headquarters, and although his partner was now in Europe, the business did not in any way interfere with his duties as police commissioner.

Mr. Coffey then asked Mr. Sheehan if he was a member of the firm of John C. Sheehan & Co., composed of John O'Brien and himself, who were conducting a business in Long Island City, the contracts of which amounted to about $500,000.

After some sparring between Mr. Coffey and the commissioner with regard to the Long Island City contracts and his efforts to secure a commission, an adjournment was taken until to-morrow.

Commissioner Sheehan did not care about going on the stand to-morrow. He said his business at police headquarters was too pressing. Mr. Coffey would not excuse him.

ALMOST A BIG BLAZE. The Upper Part of the Old Dorsey Hotel in Flames.

In a room at the fourth floor of the unoccupied hotel at the northwest corner of Seventh and I streets northwest a homeless wanderer had until this morning found a sleeping place. About 1 o'clock flames burst out of the window of this room and were at once noticed by a number of passers-by.

Folleson Coghlin broke in the street door of the building and rushed up to the fourth floor through choking volumes of smoke, in company with a citizen. They burst open the door of the room and found a man sitting on the floor in a blaze. Coghlin was almost blinded by the smoke, and put his head out of a window for air, calling at the same time to Folleson Coghlin to strike a match.

The policeman got down stairs with difficulty and his companion escaped by way of an adjoining roof. The fire engines were soon on the scene and the flames were speedily quenched.

The building has been empty for some time, but in olden days, when the Northern Liberty Market was on Seventh street, the structure was as Dorsey's Hotel, a favorite abiding place for farmers.

The loss will be about $1,000, principally by way of the stock of goods on the ground floor. The men are the drug store of Thomas K. Shaw, H. H. Hensley & Co.'s variety store, and J. Neuman's hat and men's furnishing store.

ANOTHER CHINESE DEFEAT. Their Fort Captured by the Japanese Attacking Force.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A dispatch from Tokio dated to-day says that Field Marshal Count Yamagata has telegraphed to the war office that a detachment of 1,000 Japanese infantry captured the Yalu River on Wednesday morning and attacked the enemy.

DISGRACED THE SERVICE.

California Militia Severely Censured by a Military Court of Inquiry.

AT A PISTOL POINT.

When J. N. Armstrong, a wheelwright, of No. 607 New York avenue, suddenly awoke yesterday morning from a sound sleep, a burglar was standing at his bedside, pointing a revolver and flashing a dark lantern in his face.

After being admonished to keep quiet at the peril of his life, the fellow with the pistol kept guard while two others ransacked the house. All that they obtained was $2 and a cake of soap, overlooking a pocketbook containing $40.

When the burglars left they were followed by Mr. Armstrong, but they ran faster than he could and escaped.

DISGRACED THE SERVICE. California Militia Severely Censured by a Military Court of Inquiry.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 25.—The military court of inquiry, which was appointed by Gov. Markham to investigate the conduct of the National Guards at Sacramento during the late railroad strike, has made its report.

Major Gen. Dimond is held mainly responsible for the blunders on July 4, when the soldiers failed to dislodge the mob from the depot. Brig. Gen. Sheehan and Dickson, Col. Sullivan, Noonan, and Barry are also scored for their lack of military knowledge and general blunders.

United States Marshal Baldwin is criticized for bringing about an armistice with the mob at the depot, thus putting the troops in a false position. The report says that companies A, of Sacramento, and G, of San Francisco, members of which threw down their arms and fraternized with the strikers, disgraced the National Guard, and should not be permitted to serve in the service.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

WITCH MARY COONEY (Illustrated)—What to wear on the night when strange things are a-doing. In Sunday's Times.

UNION VETERANS' REJOINER.

They Denounce as Garbled the Statements Made by the Interstate Democratic Association.

CALMLY AWAITING DEATH

With Composure Czar Alexander Looks Forward to the End.

HE HAS COMPLETED HIS WILL. Lord Rosebery's Graceful Biology Upon the Dying Monarch—His Watchword, Religion, and Character a Worship of Truth and Peace—The Czar's Marriage.

HEALTHY, Oct. 25.—The Cologian Gazette has the following dispatch from St. Petersburg: "The Czar's strength is steadily declining, but he awaits death with perfect composure. In order to counteract the depression of those about him he has ordered that the band at the palace play during lunch-time. The Czarina, though suffering severely, never quits her husband's side. She sits for hours beside the armchair occupied by the Emperor and watches by his bedside when he is unable to sleep. The Czar, it is stated, has made all his arrangements with a view to death. He has completed his will and has verbally advised the Czar to consult M. Bunge on political matters and his grand vizier Grand Duke Michael on family matters."

