

FIVE FAVORITES LAND THE MONEY A GRAVESEND TRACK

Usual Crowd of Regulars on Hand Despite the Dreary Weather.

BONNIBERT IN BAD FORM

Farrell's Colt Rumps Home a Length to the Good in Sixth Race—South Trumble Carries Drake's Colors to Victory—Sadducee Wins at Six Furlongs.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—It was another dreary day at Gravesend, but the usual crowd of regulars were on hand to take advantage of what appeared to be a fairly easy card, and they were amply rewarded, for five favorites came home with the money.

In the handicap for all ages, at a mile and a quarter, Herbert opened favorite at 4 to 5, but went back to 6 to 5 as the money poured in on Colonel Bill, making him post favorite at 11 to 10.

Always in Front. Getting away quickly from the post, Shaw took Colonel Bill to the front and set a heart-breaking pace down past the stand. Cunard led Herbert into the backstretch, where near the far turn Smith took the latter up to Colonel Bill's flanks.

Blue Peter, a 7-to-10 favorite, had an easy time winning the two-year-old handicap, at about six furlongs. Redfern kept him in front all the way, finishing a length before Intervention, who beat Dancer a neck. The time was 1:12.

Rumps Home a Winner.

Bonnibert, also a 7 to 10 favorite, showed a form reversal in the last race, a selling event at one and one-sixteenth miles. It was on Tuesday last at this distance that Bonnibert, with 120 pounds, a 1 to 3 favorite, was beaten by Mackay Dwyer. In today's race he picked up six pounds less and romped home a length before an inferior lot.

John A. Drake's South Trumble, the third favorite to close at 7 to 10, took the third event for three-year-olds at a mile and seventy yards.

Lynce rated him behind Hanover Queen and Ben Howard to the far turn, where the well known colors were carried to the front in the twinkling of an eye, the colt winning with a length and one-half to spare over Ben Howard, who was five lengths in front of Remorse. The time was 1:45 4-5.

Lawrence Waterbury's recently acquired Sadducee, the fourth favorite at 7 to 10, cleverly ridden by Odum, landed the second event at about six furlongs by a length. Star of the West, backed down to tens, won second, two lengths before Malden, 12 to 1, who barely beat Oclawaha by a nose.

The opening event for two-year-olds, at five and one-half furlongs went to Incubator, well played at 15 to 1, who was beautifully ridden by Redfern and caught the eyes of the judges three parts of a length in front of W. R. Condon. The favorite, Andrew Miller's Nevermore, was five lengths behind. The time was 1:06 4-5, one-fifth of a second slower than Astarita's track record.

WHAT'S NEEDED FOR FALL?

Every department in this establishment has a pertinent answer to that question. The months of preparation that have sent our buyers to every mart have focused all their work right here in the store now. We've taken time to prepare—all the time that was necessary—for thorough preparation allows of no skimping. In the factories that make goods for us we've stayed right with the controlling spirits until we saw our ideas were interpreted perfectly—and any plan that may not have worked out right we've quickly changed.

That this is a better store each season is the natural result of the work we put into it. That it's successful is easily accounted for. We never let one of those accidents of trade that are bound to sometimes happen lose us a patron. There's a way of adjusting them, and we never fail to adjust them. —The policy of the store has always been progressive. It has always calculated to do something more—give you something better than anyone else. That road always cuts off competition. It's a policy that has raised this establishment to the highest pinnacle of success—and must always push that success toward greater success. —What you pay at Parker, Bridget & Co.'s must be the fair price. We'll never skimp quality, but the price that buys quality here must compete with the price asked for less particular goods everywhere else. Our aim is not to undercut on price—but to excel in quality at a given price.

The Right Kind of Clothing for Men.

It's an enviable position to occupy—that of having men think of this place when they think of clothing—and of having the others in the business keep our goods in mind as the perfection they should reach. —We could get along by being satisfied to do only what others do and showing what they show—but it would be a small ambition, and we would be now—just where we started. How different it is today.

The call for Fall Suits and Overcoats is at the height of the first rush. Men in Washington don't wait to be forced into a season. Each one dislikes to be the last to prepare, and the result is all are ready when they should be. This season more than ever. The fall so far has been particularly busy, and we notice so many new customers—men who have come to find out for themselves why they hear so much about the superiority of Parker Bridget clothing. —If you want a price to guide you—$10 to $35 for suits—$12 to $35 for Fall Overcoats.

Today, the Last Day of Preparation for School.

We always look for this last week before school opens to be a big one, and the Saturday to eclipse every Saturday of the season. Expectations have been only part of the realization so far. But then we've prepared for it better than ever. The stock that greets you here this time deserves every favor of patronage. The quality speaks for itself—the style speaks for itself—the price speaks for itself, and between the three there's not a loophole for a lost sale. —There are two special lines that you should know about. No. 1—A line of Boys' school suits in blouse, vestee, and double-breasted Suits, and also small worsted Suits in black and blue chevrot suits, with 2 $3.95 pairs of pants. They're of the $5 class—the price here is $5.00

And another line, including boys' suits of every kind—some have 2 pairs of pants—some have pants with double seats and knees. Fancy mixtures and black and blue chevrots. They're far better than their price. $5.00
