BRILLIANTLY WEDDED IN GREENVILLE, ALA.

Greenville, Ala., Jan. 12.—A brilliant wedding took place at the Baptist church, this city, last evening, the contracting parties being Dr. Herbert H. D'Alemberte, of Pensacola, and Miss Kate Rouse, daughter of Mr. Daniel H. Rouse.

The church was elaborately decorated in southern smilax, ferns and palms, and the seating capacity was not sufficient to accommodate the very large number of spectators. At the appointed hour the bridal party arrived. While they waited in the vestibule a beautiful solo, "Because I love you, dear," was rendered by Mrs. R. A. Beckler. The bridal chorus from "The Rose Maiden" was next given by a full chorus of trained voices, after which "Lohengren's Wedding March," rendered by Mrs. J. H. Dunklin at the organ, Miss Rosa Ehlbert with violin and Miss Gertrude Ehlbert, flute, announced the entrance of the party.

The ushers, Messrs. George Turner, Charlie Grant and Herron D'Alemberte, of Pensacola, and W. W. Peagler, of Greenville, first appeared, coming down the central aisle in couples. Next the groomsmen, D. P. Smith, of Greenville, Walker Mills, of Montgomery, and Dr. C. W. D'Alemberte, of Pensacola, singly. Then the bridesmaids, Miss Fan Turner, of Pensacola, Miss Elsie Winkler, Greenville, Miss Lucille Gaston, Birmingham, who also walked alone.

The matron of honor, Mrs. George Turner, of Pensacola, now appeared, then the bride, who leaned upon the arm of her father. The groom and best man, Mr. Anderson Leonard, came from the Sunday school room and at the altar the grouping of the entire party made a beautiful picture. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Tallafiero, the double ring service being used with touching effect.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in white chiffon over taffeta, with a deep bertha of point lace, pearl ornaments forming the yoke, while the girde of white panne velvet was spangled with mother-of-pearl, used by her grandmother many years ago. The bridal veil was held in place by a pearl and diamond brooch, gift of the groom.

Mrs. George Turner was attired in a dainty costume of white crepe de chene and carried an arm cluster of American Beauty roses.

Miss Fan Turner made a charming picture in her robe of snowy crepe de chine, carrying bridesmaid roses. Miss Elsie Walker and Miss Lucille Gaston, each beautifully attired in crepe de chine, the former carrying Marchal Neil roses, the latter Golden Gate roses, completed the gayety of beauty.

After the return from the church a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Amerine, uncle and aunt of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stuart will entertain at dinner to-day in honor of the bride and groom, and to-morrow they will be entertained by Mrs. Kate Satterwhite, grandmother of the bride. The out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. D'Alemberte, Mr. Herron D'Alemberte, Mrs. Walker Humphreys, Mrs. R. H. Turner, Miss Fan Turner, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Turner, Charlie Grant, Anderson Leonard, Pensacola; Miss Lucille Gaston, Birmingham; Miss I. V. Walker, Evergreen; Mr. Walker Willis, Montgomery; Mrs. J. L. Gantt, of Gantt.

A BIRTHDAY RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Pryor gave a reception Thursday night to the young friends of their only son, Mr. William F. Pryor to celebrate his sixteenth birthday.

The decorations were entirely in pink and white throughout the elegant home. In the parlor, narcissus, hyacinths, ferns and Japanese lilies lent a festive air to the handsome room.

In the dining room carnations, roses and ferns prevailed. A large pink bell was suspended from the chandelier over the center of a large dining table. Ropes of pink and white ribbons were festooned from the chandelier to each corner of the table where they were fastened with immense bows of pink ribbon.

In the center of the table under the bell was a large birthday cake in the form of a pyramid with sixteen lighted candles.

The refreshments served at small tables in the dining room carried out the dainty pink and white scheme refreshingly. Pink cherries were served with the white ice cream, cakes were in pink and white layers, the candies were in pink and white and, the only other color introduced was in golden oranges.

The amusement program included Pliach played round small tables in the parlor, the scores being kept on dainty white cards tied with pink ribbon. Mrs. W. L. Hahn scored.

When the birthday cake was to be cut in the second course, Miss Georgia Boyer blew the candles.

Mrs. Pryor, handsomely gowned in green silk, was assisted by the following ladies:

Mrs. W. L. Hahn in black grenadine over pink silk.

Mrs. Will Norred Grant in brown silk.

Mrs. Robert Grant in green silk.

Mrs. Bryant in black silk.

Miss Lizzie Waite in black.