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—The Official Messenger, commenting on the profound sympathy expressed by the Emperor, observes that France, more deeply than any other state, feels how differently would have been the relations of the European powers had the Czar been a monarch.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—A bulletin issued from Livadia at 9 o'clock this evening says: "Neither somnolence nor apathetic symptoms are observed in the Emperor. His appetite is satisfactory. The edema did not increase as usual."

The bulletin is signed by the five doctors in attendance on the Emperor.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—Rooms are being hastily prepared at the Winter Palace for the occupation of the Emperor. The work proceeded night and day. A manifesto has already been printed at the office of the Official Gazette for issue on the occasion of the Czar's marriage to Princess Alix. Two hundred thousand copies of this manifesto will be distributed on the wedding day.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Lord Rosebery made an address to-night to the banquet of the Czar's Society of St. James's, in which he paid a high tribute to the Czar. Among those present were the Duke of Norfolk, the Archbishop of York and a large number of new well-known in the political world. The Prime Minister said that the present moment of shadow clouded the comings of foreign policy, but that the interest of the British people in Europe that did not turn to the sick bed of the Czar.

Great Britain, he added, had, in times past, had to assist in the differences with Russia, but he felt certain that there was nobody who was aware of what had happened in Europe during the past twenty years who did not feel that the interest of the British people in Europe that did not turn to the sick bed of the Czar.

"We had in him a monarch whose watchword, whose religion, and whose character was a worship of truth and peace."

He would not say that the Czar would rank among the Cæsars and Napoleons of Europe, but that the steady character of his reign was such as to ensure that his peace had been preserved. His death would mean the removal of one of the greatest, perhaps the greatest, guarantee of peace in the world.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says it is reported that the Czar's death is expected to be followed by a performance upon the Czar.

CUM GRANO SALIS. AFTER THE LABOR VOTE. Senator Hill Declares the System of Convict Leases Should Be Abolished.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A vast crowd assembled at Cooper Union to-night to hear Senator David R. Hill speak. The gathering assembled under the auspices of the combined labor organizations of the city. Hill's gubernatorial administration was made the subject of the evening's address, and resolutions were adopted endorsing his political career in the State and pleading for his support of the gathering at the coming election. Senator Hill said, in part:

"The convict system of labor leases should be abolished, because it is injurious to the discipline of the prison, and disastrous to the State, and injuriously affects the mechanics. It is upon the latter ground that I especially object to the passage of a bill to abolish the system. Let us cast aside this system and relieve the tax-burdened people and do justice to the mechanics of our State."

"Under various pretexts the contractors evade the laws. In previous years efforts were made to remedy this evil, but we ought to go as far as we can. Efforts were made to end these laws, but the industry of contractors, but I think I tried to see that these laws were impartially observed while I was Governor."

He will live to see a law enacted which shall relieve honest labor. The measure known as the '5 per cent. law' is a triumph for the workingman of this State. I am not here to say that the industry of contractors should be amended. I am not here to advocate what further steps can be taken whereby additional legislation in this direction can be obtained by the Legislature. My only resolution that has just been adopted tells what this is."

TRIAL OF TILLMAN'S SPIES. Case Against Constable McLeod for Murder Now Under Consideration.

DARLINGTON, S. C., Oct. 25.—The trial of Tillman's liquor spies for murder was commenced to-day. The case against McLeod has occupied the attention of the court all day and most of the witnesses for the State were examined. The testimony so far shows that the dastardly deed was murder foul and cold-blooded, the facts of the case being in accordance with the previous verdict of the coroner's jury and the military court of inquiry.

The case will be continued in the morning, and McLeod will be put on the stand. The case that Tillman tried so hard to make against C. S. McCullough has been fully cleared up by the grand jury and the body dismissed by finding no bill.

This is the last of the prosecutions brought at the instance of Tillman against the citizens of this town upon trumped-up charges which were never sustained.

A Boy for a Policy Runner. Detective Hillen yesterday arrested Wade Norbeck, a fifteen-year-old boy, at the Centre Market, while collecting policy bets. A number of policy slips and 85 cents were found on his person. He said that he was working under the orders of his mother, and that the writing was done in South Washington. Detective Hillen spent the greater part of the day hunting the employees of the land and other arrests will soon follow.

FINLAND'S POLITICAL.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

IN THE FIELD OF POLITICS.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

Senator Teller Denies the Rumor that He is a Populist at Heart and Likely at Any Time to Follow the Course of Senator Jones, and declares that he is a Republican, always has been one, and expects to remain one as long as he lives.

TIN PLATE SHIPMENT.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 25.—A train of fifteen cars left Central last night over the Pennsylvania Railroad for Milwaukee, Wis., with tin plate.

NEW PATTERS.

Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and carpets. H. Long & Co., 521 Thirtieth street northwest. Lowest prices on standard goods.

NEW PATTERS. Wall papers and