

CHARGES AGAINST MR. BLISS DISPROVED

PROMINENT MEN IN MANY CITIES WHERE HE HAS LIVED TELL OF HIS RECORD IN THOSE PLACES.

The Daily News after making its frantic and libelous assault upon the character of the Democratic nominee for mayor made the statement that everyone had known the history of Chas. H. Bliss for the ten years he has lived in Pensacola and the News had given this history in Utah many years ago, and then asked if The Journal would fill up the gap. The Journal takes pleasure in not only "filling up the gap," but it goes further and disproves the charges made by the Daily News as to Mr. Bliss being a Mormon.

Mr. Bliss Not a Mormon.

The Journal wired Hon. Samuel J. Harkness of Schofield, Utah, who has occupied the judge's bench and held important positions in the Liberal or anti-Mormon party, for a long period of years, and who has always been a bitter enemy of the Mormon church, as follows:

Pensacola, Fla., May 31, 1905. Hon. S. J. Harkness, Schofield, Utah: Character of Charles Bliss, mayorality candidate, attacked. Wire his reputation, state how long you knew him and was he a Mormon when he left. File matter press rate collect. PENSACOLA JOURNAL, Schofield, Utah, May 31. Pensacola Journal: We certify that we knew Chas. H. Bliss for several years during the early eighties; that his reputation was good; that he was not a Mormon when he left but a member of the Liberal or anti-Mormon party of which we were both members. S. J. HARKNESS.

Thousands have been convinced of the great curative powers of the Bitters during the past 50 years.

We want to convince you too. That's why we urge a trial at once. It cures Poor Appetite, Sick Headache, Vomiting, Cramps, Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Malarial Fever.

HER SINFUL LIFE.

She Neglected Ailments Which Seemed Trivial and Became a Bedridden Invalid—A Burden to Herself and Her Friends.

Marvelous Power of G. F. P. Mrs. Mary Scott-Casten, whose work for women has made her name famous throughout America, says: "The women who neglect female troubles of any kind sins against God and Man. When I was younger I was a victim of prolapsus and ovarian troubles, and because I was ashamed to call a doctor let matters go from bad to worse until I was a bedridden invalid, a burden to myself and my friends. "I then called a doctor, and all in the world he did for me was to tell me to get a bottle of G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea). "It cured me. In an hour I felt new life and strength, and in a fortnight I was as well as I am today." G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea) is a strictly vegetable remedy of marvelous power for the cure of female disorders, such as leucorrhoea, prolapsus (falling of the womb), ovarian difficulties, and painful, suppressed or irregular menstruation. It is the only recognized remedy which is sold under an iron-clad money-back guarantee. Buy a bottle from the nearest druggist. Use it to the last drop, and if you conscientiously say you have not been benefited take the empty bottle to the man who sold G. F. P. to you, and he will return your money. If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us and we will ship prepaid on receipt of price. The Gerstle Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

CHIPLEY

Chipley, Fla., May 31—Mr. J. A. Richbourg returned from his camp, where he has been shearing sheep for the past three weeks. He reports a good yield of wool and the increase in lambs somewhat better than ordinary. Mr. P. G. Woodruff spent a few days in town last week, also filling his monthly appointment at the Congregational church. The L. & N. pay car passed through last Friday and made everybody happy. Mrs. Collins, of Georgia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Savage.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by all druggists at 50c bottle. Try them today.

REMEDY FOR THE WESTVILLE BOVINE.

Mrs. S. Jernigan, referring to the case of the Westville that gives "bitter" milk mentioned in the Wednesday Journal, says: "Tell them to keep her up for 10 days and feed her chops and shorts—better say chops and bran—then, if she still gives 'bitter' milk they'd better sell her to the butcher." "Bitter" milk is not unusual among cows that run at large—especially at this time of year—as it is caused by eating "ironweed," or other wild stuff that gives the bitter taste, and Mrs. Jernigan says if the cow has become so saturated with it that ten days' penning and feeding does not, as usual, entirely remove it, the case is not worth bothering with. This is borne out by the experience of several other people who are in a position to know.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by all druggists.

A Hurricane.

The terrors of the deep were perhaps never more thrillingly set forth than in the description by a young lady who last year made her first trip abroad. She kept a diary, very much, says the New York Herald, like that of Mark Twain, when for seven days he recorded the fact that he "got up, washed and went to breakfast." There was one important exception. When she crossed the channel the experience was so trying that she felt inclined to describe it. "I firmly resolved to stay on deck," she wrote, "although the tempest increased to such a frightful hurricane that it was only with the greatest difficulty that I could hold up my parasol."

A Wonderful Memory.

Hortensius, the Roman orator, could repeat word for word a book he had just read. On one occasion he made a wager with one Sienna and to win it went to an auction, remained all day and in the evening gave a list of all the articles sold, the prices paid for them and the names of the purchasers. The accuracy of his memory was in this case attested by the auctioneer's clerk, who followed the recapitulation with his book and found that in no case had the man of wonderful memory made a single mistake.

Manners.

Manners are of more importance than laws. In a great measure the laws depend on them. The law touches us but here and there and now and then. Manners are what vex or soothe, corrupt or purify, exalt or debase, barbarize or refine us, by a constant, steady, uniform, insensible operation, like that of the air we breathe. They give their whole color to our lives. According to their quality they aid morals, they supply them or they totally destroy them.—Burke.

A Bad Recollection.

First Barber—When! That barn-stormer must be a bad actor! Second Ditto—Why? First Barber—When I asked him if he wanted an egg shampoo he jumped right out of the chair and made for the door!—Detroit Free Press.

I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." RHEUMATISM ROBS LIFE OF PLEASURE

Rheumatism does more than any other disease to rob life of pleasure and comfort. It is so painful and far-reaching in its effects on the system that those afflicted with it find themselves utterly unable to enjoy bodily comfort or any of the pleasures of life. Some are bound hand and foot and suffer constantly with excruciating pains, swollen, stiff joints and muscles, and often distorted, crooked limbs, while others have intervals of freedom, during which they live in constant fear and dread of the next attack, when, at the least exposure to damp weather, or slight irregularity of any kind, the disease will return. The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, produced by food lying undigested in the stomach, poor bowel action, weak kidneys and a general sluggish condition of the system. External applications, such as liniments, oils, plasters, etc., do not reach the cause and can only give temporary relief. The blood must be cleansed and purified before a cure can be had. S. S. S. attacks the disease in the right way—it neutralizes the poison and filters out every particle of it from the blood, stimulates the sluggish organs and clears the system of all foreign matter. It cures the disease permanently and safely because it contains no harmful minerals to derange the stomach and digestion. Book on Rheumatism and any advice you wish, without charge.
