MR. AND MISS RICHARDS ENTERTAIN CHARMINGLY.
Mr. Raymond Richards and his attractive sister, Miss Nell Richards, entertained a few friends most pleasantly Friday night to celebrate Mr. Raymond Richards' nineteenth birthday anniversary.

There were games and music, among other features, the hostess singing two solos with encores that were greatly enjoyed. During the evening a delicious salad course was served.

The host and hostess were gracefully assisted by their sister, Miss Ida, and their brothers, Mr. John and Mr. Will Richards, in contributing to the pleasure and entertainment of their guests, who were:

Miss Minnie Eva Burton, Miss Martha and Miss Klittie St. John, Miss Amy Briggs, Miss Eunice Rogers, Miss Edith Luske and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Luske of Chicago, Miss Julia Gay, Miss Flossie Boyer, Miss Bessie D'Alemberte, Miss Georgia Boyer, Miss Alma Esmond, Miss Maggie Lou Bennett, Miss Daisy McAllister.

Also, Mr. Walter Bennett, Mr. Clyde Roberts, Mr. Bert McAllister, Mr. Moubry, Mr. Tom Walsh, Mr. Harry Lorton, Mr. Ralph Davis, Mr. Owen Langford, Mr. John Jones.

HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Home Missionary Society of the Palafox street M. E. church held its annual meeting Thursday afternoon at the residence of the president, Mrs. Thomas V. Hannah, on East Gregory, when the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

Mrs. Thomas V. Hannah, president. Mrs. J. C. Pebley, 1st vice-president. Mrs. W. C. Mackey, 2nd vice-president.

Mrs. T. J. Welch, 3rd vice-president. Mrs. W. L. Wittich, cor. sec. Mrs. Collins, rec. sec. Mrs. Avant, treas.

The unanimous re-election of Mrs. Hannah as chief executive officer was a well deserved tribute to that lady's efficient and unwearied efforts to forward the noble work of the society, as was the re-election of Mrs. Welch to the third vice-presidency.

After the election a delightful social hour was spent in enjoying the dainty refreshments served and in informally discussing and maturing plans for the year's work, which all are now prepared to unite in carrying out.

Much interest in the annual meeting of the general board of the Southern states in Montgomery in April and in that of the Alabama conference Home Mission Society in Mobile in May, in both of which meetings the local board will be ably represented.

IN ARMY AND NAVY CIRCLES

Captain Thomas Perry, U. S. N., gave an at home on Monday afternoon in honor of Admiral and Mrs. Rodgers and Miss Neff, at which a large number of army and navy officers and ladies and prominent people from Pensacola attended.

The Army and Navy Card Club held a regular meeting on Friday evening at the quarters of Commander and Mrs. Eaton, and were assisted in the entertainment by Engineer Stanford and Mrs. Stanford. Miss Neff won first prize for guests and Mrs. Perry, from the Army post, the first lady's prize. Captain Stephens, U. S. N., won the first gentlemen by cutting with Captain Perry, U. S. N., and Captain Perry, U. S. A.

Captain and Mrs. Davis, of the Marine Corps, and Paymaster and Mrs. Pymn, U. S. N., are recent arrivals at the navy yard.

There are many expressions of regret among a wide circle of friends at the army post and also in Pensacola, over the fact that Commander Eaton, U. S. N., and Mrs. Eaton are to leave the yard.

Quite a number of officers and ladies of the post have been on the sick list during the past week. Among the number were Miss Hubbell, Miss Myers and Mr. Hase.

A FLORAL FLINCH.

The Excelsior Flinch met with Mrs. J. D. B. Lamar and spent a lovely afternoon. The hostess was gracefully assisted by her pretty kinswoman, Miss Lomie Gould.

There was a full attendance despite the weather and the score cards were in the form of a different flower. The refreshments after the game were an elegant service of salad and dessert courses.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. "Dick" McAllister.

THE OSCEOLA EUCHRE.

Notwithstanding the weather quite a party of devotees assembled Wednesday night to enjoy the six hand euchre which proved to be a delightful affair.

