Seen, Heard and Done Among Those Who Go, Come and Tarry—Women and Society, Here and Elsewhere.

A QUIET NEW YEAR.

The facts that New Year came on Sunday and that the business men as a rule found it impractical to give up an afternoon on Monday and that few cared to give up Sunday to social pleasure, even if many of the ladies had been willing to entertain on that day, left the matter of New Year receptions a movable feast to the last moment, with a majority of the ladies. Then, on Friday Mrs. George W. Wright abandoned her plans for a large reception Monday night, on account of the illness of Mr. Arthur Ylstra, though at that time it was not generally known that his condition was critical.

A number of ladies who arranged to be "at home" informally neglected to let it be known through the papers or by cards, while a few, desiring to exclude acquaintances and receive only personal friends sent out a limited number of cards. In these cases the men followed the gentleman's rule—"When in doubt as to the propriety of a social call—don't"—which is socially safe individually if it is stupid in result to the many.

Altogether it was an exceedingly quiet New Year Sunday and Monday. But last night the numerous large receptions as announced in the Sunday Journal, and the dance for the younger set at Mrs. Mallory's, gave an appropriately festive close to the holiday events, and a brilliant opening to the social season.

BOARD OF CITY MISSIONS.

The Board of City Missions met at the residence of Mrs. Thomas V. Hannah Friday and completed its organization under the auspices of both the Palafox and Gadsden street M. E. churches, and of the Epworth League. The Board is trying to secure the services of Miss Gibson, a trained missionary, who will be examined at a meeting to be held at Mrs. Hannah's Friday afternoon.

The organization has a grand work in view, plans for which will meet the enthusiastic approbation of all good people, as they have of all those engaged in carrying them into practical use. The officers of the Board are: Mrs. J. N. Andrews, first vice president. Mrs. Sylvester Weeks, first vice president. Mrs. R. Q. Ousley, second vice president. Miss Burton, secretary. Miss Annie McMillan, treasurer.

FORT BARRANCAS.

Fort Barrancas, Fla., Dec. 26, 1904. The Army and Navy card party was held at the residence of Colonel Hubbell on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Hubbell and Mrs. Perry gave the party and received together. The score cards were decorated in water colors by Miss Hubbell to indicate the Christmas season. Captain Cole, Art. Corps, won the first prize for gentlemen, and Miss Myers the first prize for ladies. The prizes all went to the army at this meeting for Dr. Ford was successful in capturing the lowest prize. Miss Hubbell was elected secretary and treasurer of the card club.

morning for three or four days' camping in the woods. The party consisted of Capt. and Mrs. Lyon, Captain Hase, Lieutenant Coward and Mrs. Coward, Lieutenant Andrus and Mrs. Andrus. The weather is delightful for camping.

Assistant Surgeon J. L. Taylor, U. S. N., left on Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with his family in Texas. Lieut. and Mrs. Collins left on Friday for their new post in the North. The 5th Company, Coast Artillery, of which Lieutenant Collins has been in command for the greater part of the time for the past two years, presented Mrs. Collins with a beautiful cut glass dish for her table.

Brigadier General Barry, in command of the Department of the Gulf, presented a Christmas present of a pardon. All the companies of this post had fine turkey dinners for Christmas, and the 7th company, Captain W. F. Hase in command, had the dining room most beautifully decorated for the occasion.—Army and Navy Journal.

WILL YOU HELP?

A very earnest appeal for aid for the Orphanage at Arcadia, Fla., is made by Miss Spaulding in the Baptist Witness of December 21. The orphanage is wholly undenominational though under care of the Baptist state convention, and is a monument to the culminating life work of the late Rev. J. C. Porter, through whose untiring and devoted efforts the orphanage was established as a home for homeless white children, regardless of religious antecedents.

While donations will be thankfully received from any source, a very special appeal is hereby made to the members of Pensacola Baptist churches and congregations to come forward at once with whatever they feel able to give toward the comfort and happiness of those helpless little ones who are dependent upon strangers for the Christmas joys and everyday comforts so generously bestowed upon your own children.

Donations will be received by Mrs. Frederic Jones at the Baptist parsonage on North Palafox street, all through this week.

