FIRST EASTER WEDDING ENSIGN KEYES AND MISS FERNALD.

Invitations were sent out Thursday evening by Captain William Hays to the marriage of his attractive granddaughter, Miss Maude Louise Fernald and Ensign Raymond Stedman Keyes, U. S. N.

The wedding ceremony will take place in Christ church Easter Monday evening and will be a very smart affair, to which the naval contingent will lend the decoration of its full dress uniforms and local society will make its first appearance since Lent, in some of those fetching gowns that have absorbed their artistic creators if not the wearers for the last forty or more days and nights. The wedding will be followed by a large reception.

The family and social connections are extended and Ensign Keyes and his charming fiancée have been showered with felicitations since their pretty romance became an open secret months ago.

FRATER-NICKEL.

The long anticipated wedding of Miss Mary Frater and Mr. Walter R. Nickel is announced for April 25.

THE FISHER-ABBOT WEDDING IN MILTON.

Miss Lella L. Fisher and Mr. George L. Abbot were married Wednesday evening, April 9 at the residence of the bride, in Milton, Fla. Rev. R. R. Anderson pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating in the presence of the families and friends of the young couple.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white crepe de chine with white silk applique and jewels. She carried a shower of bride roses.

Her maid of honor, Miss Ethel Scholls of Pensacola, was beautifully gowned in a pink and white organdie over pink silk, and carried pink roses.

They were met in the parlor by the groom and his best man Mr. Malcolm Hannale of Milton, and escorted to the clergyman to the sweet strains of "Hearts and Flowers," played by Mrs. Nicholson.

The rooms were beautified throughout with evergreens and flowers, the color schemes of white and green in the parlor and pink and green in the dining room, being especially attractive.

The young couple are well known throughout his section, the groom especially in Pensacola, Millview and Muscogee as a successful young lumberman now connected with a Milton firm, and the bride as a popular belle in Pensacola as in Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbot are "at home" in Hotel Waldorf, Milton, where they are residing.

IN ARMY AND NAVY CIRCLES.

Major Slaker of Fort Morgan, in command of this Artillery District, inspected Fort Barrancas on Wednesday and attended the practice on the big guns at Fort Pickens and McRea.

Mrs. Wingate and daughter of New York City, who have been visiting Captain and Mrs. Lyon for the past month, returned to their home on Monday evening.

Madam de Gramendia of Washington, D. C., is visiting her daughter Mrs. Captain Stephens, and expects to remain until Mrs. Stephens and children go North for the summer. Mrs. Stephens gave a card party in honor of her mother on Wednesday afternoon to which the ladies of the Post and Navy Yard were invited.

Captain and Mrs. Cole and Dr. Ford entertained the Army and Navy Card Club on Friday evening. The rooms and halls of the quarters of Captain Cole were beautifully and tastefully decorated and delightful refreshments and punch were served.

MIDSHIPMAN WOODSON ENTERTAINED FRIENDS.

Midshipman Walter Browne Woodson of Lynchburg, Va., entertained an attractive party of friends aboard the U. S. S. Alabama Thursday from 4 to 6 for his cousin Mrs. A. N. Caulkins of 18-East Wright.

Mr. Woodson is a recent graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, and, though he has made the usual trips incident to the naval student's cadet life, this is his first cruise on a big battleship.

On Thursday evening he and a number of his brother officers including Midshipman Lee S. Border, Midshipman Crawford A. Beall, Jr., Midshipman Walter A. Smead, Midshipman Spedford, Midshipman Halford R. Greenlee, Lieut. Arthur P. Crist, M. C., and others made the occasion most enjoyable for their guests.

A light collation was perfectly served by Chinese servants in the ward room which was fragrant with red and white carnations.

There was delightful music vocal and instrumental contributed by hosts and guests, Lieut. Crisp's numbers on piano and mandolin being notably enjoyable.

Mrs. Caulkins the honoree and accompanying guests, her niece Miss Ruby Morris Johnson with her cousin and guest Miss Augusta Shivers daughter of Judge Shivers of Marion, Ala., Miss Cora Hunt, Miss Ernestine Fordham, Miss Mamie Ware, Miss Ethel Maura, and Mr. Frank Otey Johnson, Jr., were carried over on the Admiral's launch to the Alabama, and were the invited guests of Capt. Reeder aboard his launch on their return to the city.

GILBERT A. ELDRIDGE IMPERSONATING ARTIST.

A thoroughly artistic entertainment which did not by any means receive the patronage that such an entertainment would receive in any other town claiming to have an appreciative community of half Pensacola's size, was that provided by Mr. Gilbert A. Eldridge's impersonations of familiar characters in literature.

This was the fifth in the series of fine entertainments furnished during this winter under the auspices of the Library Association, and those who missed it missed one of the real treats of the amusement season.

Library Hall was two-thirds full of people who gave themselves up to the pleasure of the evening with unusual enthusiasm.

Among the more popular numbers were Mr. Eldridge's impersonation of Sienkiewicz's "Chilo Chalmides" in Quo Vadis, as "Pagin" in Oliver Twist, "Shylock," and "Emoch Arden," brightened by "The School Boy," "David Harum," "Samantha Allen" and "The Widow Beckett," all of which were rendered in costume and delighted the audience.

But the gem of the evening's program was James Whitcomb Riley's "Dot Leddie Boy of Mine," which went straight to the hearts of the hearers and brought tears to every eye. The exquisite lines gained an added beauty in Mr. Eldridge's rendering which is rarely the case with other impersonators.

It is to be regretted that everybody did not hear and see him. He furnishes the "one touch of nature" that makes all his audience "kin," whether they are screaming with laughter or dissolved in tears.

PASSED FROM SUFFERING TO REST AND PEACE.

The passing away of Miss Leon Quina, the lovely and lovable young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marion Quina, while exciting the most profound sympathy for the bereaved parents, is, after all a source of real joy. For, called away in the very blossoming time of human life she enters the beautiful life beyond, unhampered by the cares and strifes, the heartaches and envies, the sorrows and offences that must in more or less degree mar the spirit that lingers long in the world. She has gone from

SCIENCE SCORES AGAIN.

A Preparation That Will Destroy the Dandruff Germ Discovered.

Finally the scientific student has discovered a certain remedy for dandruff. When it first became known that dandruff is the result of a germ or parasite that digs into the scalp and saps the vitality of the hair at the root, causing falling hair and baldness, biologists set to work to discover some preparation that will kill the germ. After a year's labor in one laboratory, the dandruff germ destroyer was discovered; and it is now embodied in Newb's Herpicide. It prevents baldness, stops falling hair and speedily eradicates dandruff. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.
