Commencing with Selecting Prolicsome Lass to Win the Opening Bace, the Talent Kept | ing. Up Spotting the Winners Throughout the Afternoon, Beating the Entire Card.

Despite the weather being anything but pleasant for our-of-door sport yesterday, there was a good crowd made the journey to e Alexander Island track, and most of them, especially the "form players," were well rewarded, five favorites winning. While the public found shelter from the rain during the progress of the afternoon's sport, most of the visitors had to brave the inclement weather, after the close of the raning by walting for a train for nearly half an hour, and there was much complaint at the long

The bookmakers, of whom thirtsen were on, lost heavily, every winner and also some of the placed horses being well ha ked. Considering the weather and the has red. Considering the weather and the uncertainty of rading over a track deep in mud, the lecting was very brisk. Frollesome Lase, who simply galloped home in from of Marias Chun and seven others in the opening event, had been backed down from 510 2 to 6 to 5, and Fredericks, the winner of the second event, was so well supported that his colds foll from 510 1 to 5 to 2.

second event, was so wen supported that his codds fell from a to 1 to 5 to 2.

Master Duffy for come in his life showed some jockey-ship by placing Fredericks in a comformable position on ing the earlier p at of the race, and after Trixay Gardner had so a merry pure for a cut half a mile, Master Duffy gave Fredericks his bead and the intermediate to the front and was easily. I.v. from to the front and won easily. Ly-ceum finished a good second, while String-fellow, after having been treated to some ex-tra portions of mud and water by running among the rear division, at the head of the stratch came with a fine burst of speed and dmost munaged to beat Trixey Gardner for
