

ETHICS FIRST IN HANDICAP, BUT IS DISQUALIFIED FOR FOULING

"Father Bill" Daly's Himself Given the First Place.

BURNS' ROUGH RIDING TO BLAME

Dwyer's Horse Was Three Lengths to the Good at the Wire.

SEVEN RACES ON THE CARD

Four Favorites and a Second Choice Get Past Judges in Front, and Talent Have a Good Day—Rosettin Wins Again—The Apprentice Race.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—After demonstrating that he was much the best horse in the race, passing the judges three lengths in front of his nearest rival, C. F. Dwyer's Ethics was today disqualified by the stewards for fouling in the $1,200 handicap at Brighton Beach. The distance was a mile and a quarter, and Ethics covered it in 2:05, carrying 114 pounds.

He was a heavily-backed favorite at 9 to 5, being reduced from 5 to 2, at which quotation he opened on even terms with Tom Kenny.

"Father Bill" Daly's himself and Cuspidor were coupled at odds, and when Ethics was ruled out the big end of the purse went to himself, who had finished second.

Nine horses ran, with Arden first showing the way, then himself. Ethics was held back by Burns until the last quarter pole was reached, where the jockey tried to give an exhibition of rough riding seldom seen on a race-track.

Nearly every horse within reach of Ethics was bumped or knocked out of his stride. Then, getting clear, Burns came home with three lengths to spare, Ethics being under a drive to the end.

Himself Just Lasts. Himself lasted long enough to beat Tom Kenny by a head, the latter finishing a length before Perry Belmont's Numeral. Bullman made the protest, which resulted in the disqualification of Ethics in favor of himself. Second money went to Tom Kenny, and third to Numeral. It was a hard blow for those who had played Ethics, and some hot criticism was leveled at Burns.

Seven races were run in all, four favorites and a second choice enabling the crowd to cash in. Probably 8,000 persons were in attendance. A fine showing it was, considering the day and the quality of the card.

J. Boden's smart two-year-old filly, Rosettin, won another easy victory in the fifth race. She was a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 8, and galloped all the way, winning easily by three lengths. The distance was five furlongs and the time, 1:00 2-5, considering everything, was excellent. Rosettin carried 114 pounds. Dark Flamingo, second choice, took the place from Erora, third choice, by a length.

Apprentice Jocks Ride. The sixth race was one of those periodic farces that are inflicted on the racing public by enterprising secretaries, an affair which is intended to afford embryo jockeys a chance to learn a few things. Strange to say, in this case the favorite won. August Belmont's Anak was an even-money first choice, and, piloted by little Hyland, a relative of the famous trainer, Anak got home in front of Justice and Loane, Barbe, a son of the good jockey of a score of years ago, was up on the second horse, while Loane was ridden by Barber.

The good old mare Belle of Lexington seems to have taken courage over her victory of Wednesday, for she won again today, beating The Amazon, Oclawaha, and four others in good style. She was also an even-money first choice and was played heavily. The Amazon, who finished second, being the second choice, at 8 to 5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF FOR LOVERS OF HORSE FLESH

Loss of Interest in the Annual Champion Race.

RETIREMENT OF ETHELBERT

Major Daingerfeld in Good Shape for Brighton Derby—Gold Heels Taking Exercise—McCarren and Schorr Make a Trade—Fall of Ural.

Now that Ethelbert has been turned out of training, the Annual Champion race, for which he was being specially prepared, loses some of its interest. The Annual Champion, which is to be run on September 13, is one of the richest of Sheephead Bay's fall events, being worth $25,000, of which $20,000 goes to the winner. Among the cracks that were nominated for this race, but which were declared out because of ill luck, were Commando, Jean Herod, Ethelbert, The Parader, Alcaud, Computo, Ballyho, Bey, Charcoarns, and Prince of Melbourne.

Neither Gold Heels nor Blues, the two best horses among the other division, is eligible for the race, and Advance Guard, Hero, Pentecost, Arragor, Gunfire, Blue Girl, Articulate, and His Eminence are all absentees.

Still there are a number of high-class horses remaining, the best of which are Goldsmith, Yankee, Major Daingerfeld, Hyphen, King Hanover, Tom Keany, Bellario, Goldcup, and Sun Shower. This year's Annual Champion will be the third running of the race, which was first won by the three-year-old, David Garick, who beat Ethelbert by a head in a hard drive. It was this defeat of his pet, and the fact that as the race was run Ethelbert ought to have won, which induced Perry Belmont to place the horse in training again, hoping that his favorite would win the race this year. Last year Moll of Harlem beat Rockton, the latter breaking down.

