PENSACOLA BAY.
Twas there in the harbor at sunset,
At the close of a summer's day,
The ships of many nations,
Safe at their anchor lay.

The sun in its downward course
Shed its glittering rays,
Across the decks of the vessels
As they rode on the glistening waves

The stars that at evening shine
Are obscured by the gathering cloud,
While the rumbling of the thunder
With the lightning clashes loud.

'Tis another storm of the tropics
That rushes in fury fast,
Lashing the waves in its anger,
Dealing destruction, each blast.

Sat lo! when the storm abated,
And the night gave way to day,
The fleet lay safely at anchor
In Pensacola's Bay!

WHY MEN ARE BALD.

We were in the society of many curates and old maids at an English tea party. The conversation had turned on the question, "Does the wearing of hats make men bald?" One grave and unworried old curate opened—and closed—the discussion by saying, "Not hats, dear friends, but shirts. Now, you will have noticed that a man takes off his shirt over his head, thereby dragging the hair out by the roots, whereas a woman—here three teacups dropped.—Brown Book.

PROMINENT EDUCATOR ATTENDING WEEK.

Prof. L. W. Buchholz of the Florida State College, Tallahassee, who has been in the city as delegate to the Presbytery, left Saturday morning for home.

Prof. Buchholz is not only one of the leading educators of the state, but he is a scholarly gentleman with all a German's love of, and proficiency in, music.

For several terms he served as superintendent of instruction for Hillsborough county and, regularly as the "campaign" came round one heard much "talk-talk" about "ousting that old Dutchman" but, somehow nothing definite could ever be urged against him but "his Dutch accent," and the politicians tried hard to convince the people that it was "absurd to have as superintendent of American schools a man who can't talk plain American language."

But—somehow the people, especially the Tampa people, always decided that despite his foreign accent Prof. Buchholz not only spoke more correctly than his native opponents, but taught his teachers how to teach correctly. Moreover they were obliged to admit that, under his superintendency the public schools of Hillsborough county were lifted from the ordinary grade to the very foremost rank in Florida public instruction.

Miss Eliza Gold, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is greatly improved and expects to be able to resume her duties on Monday.

MR. AND MRS. STODDART'S BEAUTIFUL AZALEAS.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Stoddart who recently came down from their northern residence on the Hudson near New York city, are at their beautiful home on Stoddart avenue, East Hill.

Visitors in the city, especially those recently from a cold climate, should not fail to see "the Stoddart place," and those who love the beautiful in the floral kingdom—and who does not—will be especially repaid by a view of the magnificent Azaleas that are now in their perfection, and lend an added glory to that always attractive place.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoddart's Azaleas are not only the largest bushes in all this section of the country, but their wealth of perfect pink blossoms are as rare as they are beautiful, and form one of the most attractive sights in or near Pensacola.

ROSENSTEIN-FRENKEL.

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Frenkel and Mr. Archie L. Rosenstein will take place Monday evening, April 17. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Frenkel, 520 West Gregory, at 8:30.

U. D. C. MEETING.

Pensacola Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of the president, Miss Lella Reese.

SUDDEN DEATH IN JAKIN OF MR. J. J. FLOWERS.

Mr. J. C. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith left Friday for Montgomery to attend the funeral of their cousin Mr. J. J. Flowers of that city who expired very suddenly in Jakin, Ga., Friday morning at 6 o'clock.

The body was taken to his home in Montgomery whence the burial took place Saturday evening at 5 o'clock.

Mr. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Smith are expected to return this morning from their sad journey.

A PRETTY, GOOD DEFINITION.

A Western lecturer in one of his talks on the manners and customs of high society, said:

"Too often society is struck a telling blow by such an answer as an elderly country squire once made to an inquisitive young man."

Here the lecturer turned to the blackboard behind him, and scrawled out in four immense letters—R. S. V. P.

"A young man," he resumed, "asked the country squire what those letters meant at the foot of an invitation. The squire with a little chuckle, answered:

"They mean, Rush in, Shake hands, Victual up, and Put."—Brown Book.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment given Friday night in Library Hall by members of the Epworth League of the Gadsden street M. E. church was well attended.

The first number, "Nearer My God to Thee," illustrated by Miss Flossie Boyer and Miss Edith Luske, and sung by Mrs. R. Q. Owsley, was extremely beautiful, and a fair indication of the character of the whole program which has been published, all the parts of which were good.

Miss Alma Price of Cincinnati, who directed the entertainment did some very graceful posing in "The Swedish Prayer," which was very good.

MANAGER TIMBERLAKE IN THE CITY.

Mr. J. C. S. Timberlake, the former popular manager of Hotel Escambia, is in the city en route from a brilliantly successful season at Palm Beach where he successfully conducted "Hotel Hibiscus" near the Royal Poinciana on the exclusive east side.

Mr. Timberlake will join Mrs. and Miss Timberlake in Gulfport, Miss., for a brief rest before going to Monticello, Tenn., one of the most beautiful and picturesque mountain summer resorts in the country, which opens June 1 and which he will manage.

Mr. and Mrs. Timberlake and their attractive daughter, have just returned from a delightful tour of Cuba where they went at the close of the season on the East Coast, the ladies proceeding direct to Gulfport where they will await Mr. Timberlake.

