

Well Be Honest

We never sold so cheap before, and we could not now if the Jaffray Receiver Sale did not give us the opportunity. Here are goods of the staple kind, worth dollar for dollar at any time, yet because they became ours below the price, so shall they be YOURS.

500 PIECES

Manchester Satin, a new Wrapper material. Worth 10c, for . . . 61-4c.

5 CASES

1 yard wide Cambric, equal in quality to Lonsdale. 8c yd.

3 CASES

Plymouth Percales, 31 inches wide, fast colors; suitable for Shirtings. Worth 121-2c, yard, for . . . 9c.

100 Ready-made, long Double-Ed Sheets. Worth 65c for . . . 49c.

Lansburgh & Bro. 420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

Get Away

From the old-fashioned idea that Furniture and Carpets cost more on credit than they do for cash—Be modern—a reasonable—compare our prices with other people's prices—we don't know of anything fricker than that—DO YOU?

Credit

—With its easy weekly or monthly payments—is OUR way of showing gratitude for your patronage—it is more substantial than simply saying "Thank you." There's only one price here—cash or credit—but there are six big double floors full of Mattings, Refrigerators, Baby Carriages, Furniture, &c. Help yourself for a promise to pay.

GROGAN'S MAMMOTH CREDIT HOUSE

819, 821, 823 7th St. N.W. Between H and I Streets.

ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS

The Rev. Mr. Williams, the new pastor of the M. E. Church, appointed by the recent conference in Washington, took charge of his church last evening. He arrived in town this morning and in the afternoon the members of his church attended his reception and made him welcome to Alexandria. Mr. Williams has been stationed at Falls Church, Va., for the past two years and is not unknown to the Alexandria Methodists. He will preach his first sermon on Sunday next.

BEEF IS NOW A LUXURY

Unusually High Prices Asked for Cuts of Every Kind.

GREAT SCARCITY OF CATTLE

As Seen as the Grass-Fed Animals from Texas and Western Ranches Come to Market the Situation Will Improve—Secretary Morton Institutes an Inquiry to Ascertain if There is a Combine at Work. Quite a protest was raised the past week, when Washington housewives were told they would have to pay 25 cents a pound for choice cuts of beefsteak, and many were compelled to purchase cheaper meats.

STABBED IN THE BACK

Series Fight Between Two Colored Barbers on the Metropolitan Railway. An animated fight in which a knife was used and blood flowed occurred last evening between William B. Jones and Francis Fisher, colored, at the corner of Fourth and L streets southwest.

WORK OF LADIES' AID SOCIETY

Over Five Hundred Families Assisted With Food, Fuel, and Clothing. The work done by the Ladies' Aid Society of Northeast Washington in relieving the sufferings of the poor in that section during the past winter has been of a very generous character, 521 families having been aided with food, fuel, and clothing.

MUST SUPPORT THE CHILDREN

Dr. Fairfax Irwin, of the Marine Hospital Service, Divorced from His Wife. Dr. Fairfax Irwin, a surgeon in the Marine Hospital Service, was yesterday granted a divorce from Alice L. Irwin on grounds of desertion. The suit was filed December 1, 1934, and the testimony taken last month.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT THE PLYTHIAN FAIR

Saturday afternoon next is set apart at the Plythian fair for the children of the District. They will be admitted free to enjoy what is to be seen. Music will be furnished to entertain the occasion. The fair closes Saturday night. The net proceeds are not quite as large as desired, but will be far in excess of the expenditures.

RAINBOW TEA IS THE THING

Entertainment for the Organ Fund of Calvary Baptist Church. The "rainbow tea" fair for the benefit of the organ fund of Calvary Baptist Church, which opened on Wednesday evening, closed yesterday afternoon. The entertainment yesterday was only a response to the enthusiasm of those who attended on the opening night.

MISS CLARKE IS MISSING

Detectives Have Been Set to Work by Her Anxious Father. She Had Been Receiving the Attention of a Young Man Whom Her Parents Considered Unfavorable. Miss Gertrude Clarke left her home in this city about ten days ago under circumstances which have been full of embarrassment and anxiety to her family.

RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUED

Mrs. Susan A. Sperry Wants a Receiver for the Couple and Livery Company. A receiver for the Washington Coupe & Livery Company was asked by a suit filed yesterday. The complainant is Susan A. Sperry.

