

SCHEIDT'S OPENING.

The President's Improvement Decreases Chances of Any Delay.

The Final Arrangements Being Completed—Sampson's Son-in-Law Said to Have Edited Scheidt's Proofs—Witnesses Examined by Attorneys.

Unless the President's condition should improve precariously, it is expected that the opening of the Scheidt case will be held at the Washington Navy Yard at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, according to the terms of the agreement...

In accordance with the instructions of the court, the court will meet at 10 o'clock on Thursday and organize. How much progress will be made during the day will depend largely upon what is done by Rear Admiral Howison...

Whether or not Admiral Sampson will attend the court is a matter still as unsettled as it has been since the court was ordered. The coming and going, and until his name is called it will not be known whether he will go upon the stand.

When asked about this important development in the case last night, Judge Wilson, one of the counsel for Admiral Scheidt, said that he had not yet learned of the fact. He was supposed to regard the statement, coming as it did from an authoritative quarter, as highly important.

POSTMEN IN THIRD PLACE. They Go Up in Department League by Beating Trentonites.

The nine Trenton men representing the baseball element in the department were feeling chokey yesterday, and had raked together quite a formidable team to defeat the Postoffice men, but after five innings of nip and tuck playing they got into their stride, and with another day's jotted down in their column. The postmen, who have been playing exceptionally good ball, went out to administer a lesson to their opponents, and after the third inning they had what is known in baseball parlance as a club.

The game was a pitchers' battle all through, and had Davis' Treasury's sharp right receiver, without getting the mailmen would not have scored all their five runs. King, who occupied the center of the diamond for the men from the Avenue, striking in a splendid way, pitched a fine game, and had the money changers completely at his mercy, allowing but three of them to get on base.

TOO GOOD TO KEEP UP. New Yorks Take One Game, When Their Luck Changes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—One run and two hits was all the hard-hitting St. Louis team could gather off Mattewson, who pitched the first game for the New Yorks this season. Mattewson, who was opposed, proved an easy mark for the left-handed, in the second game, however, the Cardinals evened things up. The score:

IRISHMEN IN THE LEAD.

Special Matches Begun on the Sea Girt Ranges.

SEA GIRT, Sept. 9.—The matches today on the sea girt ranges were special events, arranged principally for the benefit of the Irish and Canadian riflemen, who were prevented from entering the ranges by the weather yesterday.

Today's principal event was an all-comers match with $50 being up in prize by the National Rifle Association. The match is to be shot in two stages at 500 and 1,000 yards, the first of which was finished late this afternoon. Each contestant is allowed ten shots at each range, military rifles to have a handicap of eight points.

This match attracted thirty-three contestants. Lieut. O. M. Allison shot so nearly on the 500 and 1,000 yard targets that he decided to retire, finding that there was no possibility of getting within the prize money. Frank Hyde, the veteran crack-shot, who is more than seventy years old, and is better than many of the younger ones, did excellent work. His shooting at all of the three ranges brought him close to the lead at the finish of the day's program.

The scores at the end of the first stage were as follows: Lieut. O. M. Allison, 125; Frank Hyde, New York, 157; Martin, 120; Ireland, 120; Capt. W. B. Skedden, Canada, 131; Thomas Caldwell, 128; Robert Duncan, Ireland, 120; John McKinnon, 120; Dr. S. I. Scott, Washington, 122; W. H. Day, 120; Lieut. W. W. Williams, 120; Lieut. W. W. Williams, 120; Lieut. W. W. Williams, 120.

THE OTHER MATCH TODAY was for the honor of the National Rifle Association, by the French Shooting Society to the National Rifle Association. There are now two teams in the contest. The first was decided today, when the following scores were made: Lieut. O. M. Allison, 125; Frank Hyde, New York, 157; Martin, 120; Ireland, 120; Capt. W. B. TOOK LAUDANUM IN A DIPPER.

A Young Woman Falls Unconscious in Washington Circle.

A young woman, neatly attired and apparently refined, fell unconscious on the grass in Washington Circle last night, after attempting to end her life by taking laudanum. She was removed by the police to the Emergency Hospital, and will probably recover. She gave the name of Miss Willis, and her home as Falls Church, Va.

The young woman, who had been seen in the city, entered the Circle from the west shortly before 10 o'clock and walked to the fountain. She was seen by a policeman, who called her attention to the fact that she was in a deep stupor. Several persons saw her, including Bernard Nesbit, Augustus Willoughby, and William Flinn, all of whom were passing through the Circle at the time. At one of the water fountains, near the east side of the Circle, the young woman stopped, appeared to hesitate, and then climbed up the dipper attached to a chain to the fountain. She took a drink of water from the dipper, and according to those who saw her, became confused, staggered, and finally fell to the ground.

An unknown negro had just entered the Circle from the east as the woman fell, and he ran to her assistance. Nesbit and others followed, and the woman was carried to the Emergency Hospital. She was found to be unconscious, and the police were notified. A call in the patrol wagon, and the young woman was removed to the Emergency Hospital.

Physicians on duty found their patient had taken a quantity of laudanum. From laudanum poisoning. Remedies were applied, and the treatment customary in such cases followed. The woman was revived, and the patient was sent to her home. The police were notified, and the woman was removed to the Emergency Hospital.