Among those present were:

Miss Georgia Boyer, Miss Florence May Marston, Miss Clara Pryor, Miss Fanny Gingles, Miss Gussie Gingles, Mr. Osgood Williams, Mr. Carl Johnson, Miss Erine Robinson, Miss Elia and Miss Ethel Broughton, Miss Ida Richards, Miss Alice Dow, Miss Hattie Gay, Miss Mary and Mr. Jack Morgan, Miss Ila Henderson, Mr. Oliver and Mr. Fleming Brawner, Mr. Ernest Mueller, Mr. Carlo McMillan, Miss Carrie, Miss Annie and Mr. Lester Van Pelt, Mr. Barney Miller, Mr. Willie Merrilweather, Miss Hazel Manely, Miss Jane and Miss Lizzie Waite, Miss Fay

and Mr. Bertram Heinberg, Mr. John Pryor, Mr. Edward and Mr. Henry Wickes, Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Walter Jordan, Mr. Charles Vetter, Miss Cora and Mr. Willie King, Mrs. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant, Mr. and Mrs. William Norred.

The young host was the recipient of innumerable presents of ties, jewelry, books and other acceptable presents and will long recall with pleasure, as will his guests, his "sweet sixteen" reception.

FOR MISS DICKERSON.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Brooks entertained Thursday night for Miss Dickerson, of New Orleans, who is the guest of Mrs. Charles R. Johnson.

An absence of unusual decoration showed the prettily appointed home to advantage. In the dining room where a dainty salad course was served after the euchre, growing ferns and palms lent their charm to the scene.

Those playing were: Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Miss Dickerson, Mrs. C. R. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shepard, Miss Daisy McAllister, Miss Mary Thompson, Miss Abbie Brooks, Miss Augusta Holmes, Miss Nell Burrow, Miss Kate Loftin, Mr. A. A. Brooks, Judge Bellinger, Mr. Scott Loftin, Mr. L. E. Durham, Mr. Patillo Campbell, Miss Mabel Loftin scored.

U. D. C. RECEPTION COMMORATING LEE AND JACKSON DAYS.

The program of entertainment, arranged for their guests by the United Daughters of the Confederacy at their reception celebrating the birthdays of Lee and Jackson, is a delightful one as will be understood from reading it:

No. 1. Mrs. J. M. Pinn, piano solo.

No. 2. Miss Nellie Richards, recitation, "The Sword of Lee."

No. 3. General George Reese, address.

No. 4. Miss Cora Louise Simpson, violin solo.

No. 5. Mr. Beveridge Monroe, barytone solo.

No. 6. Miss Adelle Chaffee, recitation.

No. 7. Miss Charlie Bell Lancy, piano solo.

No. 8. Miss Nell Roberts, song.

No. 9. Miss Vera Fulghum, recitation.

No. 10. Mrs. Wilmer S. Hall, piano solo.

No. 11. Miss Lurline Fulghum, violin solo.

No. 12. Male Quartette—Mr. W. S. Garfield, Mr. Walker Anderson, Mr. R. M. Bushnell and Mr. J. O. Walker.

While every number on the program will be enjoyed, the chief interest will naturally center in the address by that honored veteran, General George Reese, whose "heart to heart talk" to his old comrades, and to the younger generation, will be highly pleasing to all who are fortunate enough to be present.

The reception will take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Branner, 1101 North Palafox street, North Hill, Thursday night, January 19, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Special invitations have been sent to the Memorial Association, to the U. C. Veterans and to the Sons of Veterans and a cordial invitation is extended to all visiting Veterans, Daughters and Sons or others interested.

All Veterans who failed to get their crosses of honor in June, can get them Thursday night and are invited to do so.

AGED WOMAN INJURED.

On Thursday as "Aunt Ellen," an inmate of the "Woman's Home," was crossing Ninth avenue she was knocked down by the horses drawing one of the city drays. The driver stopped and went to her aid and she was carried into the residence of Mrs. L. E. Nobles, whence she was later sent to the Home in a carriage.

"Aunt Ellen" exonerates the driver. She is feeble and does not hear well. At the time she had in a sunbonnet and did not see the team and if the driver had called to her she says she could not have heard.

All the friends of "Aunt Ellen" and the Home will be glad to learn that she is up though her knee is painful and she suffered from the shock.

Miss Heintz, of Buffalo, who is visiting Miss Quina, goes to-morrow to spend two or three days with Miss Isabel Quina, after which she will continue the guest of Miss Quina.

A message has been received from Havana announcing the safe arrival of Mrs. Superville, who changed her plan to sail from New Orleans and went via Tampa because she was unable to secure a sleeper to New Orleans.

The many friends of Mrs. Zeigler, who was a guest of Mrs. J. S. McGaughey's last season, where she was seriously ill, are pleased to know that she has returned and is at Hotel Escambia for the season looking particularly well.

Miss Celestine Quina returned yesterday from a visit to Miss Clausen, of Davenport, Ia., at Sea Breeze, up the sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, of Danville, Ill., and their charming daughter, Miss Mary Moore, who was the recipient of many delightful social attentions last winter, have returned and are guests in Hotel Escambia for the season.