WEST END NEWS AND GOSSIP

The scholars of the Fillmore School are making preparations for their entertainment to take place at the Lyric Theatre, 14th and M streets, on Saturday evening. The program shows many novel and pleasing features, including a "sinfonia arcaica," Gypsy cantata, a duet and vocal solo, and a musical selection and fancy dances.

HYPNOTISM NOT RECOGNIZED

Chief Justice Horton's Explanation of the Murder Case Decision. Topoka, Kan., April 11.—In an interview to-day Chief Justice Horton, of the Kansas supreme court, explains away the general acceptance that the court had recognized hypnotism as a defensive plea in a murder case.

TWO ROADS TO BE BUILT

They Will Intersect at a Central Point and Lead to the Zoo. The government has made an appropriation of $5,000 to build a road from Woody Lane Bridge to the central portion of the Zoological Park.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS TO VOTE UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 11.—Judge Thompson, of the district court, handed down an opinion this afternoon in a contested school election case, holding that the Iowa law granting women the right to vote in school and municipal elections on tax levies is unconstitutional, on the ground that only male citizens may vote.

FARMER AND DROVER ABSCENDS

Penton, Mich., April 11.—Walter M. Wadley, a prominent farmer and drover, has absconded with about $5,000 which was loaned him by the bank at Byron. He recently made a profitable trip to Buffalo, with stock, returning with $6,000 in New York drafts. His family has no knowledge of his whereabouts and his property is heavily incumbered.

BOOKBINDER RICKMAN HELD

William L. Rickman, the bookbinder, who was arrested last night by Policemen Williams and Boyle of the First precinct, on suspicion of insanity, was examined by the board of police surgeons yesterday. They were unable to determine his affliction, however, and ordered him held until today for a further examination.

FIGHTING AGAINST ALIMONY

Architect Tolman Resorts to the Court of Appeals. George R. Tolman, the architect, who has for two years been contesting an order by Judge Hugner to pay his wife alimony, carried his fight into the court of appeals yesterday, making his second appearance there in this matter.

ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT

Two Aspirants for the Office of Register of Wills Very Busy. There is some reason to believe that definite action will soon be taken by the President as to an appointment to the office of Register of Wills.

IT'S FUN FOR THE BOYS

They Cannot Resist Temptation to Ring Alarm in the New York House. A small boy, whom the police do not know, called five times on a chemical engine, and two trucks at 9 o'clock last night by pulling box No. 131 at the corner of Ninth and F streets northwest.

POLICE COURT WILL TRY GRASSHOPPER

Samuel Gasseheimer, the hotel keeper who was tried in the police court some time ago, charged with selling liquor to minors, and who carried the case to the Supreme Court of the District, will be tried in the police court again, probably Saturday.

RECKLESS ROBERT SENTENCED

Henry Roberts, the boy who shot little Lillian Spenser some time ago, was tried in Judge Miller's court yesterday for the theft of the weapon which he used so recklessly. The revolver, a .44-caliber Smith and Wesson of the most improved pattern, was the property of Joseph H. Boeger, of No. 1424 New York avenue, and was stolen by Roberts while the latter was employed as a waiter in the restaurant.

REPAIR BELT LINE

Beag's report relative to the condition of the paving on the tracks of that road with the information that the tracks are not in thorough repair by May 1, the work will be done by the District, in accordance with existing law.

DEFECTIVE CONSTRUCTION REMEDIED

There was a serious defect discovered several weeks ago in the construction of the new building now being erected as a church edifice by St. Andrew's parish of the Protestant Episcopal denomination, and the District building inspector was notified.

ASSISTANT INSPECTOR KING HAS MADE ANOTHER EXAMINATION OF THE BUILDING

Assistant Inspector King has made another examination of the building and reported that there are now no evidences of the defect. He says, however, that he finds the cement bedding between the top of the piers and the bottom of the capstone, on which the iron columns rest, is similar to the one that was broken, which is two inches thick. Considering that one that was similarly constructed did give way, there is at least a doubt of the safety of the others, and he therefore recommends, in consideration of the weight to be supported, that the use of columns the thickness is to be dedicated, that the piers be reconstructed.

FIFTH CORPS SOCIETY'S MEETING

The annual meeting of the Fifth Corps Society, Army of the Potomac, was held Wednesday evening in the red parlor of the Ebbitt House.

LADIES INDICTED FOR GAMBLING

Fort Smith, Ark., April 11.—The State grand jury now in session is making a hot fight on gambling. It has just indicted against that they have returned indictments against several prominent society ladies for playing progressive roulette for prizes. Many sensations are expected before the grand jury adjourns.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to the following: Wm. A. Moore and Carrie Smith, both of Appomattox Court House, Va.; George W. Brown, of Manassas, and Josephine A. Krouser.