Mrs. W. D. Chipley will pack all articles sent and take them with her, leaving on Monday morning, Jan. 9th, to attend the state convention in Jacksonville, after which she will proceed to Arcadia to visit the Orphanage. Mrs. Chipley will personally deliver, as well as be grateful for any gift for these orphans, however small or large, from 5 cents, a book or toy, to $100 or more.

Mrs. Chipley is out of the city for a few days, but Mrs. Jones will receive any donations sent to the parsonage.

Do what you can. God alone knows whether your own little ones, by some disposition of your earthly affairs, may not be glad to find a refuge in that same orphanage.

A NOBLE GENTLEMAN GONE.

The sudden death of ex-Governor James P. Eagle, of Arkansas, brings a very real sorrow to all who knew him, and they are scattered all round the earth. To the Baptist denomination, and particularly to the Southern Baptist convention, the loss is irreparable.

In Arkansas the state of his adoption where he has spent the best years of his manhood his passing away is in the nature of a calamity to the people between whom and himself there existed a genuine brotherly affection, and confidence. The Argus says:

"Gov. Eagle died very suddenly December 29. He presided as usual at the Arkansas state Baptist Convention. After calling to order the latest session he asked the brethren to elect some one to preside as he was too feeble to do so. Those of us who heard him speak, sitting in an arm chair placed for him, will never forget his gentle, earnest, affectionate address. There were many moist eyes and every heart was tender."

"At this meeting he gave $1,000 to the debt of the Ouachita College and $10,000 to its endowment."

"The going from him of the loyal and queenly wife struck him a hard blow from which he staggered on smiling to the end."

"We have lost a spirit truly great in its gentleness and loyalty, and mighty in its influences over men and with God."

JOLLY NEW YEAR TRIP.

A jolly party of young people left Pensacola to spend New Year with Mr. and Mrs. Sweden in Pine Barren, in whose pleasant home they had a fine dinner and supper, and enjoyed a stroll through the town, the woods, and over the bridge then back along Lover's Walk, and visited the M. E. Sunday School.

In the party were, Mrs. Holmes, Misses Mabel Sweden, Maggie Butler, Valery Flowers, Lella and Reba Butler and Messrs. Robert Sweden, L. and J. F. Flowers, J. Nicholson and F. T. Tiedman.

NEW PASTOR ARRIVED.

Rev. J. F. Rogers, who succeeds Rev. W. Q. Vreeland as pastor of the Gadsden Street Church, and family, arrived last evening and are at home in the parsonage, corner of Twelfth avenue and Strong. Mr. Rogers was detained by the illness of his wife, who has been sick since conference. The family consists of Mrs. Rogers, their son, Mr. Frank Rogers, daughter, Miss Eunice and a younger child.

They were met at the station by Mr. F. M. Williams and Mr. W. W. Richards, who escorted them to their new residence, where a large committee of ladies, who had the parsonage com-

Appreciation

Appreciation best expresses the mutual feeling between ourselves and customers. Our patrons have been most appreciative, as is evidenced from the increased and larger volume of business we have been favored with, and they have shown conclusively that our STANDARD OF SHOES and OUR METHODS are appreciated by them. While this has been very gratifying to us, we have endeavored to show our appreciation in return by giving BETTER VALUES AND LOWER PRICES each season, but we believe in this respect our line will appeal to you the coming season stronger than ever before, and we can truthfully state we have exceeded in STYLE, QUALITY AND PRICES any effort ever made on our grade of shoes. New features have been added throughout our entire line, and we have improved the standard to such an extent that we are confident that we have opened a wider field than ever for an increased patronage and believe we will merit the largest season business we have ever had. We should like your entire patronage on our grade of shoes. We will in return give you our best efforts and a substantial evidence of our appreciation by furnishing you the highest standard values ever produced in footwear.

Wishing you one and all A BRIGHT, HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR, we are yours for good shoes.

fortably arranged and a good supper waiting, gave them a cordial welcome.

Mr. Hobart Cross leaves to-day, returning to college after spending the holidays pleasantly at home.

