WALTER MANN MURDERED
BY A BLUEJACKET

WAS STRUCK ON ZARRAGOSSA STREET AND DIED THIS MORNING AT 4 O'CLOCK AT ST. ANTHONY'S HOSPITAL.

(From Thursday's Second Edition) Walter Mann, the young man, who was struck by a bluejacket about midnight last night, expired this morning at 4 o'clock. The details of the affair are given on another page, but since then it is learned that the bluejacket, who is charged with the crime, attempted to assault young Mann even after he had fallen senseless to the pavement.

Death was due, it is stated this morning, to a fracture of the skull. He was surrounded by friends and relatives when death occurred.

According to statements, several bluejackets engaged in a fight in a saloon on Zarragossa street, and afterwards left the saloon. One of the men, who seemed crazed with drink, in passing Mann, who was several yards west of the saloon, gave him a blow in the face. The young man fell and his skull was fractured. Afterwards it required the combined efforts of a number of bluejackets to keep the man who delivered the blow from further striking the prostrate man.

Mann was taken to the hospital and shortly after 4 o'clock expired, death being due to concussion of the brain.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pena, Ills., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle. Sold by all druggists.

FORT BARRACAS CONTINUES TO WIN AT BASEBALL.

The Fort Barracas baseball team continues its winning streak. Yesterday the team met the strong aggregation from the battleship Iowa, and defeated that team by a score of 16 to 15.

The game was called at 2 o'clock, and up to the sixth inning the Iowa had all the best of the game, the score standing at that time 14 to 7 in the battleship's favor. The soldiers, however, then began to pound the ball in every direction, and in the next three innings made nine runs, while the bluejackets were unable to score only one time.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lembert, Bowling Green, O.

ROWING CREWS ARE TRAINING

AND INDICATIONS POINT TO THE FACT THAT ALL BATTLESHIPS WILL BE REPRESENTED.

The various crews who will represent the respective ships entered for the rowing races to-morrow afternoon put in a hard day's work yesterday in training. There was not a boat that will be in the races to-morrow but that could be seen in the harbor for several hours. Each crew is confident of winning the Pensacola challenge cup, and the races will be fast and furious from the beginning to the end.

HEALTH IS YOUTH.

Discase and Sickness Bring Old Age. Herbine, taken every morning before breakfast, will keep you in robust health, fit you to ward off disease. It cures constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, fever, skin, liver and kidney complaints. It purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Mrs. D. W. Smith, Whitney, Texas, writes April 3, 1902: "I have used Herbine and find it the best medicine for constipation and liver troubles. It does all you claim for it. I can highly recommend it." 50c a bottle.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

It has come to my attention that certain parties were soliciting patronage by intimating that they were connected with, or operating, the Merchant's Transfer Co. ANOTHER WEDDING AT WARRINGTON

MR. McDONALD V. GLOVER AND MISS AGNES SWEENEY MARRIED WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Special to The Journal.

Warrington, April 27.—Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock one of the most brilliant weddings of the season took place at St. Joan's Catholic church, when Mr. McDonald V. Glover and Miss Agnes Sweeney were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father Brady.

The bride was handsomely attired in white silk, carrying a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The bridesmaids, Miss Katie Teichman and Miss Etta Bazzell, were beautiful in white silk mulle.

The groom was attended by Mr. Wm. Sweeney and Mr. Frank Kelley, who wore the conventional black. The guests were relatives and special friends of the bride and groom.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Mrs. Josephine Glover, mother of the groom, on Canal street, where an elegant wedding breakfast was served. Beside the bridal party and the hosts those present were: Rev. Father Brady, Mr. and Mrs. John Sweeney, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. James Sweeney, Miss Alice Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Oldmixon, Mr. V. L. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Comer, Capt. G. W. Ainsworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crona, Mrs. Dr. Kite; Mr. and Mrs. Crona Suarez, Miss Minnie McLellan, Miss Nellie Fell, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Chaffin, Mrs. Annie Kelley, Miss Emma Jones, Mrs. J. Frank McCounell, Mrs. Ada Crona, Miss C. Higgins and Mrs. Lucas.

The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful, showing the high esteem with which the bride and groom are held. Mr. and Mrs. Glover left on the noon train for Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia for a visit of several weeks. Their numerous Warrington friends extend their warmest congratulations.

General News Notes.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Simmons is seriously ill at the residence on Broadway.

Mr. Herbert Childerson, who for the past several months has been employed as messenger in the steam engineering department at the navy yard, has resigned.

The new launch Russell owned by Mr. John Rance, will soon be ready for service and the boys are anxiously awaiting to go out on her trial trip so that they can see that she will get a christening worthy of the boat.

The Warrington boys have had a meeting for the purpose of organizing a baseball team and from present indications it is going to take a hustling team to defeat them.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Shallice, Wis., writes, May 29, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it. 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by all druggists.

SNOWSLIDES.

They Are Fearful of Speed and a Magnificent Spectacle.

Snowslides are most frequent on steep mountains that have a heavy snowfall. With a billowy train of snow dust boiling out behind and overturning or crushing almost everything before they make an awful and magnificent spectacle. Their speed is sometimes so great that trees alongside are overturned by the swamping force of the air which the slide has violently disturbed.

There are many well authenticated instances where miners have been caught on the surface of a slide and by dexterous use of their axes have kept on top of the engulfing surface of the slide and come out unharmed. John Miller once rode down from the high Sierra on a snowslide. He was switched back down in a minute over a distance that had taken all day to climb.

One day while climbing up a steep snowy slope a slide started beneath me, and for a time I was on the surface of its upper edge, where the snow was about two feet deep. Wading a torrent will give some idea of the sweep of the coasting snow. The snow dust steamed and boiled up around me, and each time I struggled to my feet the rushing snow simply jerked my feet from beneath me. At last, almost smothered, I was dropped off the back end upon bare ground.—Eves A. Mills in Harper's Weekly.

Which Is Your Choice?

To be prosperous or to remain in want?

You can be one of the successful if you are not a coward. If you have the nerve to try, there is no question but that you will be prosperous. There is no accomplishment in wants, so you might want and want all your life and then die wanting, but let trial take the place of want and let trial be composed of physical and mental labor, and success is yours. Taking this as your motto, carefully consider the merits of the investment home purchasing contracts issued by the Standard Trust Company. This company's method of making loans on real estate provides for those who are aspiring and energetic an opportunity of securing a home or paying off a mortgage on terms that cannot be surpassed by any company, corporation or individual.