MR. AND MRS. McMILLAN ENTERTAIN FOR THEIR FRIENDS MR. AND MRS. CULTER.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Cuyler McMillan entertained very delightfully aboard the Florence Witherbee Saturday with a trip on the water in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Culter of Louisville, Ky., who have spent the winter in Pensacola.

They cruised up the Sound about fifteen miles, disembarked and went over to the beach where they enjoyed everything in sight.

On returning to the boat a delicious fish chowder, with stuffed eggs, pickles, a sweet course and coffee, was served by a corps of servants carried along on the trip, which included a cruise among the battleships, numerous snap shots of various odd and attractive scenes were secured.

The bay was pretty rough but all were good sailors. In addition to the host and hostess and the honorees, among those aboard were Mrs. Murphy wife of Boatswain Edwin Murphy of the U. S. S. Iowa, Mrs. Sondley and Miss Hazel Sondley of Huntsville, Ala., and their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weekly, Mrs. F. L. Mayes and her guest Miss Dot Clark of Indiana, Dr. and Mrs. Sylvester Weeks, Rev. B. C. Glenn and his daughter Miss Nellie Glenn and their guests Rev. W. F. Wade and Miss Wade of Evergreen, Ala., Mrs. Julia Buchere, Miss Mary Robinson of Louisiana (guest of Mrs. Hutchinson), Mrs. Fannie Hall and daughter Miss Katie, Miss Mary Frater, Miss Josie Roberts, Miss Katherine Lane, and Miss Annie McMillan.

JEWISH WOMEN'S COUNCIL. FINE PROGRAM MONDAY NIGHT.

The Council of Jewish Women will hold their open meeting Monday night in the parlors of the Progress Club and the literary and musical program arranged is one of the best ever given. It includes a violin solo by Mr. Max Heineberg, song by Mrs. David Harrison (formerly Miss Esther Rosenstein), piano solo by Miss Stone and vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Ike Hirschman.

Mrs. David Harrison will read her own paper on "Professional and Club Women."

Miss Emilia Shulman's paper on "Women in the Home and the Community," will be read by Mrs. Lep Myer.

THE NAVAL RECEPTION SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

As the houseboat "Everglades" failed to arrive as expected the reception that was to have been given aboard, was transferred to the Country Club and from 3:30 to 6 o'clock last evening there was a throng of youth, beauty, fashion and chivalry paying respects to the charming hostesses, largely ladies of the navy assisted by a corps from local society.

The club rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and the American colors and delightful refreshments were served during the evening.

The affair was quite informal and the mingling of civil, military and naval social life led to making of many new and the renewal of old acquaintances that was very enjoyable.

MISS MORRIS GIVES A FANCY DRESS DANCE.

Miss Gipsy Morris, who leaves tonight for her home in Atlanta, closed a most successful season with a fancy dress dance for her junior class Saturday afternoon that was a lovely affair.

Fifty children, all in fancy dress, make an attractive picture at any time, but when in addition to appropriate costume to each dance, they dance as gracefully as fairies are supposed to, they are irresistible and many flowers for the children added to their pleasure in the poetry of motion.

LIBRARY WITHDRAWS IN FAVOR PUBLIC SCHOOL.

At the business meeting held Friday afternoon the Pensacola Library Association decided to withdraw from the library contest in favor of the public school.

As the Library now has about all the books included in the contest it would be unnecessary to duplicate them.

Mrs. W. E. Snow of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in the city Friday morning and will spend several weeks here the guest of her mother Mrs. R. I. O'Neal.

The 9th grade of high school, Miss Barns teacher, gave a well patronized excursion on the bay Saturday for the benefit of the High School Library. The day was enjoyable though the water was rather rough and many unaccustomed sailors paid the usual tribute, imploring the captain to "Do stop the boat and let me die"—with the result that, once ashore they found clear heads and voracious appetites awaiting them.

Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Church, Miss Edith Larue and Mr. Clarence Church of Cincinnati who came to see the fleet left Friday for Alabama where Miss Larue recently inherited a few thousand dollars worth of property.

The children of that good woman Mrs. Adele Davenport, who passed away Friday after long suffering, have the sincere sympathy of all who knew her as that blessed gift of God, the best earthly friend—a mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stillman entertained Mr. and Mrs. John C. Avery and their guest, Mrs. Jackson, Lieut. and Mrs. J. I. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. John Denham, Mr. J. M. Roberts and Capt. Cowles U. S. N., at dinner Friday evening.

Mrs. Robert McCaskell of Freeport, Fla., is the lovely guest of Mrs. Frank Marston during her stay in the city. Mrs. McCaskell is a delegate to the Sabbath School Convention now meeting in the Presbyterian church and has captivated the hearts of all who have been so fortunate as to meet her, by her grace and charm of manner.

Wouldn't it be perfectly dear of President Castro to bring his navy and camp outside the harbor for a few days. One can almost hear the now reigning admiral jovially megaphoning to him—"O, blanket Castro, come on in and break a bottle before you smash into the mouth of the Mississippi!" adding after a pause, as he said to the Chillians—"If you don't accept h-ahem!—the Gulf will smell of garlic in the morning."