Little Miss Hilda Marguerite Hallmark celebrated her 4th anniversary Monday afternoon by giving a large party at her home, 130 East Government street. The little hostess entertained with games and an abundance of holiday refreshments, and the children had a good time. She received a lot of beautiful presents from her many friends big and little, with whom Miss Hilda Marguerite is a great favorite.

Mr. Tom Bass Covington and Mr. Lucius Bell leave this morning to resume their studies in the Florida State College in Tallahassee.

Mr. G. W. Hinsey of Apalachicola, a very prominent Pythian, is expected to arrive to-night to spend a few days in the city. Mr. Hinsey will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Horsler, 19 East Gregory, during his visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Marsh informally entertained last evening a party of their neighbors who were not receiving. There were three tables of six hand euchre and the evening was most agreeably spent.

Mr. Hays Fernald, after spending the holidays at home, returns this morning to the Florida State University in Lake City.

Miss Daisy Hartzog, the little granddaughter of Mr. J. R. Fillingim, of Brentwood, who has been spending the holidays with her uncles, Messrs. W. H. and R. J. Fillingim, returned home Sunday.

Dr. William J. Hannah, who is spending the holidays with Mrs. Hannah and her parents in Alabama, will remain about two more weeks attending to his business interests there.

Mr. and Mrs. Scarritt Moreno and children returned last evening from Tuskegee, Ala., where they spent the holidays visiting Dr. R. L. Lane.

The Home Missionary Society will meet in the Palafox M. E. church Thursday at 3:30 p. m., instead of 4 o'clock, as there is a lot of business requiring attention.

The Nomads will meet Wednesday morning with Mrs. John B. Jones.

The Whist had a pleasant meeting with Mrs. William R. Gonzalez last week and will meet with Mrs. Robert Hyer Friday.

Of course, everybody interested knew that Rev. H. P. Whaley entertained the choir of Christ church on the bay Thursday and that Miss Cora Louise Simpson entertained the young set who are not yet out of school with a delightful bowling party at the Country Club Saturday afternoon. But only writers and printers understand how such exasperating things will occur in the "make up" of a newspaper in the best regulated offices, as that which mixed the two items in The Sunday Journal, at the same time wholly omitting the mention of Miss Ada Hilton-Green's charming tennis tournament which the young set so greatly enjoyed at the Country Club.

Miss Sara Dannheisser, of Mobile, is the guest of Mrs. I. Gugenheim on East Chase and is being entertained highly by her friends, several social functions having been given in her honor.

An agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect is produced by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

DADE COUNTY JAPANESE CELEBRATED CHRISTMAS.

(Palm Beach News.)

The first Japanese Christmas tree ever held in Florida, and perhaps the only one ever held in the Southern States took place Monday night at Boca Raton in this county.

The Japanese colony that recently located there are evidently becoming Americanized very rapidly, for notwithstanding the fact that only two of its members profess the Christian religion, they celebrated their Christmas in the same manner that the churches and their Dade county neighbors did.

Mayor Currie, of this city, went down and acted as their Santa Claus and reports that he never had a greater time. Mr. Currie sang some little snatches of Japanese opera that he had picked up and the colonists laughed, sang back at him and gave him several enclosures. The Christmas presents presented were all from Japan and were sent to the colonists by friends in their native land.

The largest part of their presents consisted of war pictures, a half dozen of which were presented to Mr. Currie and are noticeable, principally, for the fact that a Russian is not shown in them who is not in the hands of the Red Cross Society, in the hospital, or being punctured with Japanese lead or steel.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat an irritation and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by all druggists.

A Pretty Delivery Wagon.

M. Jacoby has just received a new delivery wagon from the F. W. Cook Brewing Company, for which he is agent at this point. The wagon is a new one, but under the care of Mr. Jacoby it is sure to thrive well. The wagon is not a large, bulky affair, but a light, strong and well-built vehicle, which will be used to advantage in making quick deliveries. It is one of the most attractive of its kind in the city. Mr. Jacoby intends building up a good trade in this section on the Cook Beer, which will not be very hard to do as it is a beer which is popular everywhere. Large and small orders will have good, quick and careful attention.