The beautiful prizes were won by Mrs. Robert A. Hyer, ladies first, a Russian copper samovar on a silver tray; men's first, Mr. R. A. Hyer, a silver shaving set; Miss Lizzie McGaughey, Russian leather hand bag with card case and pocket book. After the games a delicious hot supper was enjoyed.

Those playing were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Saltmarsh, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hyer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lamar, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dishman and their guest, Mr. Linticum, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stillman, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Brent, Mr. and Mrs. McVay, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. McVay, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James C. Watson, Mrs. Marion Caldwell, Mrs. Robert Caldwell, Miss Fannie Caldwell, Mrs. Rice, Miss Alberta Hyer, Mr. W. K. Hyer, Sr., Miss Julia Knowles, Mr. A. M. Avery, Jr.

FOREIGN MISSION MEETING.

The Foreign Mission Society of the Palafox M. E. church will hold its regular meeting at 3:30 Monday afternoon in the Sunday school room of the church. A full attendance is desired as there is business of importance.

U. D. C. MEETING.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will hold their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of the president, Miss Lelia Reese. Please bear in mind the hour, and the change of day of meeting from the first Friday in the month, to the second Tuesday.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION FOR MR. AVERY AND BRIDE.

The spacious and elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Avery was radiant with light and beauty Friday night, and all local society seemed to have responded to their invitation to meet their son, Mr. J. Campbell Avery, the rising young attorney and member-elect of the Florida legislature, and his lovely bride, formerly Miss Ora Hart of Athens, Ga., and a popular belle in that classic old university town.

The decorations were red and white on a background of ferns, the flowers being great quantities of red and white carnations and in tasteful profusion and making the whole house fragrant with their spicy perfume.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell Avery, Jr., and Miss Avery, Mrs. John C. Avery was elegantly gowned in white silk and handsome lace.

Mrs. J. Campbell Avery was exquisite in her bridal robe of white Duchesse satin hand embroidered in seed pearls, with a berthe of rare oil point lace.

Miss Avery wore her bridesmaid gown of white silk mullie trimmed with innumerable airy ruchings of dainty lace.

They were charmingly assisted in entertaining the hundreds of guests who called, by Mrs. Harry H. Thornton in white silk, Mrs. A. M. Avery in black lace, Mrs. William B. Wright in white embroidered net, Mrs. Marion Caldwell in black lace, Mrs. Scarritt Moreno in pink organdy, Miss Stella Avery very lovely in white voile and lace, and Miss Marie Sullivan superb in a white lace robe over chiffon and silk.

Mrs. E. O. Saltmarsh in white silk, Mrs. John Deaham in pale blue chiffon, Mrs. Emily C. Smith in handsome black silk, presided in the dining room where, amid the showers of red and white carnations, glowing in the soft radiance of innumerable red and white shaded lights, a delightful salad course was followed by a delicious dessert course in which red and white ice creams aided in carrying out the beautiful color scheme.

Miss Daisy Hyer, becomingly gowned in black lace over black chiffon, presided at the punch table and the bevy of lovely girls who waited was composed of Miss Katharine Avery in white organdy, Miss Allie Willis in pale green net, Miss Marion Avery in white organdy, Miss Ruby Mallory, in blue organdy, Miss Fannie Caldwell in white lace, Miss Lizzie McGaughey in white organdy, Miss Bertie Smith in white organdy.

Mrs. J. Campbell Avery's wedding presents were displayed in the billiard room on the second floor and comprised the most bewildering array of cut glass, imported porcelains, silver, gold, bronzes, fans, real lace, a deed to property and telegrams innumerable. It was like a visit to a fine art jewelry establishment and attracted admiring crowds all evening.

A good orchestra rendered excellent music throughout the reception and among the throng to welcome the young people were many persons who rarely favor a merely social function with their presence. Among them were observed a group of clergymen, including Dr. P. H. Whaley, rector of his artistic violin, during his brief stay. Mr. Linticum goes to resume his course in the medical department of the University of Chicago, and if he should decide to become a specialist in nervous diseases, his sympathetic temperament and musical genius will give him preeminence in his profession.