Mrs. Charles McVay entertained very charmingly at the Country Club last evening, the band from the training ship Hartford furnishing the music.

Miss Julia Knowles, who went to Mobile Friday to see her niece, Miss Marie Superville, is expected home to-day.

Mrs. W. B. Wright, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Elizabeth Kelly in Mobile, and enjoying Ben-Hur, is expected to return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillette, of La Grange, Ind., are guests in Hotel Escambia for the season.

Mrs. Vincent Fauria will entertain the Monday Club.

Mrs. John G. Heard received a wire from her friend, Mrs. John Willingham, of Memphis, saying it was impossible for her and Mr. Willingham to leave home before Tuesday. As a result, Mrs. Heard has postponed her cruise and Col. Robert Galloway will sail in his yacht "Daisy" this morning for Tampa, where the remainder of his party will join him next week.

Mr. Alec and Mr. Willie Zelina were among the Pensacolians who went to Mobile to see Ben-Hur. Their sister, Miss Florida, who has been quite ill, was greatly improved last evening.

Mrs. M. T. Bonifay entertained both the Friday and the Tuesday Euchre Clubs last week, giving handsome prizes. The Tuesday Club meets next with Mrs. Fred Humphreys.

Mr. A. C. Johnson and party of friends who went to Mobile Saturday morning to see Ben Hur, are expected home to-day.

The party of friends who went to Greenville to attend the D'Alemberte-Rouse wedding have returned. Dr. D'Alemberte and his bride have gone on a honeymoon trip without saying just where, but they will be at home at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. D'Alemberte, when they arrive.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McK. McClellan, who planned to attend the wedding of Dr. D'Alemberte and Miss Rouse, were prevented from going at the last moment.

Mrs. James Bentley Roberts, of Birmingham, Ala., who has been visiting relatives, left yesterday for home accompanied by her mother, Mrs. George E. Wentworth.

One of the important social events of the week will be the large reception to be given Thursday night by Col. and Mrs. T. V. Kessler to celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Meade Wilson expect to return this evening from Mobile, where they went to witness Ben-Hur.

Miss Kate and Miss Lena Ferguson and their friend, Mrs. Oswald, Quinnivan, went to Mobile Friday morning to see Ben-Hur.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Houlette and daughter of Miss Lois, of Winterset, Iowa, are expected to arrive this week to spend the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hahn.

Brewton (Ala.) News: Miss Margaret Brewton visited relatives in Pensacola this and last week.

Mobile Register: Miss Julia Knowles, of Pensacola, is the guest of Mrs. Osmonds Durant for a few days.

OBITUARY OF A NOYED CHARACTER

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIFE OF WATERWORKS CIPHER, WHO MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED.

Waterworks Cipher was born November 11, 1885, at the corner of Government and Baylen streets, Pensacola. His advent was celebrated by several distinguished citizens, notably among them were F. C. Brent, W. H. Hutchinson, John Burns and A. McD. Moyer. His birth certificate of legality was signed by Col. S. S. Harvey and Frank Maura.

In early life Mr. Cipher had little attention paid to him, being considered like all others—of little value. At the age of ten years, so nearly as can be ascertained, he was kidnapped like unto the celebrated mysterious case of Charles Ross. He was torn ruthlessly from his abiding place in the city castle and spirited away to where no one has revealed to the public.

Not Appreciated. Like all great personages Mr. Cipher was not appreciated until years after his demise. The citizens of Pensacola are just beginning to learn of his true merit and thousands mourn his loss. No reward was offered at the time of his departure, in fact he was so little valued that no one seemed to miss him, nor does anyone seem to remember the date of his taking away.

But it is all changed now. People at last recognize his true worth. With sorrow they learn that every time they take a drink of water, or bathe, or water the flowers, or sprinkle the lawn, or wash the buggy, and use water for many other purposes, they contribute to the kidnapers of the long lost Cipher. The dear people now contribute dollars where it would only have cost dimes had Mr. Cipher remained in our midst.

The Search For Cipher. So anxious have the public become that the city has offered $500 reward for his discovery. The authorities have exhumed a multitude of remains buried in twelve caskets at the city castle. Colonel Choate, an expert exhumer, has been engaged to open the caskets at the Garden street morgue and see if he can find any of Mr. Cipher's remains or anything appertaining to him. I saw Colonel Choate yesterday and he was looking rather blue for he has not been able to find any clue. There are grave suspicions that Mr. Cipher's remains were cremated; either accidentally or with malice aforethought, and that no clue to him will ever be found.

Whether Mr. Cipher died at the hands of a foul assassin or by suicide may never be known, but unless some record be found it is possible that the people will dance to the tune of "Ten Times Too Much" for thirty more years to come. It is very probable that the mourned Waterworks Cipher went up in smoke from the ramparts of the city castle and there is no doubt that some may devoutly say: "Peace to his ashes."
