

Among the Uphoisteries

There is a lot that is interesting, for our time, in the new and lively Uphoistering Department. We don't talk half enough of it, or say half enough of its virtues. It is well known for its good values, new creations, and the buyers are always watching it.

MAHONEY PITCHED GREAT BALL

Both Teams Played Loosely at Times, but the Result Was Not Much Affected—Three Home Runs by the Locals—Also Three Three-baggers—Three Pitchers Tried by Princeton and All Rare Badly.

The Georgetown University baseball team profited by its experience of Tuesday, for yesterday it played fast, snappy ball and won the second game with Princeton with comparative ease, with the score 17 to 11. While errors and loose playing bobbed up occasionally, neither were very costly, and the players made up for them by putting in generally good team work, better base running and the fiercest kind of batting.

Princeton was also guilty at times of loose and careless playing. Big Mike Mahoney pitched the full game, and repeated his success in the game with Yale. He was especially effective with men on bases, and performed the remarkable feat of getting out three innings and a half without a run on base. He fielded his position well and made his hitting a feature. He was admirably supported by Sullivan, whose playing was perfect, and who, in addition, led his team in batting.

Princeton's batting was not so successful. The night's Bradley, who was almost invincible in the Princeton-Yale game last year, succumbed to the bombardment of the Blue and Gray in the sixth inning, and then came Wilson who took the dose, and then the slender Easton was put up for a dose of the eighth, and he did not last.

Reardon played in right field and batted everything well. In the eighth he made a pretty two-bagger, bringing in Murphy, a three third, and on Sullivan's fourth strike, Reardon pitched a short fly which was caught between bases, the whole team going for him, but by skillful dodging and passing, evaded the lurch and landed safely on the rubber. It was too easy a chance for Princeton to miss.

Carmony at first and E. Mahoney and Murphy fielded their positions well and the crowd cheered at the way they were thrown from the infield. Harley had little to do but hit it well. McGrath played a perfect game at short and McCarthy took care of the pitcher, and as the total of Little Williams, Princeton's crack catcher, again played like a veteran and steered his players, two of them being as wild as colts, the game was a success.

Brookhart short in an out-and-out excellent ball player and will help his team very many a game at bat, and on the field.

GEORGETOWN THE WINNER

Princeton Could Not Resist Their Snappy Opponents.

LIFE.

No theme has more universally attracted the thought and being the subject of discussion than that of "Life." The school boy, after he has written a dissertation on the "Cow," thinks himself prepared to enlighten the world on the value of life.

It is to this unfortunate class that Dr. R. A. Walker has devoted his life. At this well-known sanitarium at 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, near Willard's Hotel, he may be consulted daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., and from 8 p. m. to 10 p. m. on Saturday evenings, and Sundays from 10 to 12. His work covers all chronic, special and nervous diseases, and is especially adapted to the treatment of those who have tried to get well and have failed.

Although his practice is large and extensive and steadily increasing, and his time is constantly being taken up by the many who adhere to his system of self-treatment, he never makes a charge of any kind for consultation, examination or advice. This places the means of recovery within the reach of all. In addition to the large number of callers he sees daily, he yet finds time to attend to the many who are constantly receiving from out-of-town sources who seek his aid or advice.

His specialty of nervous, brain, spinal, and general diseases, which he has treated for the past twenty-four years of his life, he has made a record unequalled, as is attested by the hundreds of autograph testimonials he has received from all over the world. Young or middle-aged men suffering from the effects of their own follies, vices, or excesses, or men who have been injured by a fall, or who are suffering from indigestion, or who feel their youthful vigor and power declining should consult Dr. Walker. He will give you a full and complete course of treatment, and if you are suffering from any of the above mentioned conditions, he will give you a full and complete course of treatment, and if you are suffering from any of the above mentioned conditions, he will give you a full and complete course of treatment.

Charges for treatment very low. All interviews and correspondence strictly confidential. No cases made public without consent of patients.

THEY HAVE EARNEST.
Lady Patronesses of the Institution Gave the Grumnasium of the Y. M. C. A. was converted last evening into a gala decorated banquet hall, where a splendid feast was served to about 150 students in the educational department. One hundred and nineteen of these were to receive certificates of proficiency in various studies, these being awarded near the close of the banquet. The hall was draped in the national colors in festoon.

Mr. Bailey recited "The Royal Archer" very pleasingly. The students were greeted for the entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. of whom they were present.

The attraction at St. Asaph yesterday was the Manassas stakes of $1,000 for maiden three-year-olds and a match race between Logan and Equity.

Equity and Logan were locked at the finish. The match race was the outcome of a claim that E. J. Downham had made to the judges that Reiff had pulled Equity in her race on Monday, when she was beaten by both Logan and Little Mat.
