CARDS OUT FOR WEDDING

OF MR. AVERY AND MISS HART.
Cards are out for the wedding of Hon. John Campbell Avery, Jr., of this city, and that to the ceremony reads as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. James Force Hart invite you to be present at the solemnization of matrimony between their daughter Ora and Mr. John Campbell Avery, Jr. Wednesday evening January twenty-fifth nineteen hundred and five at eight o'clock Emmanuel Church Athens, Ga.

To the house: Reception immediately after the ceremony, Nicholson Place.

A LOVELY JAPANESE FLINCH.

Mrs. M. E. Batts entertained the Excelsior Flinch Club last evening in the most lovely way. The rooms were turned into a Japanese garden.

The decorations were large Japanese umbrellas and innumerable Japanese lanterns. The walls were covered with Japanese screens and the windows were draped with large chrysanthemums.

The tables were ornamented with Japanese centerpieces and dishes of Japanese crystallized ginger.

The hostess was an ideal Japanese beauty in costume, her dark hair dressed in Japanese style with chrysanthemums and tiny fans, which was very becoming.

She was assisted by her friend and guest, Mrs. Henry P. Gordon, of Michigan, who, though fairer was a charming Jap, also in the national costume. Also by her mother, Mrs. Matthews, who was gowned in a handsome black silk with a white lace tie, her beautiful white hair and lovely brown eyes forming a fine American contrast to the Japanese matrons.

At the close of the flinch each lady was presented with a pair of real chopsticks as a souvenir, and Mrs. J. C. Pebley having the highest score was presented with a "Great, big pink chrysanthemum." The score cards were little Japanese fans.

A charming Jap luncheon was served, the first course being Li nuts and crystallized ginger.

When the second course came, it was a chopstick-and-rice course until the ladies had enjoyed the novelty with "more less" success, then salads were served, followed by cakes, pig custards and then real Japanese tea, all served from the daintiest Japanese china.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. N. C. McMillan.

Jewish society, Miss Cora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Goldstucker, to Mr. Gabe Hirsch of Natchez, Miss.

From 10 to 11 o'clock a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 314 North Baylen, which was handsomely decorated. Both parlor and dining room were in white and pink carnations and ferns. The bride wore an exquisite costume of white crepe de chine over taffeta, trimmed with real lace. A large picture hat of duchesse lace trimmed with white roses and two large white plumes and the only ornament worn, a diamond sunburst, gift of the groom, completed the picture.

The queenly maid of honor, Miss Ray Goldstucker was gowned in liberty silk and taffeta, and trimmed in duchesse lace, and wore a large picture hat of duchesse lace trimmed in white roses and plumes. The other maids who assisted in receiving were: Miss Jacoby in white cloth.

Miss Ury of New Orleans in white silk over silk.

Mr. N. Goldring, brother-in-law of the bride, acted as best man in place of the groom's brother, Mr. Abe Hirsch of New Orleans, who was taken sick and unable to leave home.

The wedding march was played by Miss Ury of New Orleans at the piano and Miss Jacoby on the violin, the bride entering on the arm of her father.

Mrs. O. Goldstucker, mother of the bride, wore black crepe de chine over silk.

Mrs. N. Goldring, sister of the bride, wore white lace robe over silk.

Miss Sara Goldstucker white voile over silk.

The array of presents was simply gorgeous, including one long table of cut glass, a large dining table laden with silver, a pile of exquisite needlework, rolls of handsome carpets, beautiful rugs, and other beautiful and valuable things innumerable.

Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch left on the noon train for a short bridal tour and will then go to their future home in Natchez, where the groom is one of the solid men of that city.

U. D. C. RECEPTION.

Pensacola Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy has about completed arrangements for the annual reception on Lee's birthday, as will be seen by the following special invitation received Wednesday morning:

"Ladies of the Memorial Association: You are specially invited to attend the reception to be given at the residence of Mrs. F. E. Brawner on the nineteenth of January in commemoration of the birthday of Lee and Jackson.

"FLORIDA COOK SHEPARD, Secretary."

This invitation the Memorial Association will be pleased to accept, as no doubt will the Veterans and the Sons of Veterans to whom similar invitations were also sent, making all together, a delightful reunion that will honor the memories of two great patriots, aside from the specially appropriate program that is being arranged for the patriotic occasion.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR IN McDAVID.

One of the most delightful entertainments of the season was that given by Miss Etta Bowman, Miss Pearl Strickland and Miss Annie Harrison at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bowman at McDavid on Friday evening last.

The reception halls and parlor were beautifully decorated with bamboo and holly, the color scheme being red and green.

Guests gathered at an early hour and for amusement various games were indulged in. Flinch and Ft being the most prominent, until about ten-thirty, when all repaired to the spacious dining room where the charming hostess, Miss Etta Bowman, assisted by Miss Pearl Strickland and Miss Annie Harrison, served the light refreshments, such as chocolate, cake, candies and fruits.

The dining room was artistically decorated with palms and holly, and a beautiful Calla Lily with a bud just bursting forth in simple purity occupied the centre of the table, while a pyramid of holly graced each end.

Every one reported having spent a delightful evening and were loath to depart until the "wee small hours" of the morning.

Among those who were present were Misses Nettie and Pearl Strickland, Jessie Pringle, Letitia and Bessie Baggett, Annie and Mary Harrison, Etta Bowman, Lela Baggett, Mrs. Cassie Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Bowman, and Messrs. Jno. and Jim Pringle, T. J. Cushion, George Harrison, Myron Baggett, J. Campbell and Gracie Brewton.

Judge Lucius J. Reeves and Mrs. Reeves were among the Pensacolians who went to Mobile yesterday to witness Ben-Hur, and will remain for a few days looking over the Alabama port.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Bernard returned last evening from Mobile where they went to see Ben-Hur.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hale Wilson and sister, Mrs. Kinnler, and Miss Abbie Brooks returned Wednesday morning from Mobile where they enjoyed Ben-Hur.

Mrs. W. W. Weekly and Mrs. Charles Rice have moved into their

NEWS OF THE WEEK AT BUSY FLORALA

ARTESIAN WELLS WILL SOON BE DRILLED—PERSONAL, SOCIAL AND GENERAL NOTES OF INTEREST.

Florala, Ala., Jan. 11.—The holidays are a thing of the past and our citizens have settled down to their usual routine of progressive business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McLean have moved into their handsome residence on Fifth avenue.

W. H. Britton has gone to Charlotte, N. C., to which place he was called Saturday by wire. It is reported that his brother is very ill. All of the people of our little town sympathize with him.

W. A. Mills and family are spending a few months at Lakewood.

A large dance was given at Lockhart recently complimentary to the young folks of our town.

Next Monday night at the Lakeview pavillion will be given the first first-class theatrical performance in the town. This little theatre seats 500 persons and is fitted up with comfortable appointments.

C. R. McLaurin, of McRea, spent several hours in town to-day.

Wm. Turnquist entertained his brother from Chicago last week. These gentlemen have been investing in some good farm lands near town, and propose to spend their winters here.

Mr. Henry Elliott and his charming wife expect to occupy their town residence some time this month.

A. M. Hyer, of Pensacola, was in town last week looking after his investments here.

The artesian wells for the waterworks system will soon be brought in. The delay in the arrival of the piping has caused the delay in the construction of the plant and the drilling of the wells.

L. N. Chandler, an expert driller, will have charge of the work. He brought in two wells at Lockhart for the Jackson Lumber Company with a flow of something over 400 gallons a minute.

Hon. G. F. Stewart, of Andalusia, was in town Thursday on a business visit to Wm. C. Mohroe.