The members of the Metropolitan Turf Association were tendered a surprise party yesterday. Just before the post-call for the opening race, Secretary Tim Sullivan was called aside by Joe Ullman, and told that he, Ullman, was prepared to pay off the balance due the ring by the "Kid" Weller, the well-known Washington jockey who departed suddenly a couple of years ago. It did not take long to get

DUFFY'S LEG GONE.

Gives Out in Semi-Final Heat, and Champion Is Beaten.

LIVERPOOL, Eng., Aug. 1.—A. Duffy and S. Jones, of America, returned from Ayre, Scotland, where they competed in a set of track sports. Duffy's leg gave out in the semi-final heat and he was defeated by Murray, of Ireland.

Jones had a walkover in the high jump, clearing 6 feet 1 1/2 inches. Wadsley, an Englishman, did 9-2-5 second for the 100-yard dash, but it was not allowed, as he stole on the pistol and there was a strong wind at his back.

Duffy's injury is so severe that he has found it necessary to postpone his engagements in Ireland until the end of this month. He also states that he will give up athletics when he returns to America, as several physicians have told him that it may end in a permanent injury if he keeps in training.

HOLBEIN TO TRY AGAIN.

Tide Defeats Swimmer's Attempt to Cross the Channel.

DOVER, Aug. 1.—Holbein, who started from Cape Gris-Nez, in an attempt to swim across the English Channel, gave up at 6 o'clock this morning when eight miles off this place. He had encountered an unexpectedly strong tide, against which it was useless to contend. He left the water unaided and feeling fresh. He had been in the water 12 hours and 22 minutes, and covered, at a rough estimate, about thirty miles. He will make another attempt on August 12.

By 11:30 last night Holbein, who had entered the water about 5:30, was six miles off Calais. The lights on the English shore had been visible for some time and steady progress was made toward them. The tide strengthened, however, and was racing down the channel by 2 o'clock. Holbein was carried steadily back toward Cape Gris-Nez and past that point.

Holbein was covering three miles an hour for the greater part of the time, but his progress toward England up to 5:30 this morning was only represented by eight miles, although he swam about thirty. Holbein was dismayed when the experts on the tug advised him to give up the attempt. This he refused to do for some time, but eventually yielded to the inevitable and left the water. When his temperature was taken on board the tug, after leaving the water, it was found to be normal.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 1.—Laura F. M., a two-year-old by Ben Strome—Stapella, ran a fast six furlongs in the fourth race at Highland Park this afternoon, negotiating the distance in 1:13 flat. The first four races went to favorites in the betting, three of them being at odds on. Track fact: Summaries:

PERSECUTION OF TITUS.

Sculler Tells of Method Pursued to Damage His Standing.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The breach between C. S. Titus, the sculler, and certain members of the Union Boat Club is widening to such an extent that before it is healed there is likely to be considerable blemishing of character.

Titus is determined to stand his ground, no matter what may be the outcome, and makes no secret when he says that several of his fellow members in the club will come out of the fray at the finish a little more bespattered than he will. It appears, too, that the Union Boat Club retainers are determined to make trouble for the oarsman to the bitter end.

The accused sculler in speaking of the affair yesterday said: "Certain people in the Union Club want to damage my amateur status so that the Henley stewards will refuse my entry next year. It is perhaps not known on this side of the water that the Henley people held up my entry this year. Well, they did for a while, on account of the fact that I was sent across by subscription. But when they understood the case more thoroughly they removed the embargo and I was allowed to start. You might think that the Englishmen are ignorant of the real state of affairs in the rowing world here. This is a mistake, for the least little squabble that occurs on this side of the pond finds its way over there in quick time."

The National Association of Amateur Oarsmen knew how the money was collected, and they endorsed my Henley entry blank. The Henley people knew how I was sent over, yet neither association has yet said I am anything but an amateur. But it remains for a few evil-minded persons in the Union Boat Club to try and make a mountain out of a molehill, and through the episode endeavor to harm my reputation. Since my return have received hundreds of congratulatory epistles, but against that I have been hounded by numerous filthy communications. What have I done? I am no criminal. All I have done is to win two heats of the greatest sculling race on earth. I represented the Union Boat Club and America and was beaten by a better man and only after I gave out the best and last sculler in an amateur. But I am going to Henley again as sure as the sun shines."

Titus is entered in the national regatta by the Union Boat Club and declared he would wear that club's colors in the singles. His hands are in bad shape, but he thinks they will be all right next week.

M. A. Cornell, president of the Union Boat Club, said in reference to the proposed charges: "The trouble with Titus is that he talks too much. He may have enemies in the club but he should remember that he has friends also. So far I have heard nothing about any charges of professionalism nor do I think there will be any. He is a life member of our club and if the facts were known has been treated well by the Union."