DOONES OF THE DISTRICT

Major Powell's Response to Imputation of Favoritism. BRANDS THE CHARGE AS FALSE. The Engineer Commissioner Believes Fair-minded People Will Indorse His Course. Change in Regulations Relative to Building Projections—Bell Line Railway Needs Repair—Opinion About Goods Display.

WHY CAN WE

afford to sell goods for less money than competitors ask? WHY ARE WE busy all the time when others complain that times are dull? WHY DO YOU find it more profitable to trade here than anywhere else?

BECAUSE

we are content to sell large quantities of goods at a small profit. BECAUSE we tell the truth in our advertisements, and if we say we offer a bargain people know it is a bargain.

BECAUSE

we guarantee satisfaction or cheerfully refund the purchase price. IT PAYS To trade with THE EMRICH BEEF CO.

MAIN MARKET 1306-1312 2nd St. (Telephone 317). BRANCH MARKETS: 1715 14th st. n.w. 2nd and K st. n.w. 300 14th st. n.w. 2nd and J st. n.w. 307 M st. n.w. 2nd and I st. n.w. 21st and P st. n.w. 17th and N. Y. ave. n.w.

PILLSBURY'S BEST IS FLOUR

"The universal verdict." All civilized nations use it and pronounce it Highest Grade of Flour Made. UNDERTAKERS: NICHOLS & CO., 1100 14th St. N.W. Phone 794-5. Capital $100,000. Prompt attention, reasonable terms. W. H. M. DREYFUS, UNDERTAKER, 1527 14th St. N.W. Special attention to embalming. Open day and night. Phone 795. J. WILLIAM LEE, UNDERTAKER, 102 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W. First class service. Phone 795. Irving. J. J. DIED.

GASKINS

On April 10, 1895, at 10:30 a. m., William A. Gaskins, beloved husband of Catherine E. Gaskins and son of the late James and Amelia Gaskins, aged sixty-five years. Funeral from his late residence, 360 Third street northwest, to-morrow, April 12, at 2 o'clock. Friends and relatives respectfully invited to attend.

GIBBONS

On April 10, 1895, at 8 p. m., Myles Francis, beloved husband of Edward P. and Mary E. Gibbons, aged ten years, six months and six days. Funeral from his parents' residence, 2529 M Street, to-morrow, April 12, at 1:30 p. m. Friends and relatives invited to attend.

MIDDLETON

Departed this life Tuesday, April 9, 1895, at 8:30 p. m., Ann Middleton, aged eighty-eight years. Funeral from her late residence, 567 Third street southwest, to-morrow, April 12, at 1 p. m. Relatives and friends kindly invited.

PATRICK

On April 10, 1895, at 8:45 p. m., at the residence of her parents, 1328 Tenth street northwest, Mrs. Florence M. Patrick, daughter of Charles C. and Alena Anderson, in the twenty-sixth year of her age. Funeral from the above residence at 10 o'clock a. m., Saturday, April 13. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend.

SHIELDS

Departed this life April 9, 1895, at 8:45 p. m., Bridget, widow of the late Charles Shields, in the seventh year of her age. Funeral from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Hammer, 517 Eleventh street southwest, to-morrow, April 12, at 9:30 a. m. Friends and relatives invited to attend.

SMITH

The funeral services over the remains of George M. C. Smith, who died at Canon City, Col., April 6, 1895, will take place at the residence of the mother, Mrs. A. E. Smith, 713 Ninth street northwest, at 2 o'clock Friday, April 12.

THOM

On Thursday, April 11, 1895, at 12:55 a. m., at her residence, 105 P street northwest, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Thom, and daughter of Elizabeth and the late P. B. Sweeney.

VIEHMANN

On April 10, 1895, at 5 o'clock p. m., George W. Viehmann, a native of Grossenfelden, Germany, in the sixty-sixth year of his age.

WADE

The remains of the late J. Milton Wade will be taken from the vault and interred in Glenwood Cemetery on Friday, April 12, 1895, at 2 p. m.

WHITE

On Tuesday, April 9, 1895, in New York city, Mary Olive, youngest daughter of James H. and Elizabeth White, formerly of this city, aged seven years and five months.

YINGLING

At her residence, 517 Second street northwest, after a painful illness, Mrs. Annie M. Yingling, beloved wife of S. B. Yingling, departed this life on Thursday, April 11, 1895.