MORE DEMAGOGY.

What mockery. To-morrow has been set apart as labor day by the Committee on Rules, and it is announced that come but the Phillips bill to examine into the causes of labor troubles will be considered.

WAIT 'TIL NEXT CONGRESS.

The proposition to divide the appropriation bills among the different committees of Congress, in order to facilitate the work, is unusual and unnecessary.

IT'S ABOUT TIME CROKER WAS COMING HOME.

It's about time Croker was coming home. Even his race horses are being forgotten.

THE HOUSE YESTERDAY.

The House yesterday passed Senate bills appointing Gardner G. Hubbard to fill the vacancy in the board of regents of the Smithsonian Institution, and granting permission for the erection of a statue of Prof. Samuel D. Gross and appropriating $1,500 for a pedestal for the same.

Congress should not adjourn without making provision for enlarging the Government Printing Office.

It is rather unpleasant to contemplate such an alternative, yet there is nothing in it as appalling as the possibility that at any moment a disaster may happen which would plunge hundreds of families throughout the land into mourning.

LET THE PUBLIC KNOW.

It is hardly worth while to comment on the Howgate acquittal. Nor would it be proper to say that the government did not want to convict him.

CHEAPER GAS FOR WASHINGTON.

Unless appearances are deceptive the proposition to establish a new gas company was the work of some one connected with the present monopoly.

THE BLAINE PROPERTY.

The Senate appropriated yesterday $150,000 to purchase the Blaine property in order to ease the mind of Senator Cameron.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Senate is now working day and night on the appropriation bills in order to complete them before the session closes.

APPOINTMENT TO A COMMISSION TO MAP THE GRONDS.

Senator Butler yesterday gave notice of an amendment to the general deficiency appropriation bill making an appropriation for the payment of the French spoliation claims.

CLOCK ROOM AND GALLERY.

A member of the North Carolina delegation relates a good story tending to illustrate the power of imagination.

Mr. Walter Evans, of Louisville, Ky., who succeeds Arthur Caruth in the next Congress, was on the floor of the House Saturday.

BIMETALLISTS FORM A PARTY.

Silver Coinage the Only Plan to Constitute Their Platform. It is understood that the advocates of the free coinage of silver from different parts of the country, who have been in session in Washington for the past several days under the auspices of the Bimetallic League, have progressed so far with their labors as to feel fairly confident that they will be able to organize a new party which will command the support of the silver men throughout the country.

SOCIETY JUST BEFORE

Washington Assembly the Most Brilliant Event in Its History.

LIKE A TROPICAL SCENE

Hundreds of the City's Elite Crowded the Arlington—Miss Edes' Breakfast in Honor of Madame Bakmetteff—Miss Zeballos Enjoys a Tea Given Her by Mr. and Mrs. Julian Atwell—Fletcher-Stetson Wedding

Miss Edes gave a handsome breakfast yesterday in honor of Madam Bakmetteff, who is spending several months in Washington on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Edward Beale. The decorations were of pink with a centerpiece of ferns.

The guests were Madam Bakmetteff, Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. May, Miss Boardman, Miss Patten, Mrs. Henry Smith, Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. Brice, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Story, Madam Zeballos, Mrs. Raymond, Marquise Lanza, Mrs. Payson, and Mrs. Gordon McKay.

The Washington assembly given last night at the Arlington has never before surpassed and hardly ever equalled in point of brilliancy by its elegant predecessors.

The Argentine Minister and Mrs. Zeballos will give a dinner on Thursday evening in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Sherman. On Saturday evening they will give another dinner party.

Among the relatives from Boston who have come to Washington to attend the marriage of Miss Susan Hunt Stetson to Lieut. Frank F. Fletcher, U. S. N., will take place at the Holy Trinity Church, are Mrs. William H. Clafflin, Mrs. Edward Potter, Miss Rhoda Rodgers, and Miss Grace Candler Ayer.

The Misses Morgan and Mrs. Howard F. Weston held a very pleasant reception at their home, 414 Third Street, on the west, last Friday afternoon from 3 to 6 p. m. The decorations were in scarf with a profusion of clematis vines.

In addition to the supply of their own extensive greenhouses Small & Sons, Washington and New York, are the principal growers in this country. The magnitude of their trade has been to most reasonable rates.

MRS. MUDD'S COMPLAINT.

She Tells Why She Wants a Divorce from Her Husband.

William E. Mudd, a railroad man, has been behaving very badly, according to the story of his wife, Margaret. She has, therefore, brought suit for divorce.

NO USE OF MAKING A FESS.

I sat in the sheriff's office talking with him about a man in his charge who was to be hanged three days later when a woman was announced, and in walked a female who had paired thin. Her face was wrinkled, her hair thin and white, and her voice seemed to come out of a reed as she asked: "How you relate to this yere prison named Thomas Jackson?"

EISEMAN BROS., Cor. 7th and E Sts. N. W.

THEY ARE WELL SPOKEN OF.] John W. Showalter and Olin Wellborn Nominated for Judicial Positions.

The President yesterday sent to the Senate the nominations of John W. Showalter, of Illinois, to be United States circuit judge for the Seventh Judicial district (set approved February 8, 1895); Olin Wellborn, of California, to be United States district judge for the Southern district of California.

John W. Showalter is one of the best known and ablest lawyers in Chicago. He was born in Mason County, Ky., in 1844. His paternal ancestor, Ulrich Showalter, came from Germany about the middle of last century and settled in Buckingham county, Va. He was graduated from Yale in 1867. Mr. Showalter is a bachelor. He was the Democratic nominee for judge of the superior court in 1882, but was defeated.

BUILDING AND LABOR BILLS.

Committee on Rules Has Assigned a Day to Each. The Democratic members of the House Committee on Rules yesterday concluded to give to-day to the Committee on Public Buildings and to-morrow to the Committee on Labor. The Pacific Railroad bill will probably not get a hearing because of the improbability that the Senate could act on it if it was passed by the House.