The congregation of the Palafox street M. E. church is highly pleased with the new pastor, Rev. B. C. Glenn, and his cultured and most charming family, who are proving delightful social acquisitions. Miss Glenn is "out," being a graduate of Tuskegee '03, but her three younger sisters are schoolgirls.

The unanimity with which Rabbi Samuel Koch was re-elected to the presidency of the Pensacola Library Association, reflects quite as much credit on the appreciative discernment of the members as upon the efficient and loyal enthusiasm of the chief executive officer.

Mrs. Ramey, of Pensacola, mother of Mr. John Ramey, assistant engineer on the steamer Martique, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sharpley, at their home on Fifth street.—Miami Metropolis.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Marsh entertained the Neighborhood Euchre last evening, at their lovely home on North Spring.

The Whist had a lovely meeting with Mrs. Rice at Mrs. McGaughey's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Yates, of Georgia, who have been at the Southern for the past two weeks, leave to-day for Tampa, Jacksonville and St. Augustine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lemon and Miss Grace Lemon, of Indiana, are at the Southern. They leave Tuesday for Mobile.

Miss Matea Laraby, of Michigan, who has been at the Southern for the past six weeks, has gone to Mobile to spend Sunday with friends.

Mrs. Monk is now up and getting along nicely to the pleasure of her friends.

Mrs. Phillip E. Hannah entertained with an informal and delightful "at home" last evening for Miss Minnie Lee Walker, of Perot, Ala., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas V. Hannah.

Miss Marion Suter entertained with cards Saturday afternoon for Miss Hughes, of Richmond, Va.

Archdeacon Webber arrived last night from Jacksonville, Fla., and is the guest of Dr. Whaley, of Christ church.

The many friends of those charming young ladies, will be glad to hear that Miss Irene Gonzalez is recovering from the gripe and Miss Kathleen is improving.

Mr. Henry M. Horsler's hosts of friends were glad to see him on the street Friday, the first time after a ten days struggle with gripe.

Mrs. C. W. Lamar is expecting two lovely pieces, Miss Pearl and Miss Cora Lewis, of Valdosta, Ga., to arrive Tuesday night to remain till Mardi Gras.

Miss Kathleen Hutchinson, who is visiting her cousin, Miss Derma Foster, in Prattville, Ala., and Miss McQueen in Montgomery, is having a glorious time, being showered with breakfasts, luncheons, teas, dinners and dances, not to mention theatre parties and suppers. This week she is with Miss McQueen and was the honoree at a buffet luncheon in the morning and a guest at the Grey's ball Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Majette, of St. Andrews Bay, are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Saunders.

Mr. F. E. Branner was just able to be at his store yesterday for the first time since the gripe grappled him.

Mrs. Virginia A. Flemming's innumerable friends will be glad to learn that she is improving, though still confined to her room.

Miss Rebecca Newell left yesterday for Bainbridge, Ga., on a visit to her cousin.

Miss Nina Parise is improving after a severe seige of gripe, to the relief of her anxious friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Saunders have returned from a week's visit in Atlanta.

We desire to direct the attention of our readers to the coming big engagement in Pensacola of Dr. O. P. Lyman, representing the famous A. K. Hawkes Optical House of Atlanta.

He will be at the store of his agent, W. A. D'Alemberte, for ten days, beginning February 10th, and ending 21st. The firm of A. K. Hawkes, located in Atlanta, Ga., is the originator of the celebrated "Hawkes" spectacles and eye glasses, and has been favorably known to the public for more than thirty years. As one of the leading optical establishments it has a reputation throughout the United States. Any statement made by this old and reliable concern may be entirely relied upon.

Persons afflicted with defective vision of eye trouble in any form, would do well to avail themselves of this opportunity to consult a strictly first-class optician.

Remember the dates, February 10th to 21st, inclusive.
