SUFFRAGE REPORTS TODAY

Two and Possibly Three to Be Presented at Richmond.

A Majority and a Minority Report to Be Submitted to Constitutional Convention—Judge Harrison May Have a Document of His Own.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 25.—Eighty members responded to their names today at noon, when Secretary Button, of the Constitutional Convention, called the roll. Prayers were offered by Rabbi E. N. Calisch, of Beth Anshe Synagogue.

Delegates Hancock, of Chesterfield, was the first speaker. He was unfavorably opposed to quadrennial sessions of the General Assembly of Virginia. It was an innovation that would prove unfair to the people of Virginia, whose wishes had not been consulted.

Mr. Stubbins, of Halifax, was recognized at this point. He was a business man, unaccustomed to public speaking, but as a business man he would say that the interests of the business men would be satisfied with quadrennial sessions, believing that economy dictated that the number of sessions should be reduced.

Mr. Hatton, of Portsmouth, added to the proceedings by criticizing the speech of Mr. Newton, made yesterday, in which the latter said the business interests of the State would best be subserved by quadrennial sessions of the General Assembly. He had little patience with the business men or any other class who would hold aloof from politics and from the restraints which the actions of the Legislature. They should participate in the affairs of state.

The plan which has been evolved by the majority was offered in committee and received twelve votes out of the nineteen cast. Those voting for the majority were: Messrs. Hatton, Barron, Wise, R. L. Gordon, Ingram, C. B. Jones, Kendall, Lindsay, Flood, Green, Hammett, and Watson.

The plan adopted by the majority is not that originally offered by Mr. Thom, of Norfolk, which provided for the election of members of the General Assembly for two years, but it is a compromise between the majority and the minority. The requirements for voters are as follows: All soldiers of the United States, Confederate States, or any State in the Union.

BEARS THE SIGNATURE OF CHARLES H. WITHERS

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

At the marriage of Miss Helen Birney, daughter of Mr. A. A. Birney, to Mr. Charles R. Gantz, of Baltimore, on November 6, the ceremony will be performed by Bishop Satterlee. The maid of honor will be Miss Margaret Birney and Miss Mabel Corson, of Washington; Miss Lucy Gantz and Miss Florence Ingram, of Baltimore. The best man will be Mr. Edward C. Pearson, of Pawtucket, R. I., and the ushers will be Mr. Samuel Rought Young, of New York; Mr. Richard Parker, of Rutland, Vt.; Mr. Frank A. Birney, and Mr. R. Glenn King, of Baltimore.

The marriage of Miss May Hill and Mr. Charles Aloysius Dunn, which was announced in these columns last Friday morning, was followed by a nuptial mass. Rev. Father Mackie, pastor, officiated. The bride, stylishly attired in tan broadcloth, the skirt and bodice of which were trimmed with sprays of forget-me-nots in silk and white, and wearing a large hat of black velvet, entered the church with her mother and was met at the altar by the groom, who was wearing a dress of white wool and a black panse velvet hat. The ushers were Dr. J. Ryan Devereaux, U. S. Marshal, and Dr. W. C. Gwynn, and Mr. F. M. Phelps, of Baltimore. Mr. D. F. W. Herron was best man.

Major and Mrs. Charles G. Ayres have returned to their home at the Graton to remain until October. Major Ayres has been ordered to Cuba and Mrs. Ayres will accompany him to his post. Miss Emily Debernay Ayres, the only daughter, left yesterday for the Dolby Ferry, for the school year. Miss Ayres has inherited the beauty of her charming mother, who was one of the most accomplished debutantes of the army circle, a few seasons later on.

COMING TO THE THEATRES.

The National—Francis Wilson. The National will offer for its next week's attraction Francis Wilson in his latest success, "The Stroller," direct from his New York run of seventy-five nights. After having succeeded there through the hottest applause it made a popular record that seems to be genuine.

The Columbia—Anna Held. Anna Held will come to the Columbia next week with "The Little Duchess," the most successful comedy she has ever written. "The Little Duchess" is said to have been given a grand scenic production, representing an outlay by the management of something like $30,000 before the rise of the stock market. It is also reported to have cost $28,000.

Chase—"A Stranger in New York." In redemption of the promises made last summer at the conclusion of a season remarkable for its success, the same group of entertainers is announced to reappear at Chase's theatre for a brief period of musical farce with interspersed vaudeville, beginning with the matinee next Monday. The company, which continues to be known as Chase's Musical Comedy Company, has been re-organizing entirely new material. The new production, "A Stranger in New York," which has been acted here but once, and has therefore the attractiveness of novelty, is said to be a body of it that is usually in Hoyt's construction, and it is said to be more completely new than any of the other productions of the theatre. It is a comedy in which more than any other actor, will be seen as the leading character. It is a comedy in which more than any other actor, will be seen as the leading character.

The Academy—"A Ragged Hero." Manager Stair will present at the Academy next week "A Ragged Hero," a melodrama depicting life in New England and containing a number of effects and climaxes which are said to be entirely new. The production is said to be a child from the upper window of a boarding house by the quick-witted "ragged hero." With not a moment to spare and until the height of the window is attained, the hero leaps into his arms and is borne to safety.

The Broadway Burlesques. The Broadway Burlesques, an organization that has achieved considerable success in the past few years, both financially and artistically, will be at the Lyceum Theatre next week. The opening first part is an original conception in burlesque, being somewhat constructed on the lines of the comedy "The Picture" which is one long to be remembered. The artistic grouping of twenty young girls, who are to appear in the production, is said to be a pretty costume and stage settings as have yet been seen in burlesque. The production is said to be a child from the upper window of a boarding house by the quick-witted "ragged hero." Woodward and Lothrop. New York—Washington—Paris.

Our October booklet—"The Birds"—now in press, will be of great assistance in selecting the bird to be mounted. It also contains a comprehensive list of appropriate gift articles. If of interest to you, leave or send us your address, and we will mail you a copy.

Imported Coque Feather Boas. From Paris direct—and just arrived. An exceedingly stylish neckpiece, and never quite so fashionable as now. Made of coque feathers, in a variety of colors suitable for both street and evening wear.

Swiss Ribbed Corset Covers. Just what are needed to wear with shirt waists in the fall. They conform to the figure, are amply heavy, and they do away with the necessity of wearing heavy under-vests.

Kindergarten Mats. Made of Sorrento Cloth, stamped in various simple designs, with material for working. Will teach the children to become industrious, and when finished, the squares can be used for mats or sewn together, making a small cover or creeping ruga.

The "Arnold" Knit Abdominal Bands (For Infants). A band so soft, light, and fine as to be very soothing to the tender skin—no more irritation from contact with an all-wool fabric.

Guaranteed Sewing Machines. As autumn approaches the housekeeper has sewing to do and naturally needs a good machine. We invite you to come in and see our full line of the very latest improved Sewing Machines. You run no risk in purchasing of us, as we are responsible for each machine for five years.

Moving. This week. Started with our shops and warehouses on Monday last. Today is the last day before we close the old store finally. If you require anything in our line, better make your purchases now, while the discount prices prevail, as an opportunity like this seldom offers.

Scrofula. Few are entirely free from it. It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood. It may then produce irregularity of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in much cutaneous eruption or glandular swelling.
