TERSELY TOLD.

The fishing schooners Clara R. Grimes, with 3,000 snappers, the Dixie with 500 and the Carrie B. Welles with 1,200, were among the arrivals in port yesterday for E. E. Saunders & Co.

Mrs. F. H. Anthony and children, of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Parke, of Bayfield, Canada, who have been at Mrs. W. E. Maxon's for the past eight months, will leave Monday for their homes.

The entrance examination for Princeton University will be held at the Pensacola Classical School June 15, 16, and 17. Those interested will communicate with Prof. H. Clay Armstrong, the principal. The Classical School will furnish one candidate, Penn Harvey, for entrance.

Invitations have been received announcing the closing exercises of the Crook School, which has been conducted by the Sisters of Mercy. This event which is always an enjoyable one, will occur at St. Joseph's hall on Monday, June 12, at 7 o'clock in the evening. A most entertaining program has been arranged by the Sisters, and it is expected that a large crowd will be present.

Marshal Schad yesterday received a letter from John H. Lenow, of Memphis, Tenn., inquiring as to the whereabouts of Charles Smith, who came to Florida a number of years ago. The gentleman stated in his letter that Smith had married a Miss Plunkett, of Germantown, Tenn., and that if he could be found that some important information could be given.

SELMA WANTS
NEW RAILROAD

COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATION
WORKING TO GET ON LINE OF MEMPHIS AND PEN-SACOLA.

A Selma special to the Birmingham Age-Herald says: A conference was held yesterday between a committee of the Commercial and Industrial Association, consisting of W. R. Peacock, J. F. Hooper, E. C. Melvin, L. M. Hooper and J. B. Ellis and Mr. Miller, the consulting engineer of the Memphis and Pensacola Railway Company, relative to bringing a branch line of the road to Selma. A survey has been made, and a line assured from Memphis to Pensacola, passing through Demopolis.

The company is desirous of tapping the coal fields of the Birmingham district and the question is open whether the line will be built tapping the main line a few miles above Demopolis or bring the line through Selma, as a main line in Wilcox county, about thirty-seven miles below Selma. From the conference held yesterday afternoon it was ascertained that it would require about $1,000,000 additional to bring the line through Selma, as the bridge would have to be constructed over the Alabama and the thirty-seven miles of track built.

The purpose of the conference was to ascertain if possible what Selma would have to do to have the line come here. Mr. Miller could not make any definite answer. He has set out the advantages of the line entering this field, having laid considerable stress upon the commercial advantages of this city, which are much greater than a city with a similar population in the north. Figures showing the tonnage in and out of Selma have been compiled and it is extremely likely that the much coveted line to the coal fields direct from Selma will yet be built.

CROSS OF LEGION OF HONOR TO AMERICAN.

By Associated Press.
Paris, June 9.—Capt. T. Bentley Mott, the retiring American military attaché here, has received the cross of the legion of honor with a letter from former Foreign Minister Delcasse under which it was bestowed. Captain Mott's successor, Capt. William S. Guinard, has arrived here and has taken up his duties. Captain Mott will remain in Paris until September, when he will serve on the staff of Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, head of the American mission to the French army maneuvers.

FRENCH TORPEDO BOAT TO CONVEY BODY OF JONES.

By Associated Press.
Paris, June 9.—The French government has indicated its willingness to assign a torpedo boat to carry the body of Paul Jones down the river Seine from Paris to Havre when a French squadron will deliver the body to the American squadron. This will necessitate a change in the rendezvous of the American squadron from Cherbourg to Havre, which is now under consideration.

SILENT SUFFERERS

MODEST WOMEN SUFFER IN SILENCE RATHER THAN CONSULT A PHYSICIAN.

A sense of modesty frequently prevents women who are really sick and suffering from seeking the aid of a physician. They do not even care to consult their family doctor. They know that they are sick; that their periods are painful; that in all probability they are suffering from ovarian troubles, or that they have those dragging pains which always point to prolapsus or falling of the womb. They know they need help, yet do not know how to obtain it.

To such we speak in candor and in honesty. G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea) will positively cure all such conditions, no matter of how long standing or how stubborn.

This is gospel truth, attested and proved by the grateful testimony of thousands of women who have been rescued from lives of sickness and sorrow by G. F. P.

"Ah!" you say, "but perhaps it won't do any particular good in my case." Well, try it at our expense. Buy a bottle from your druggist, or if he can not supply you, send $1.00 to the Gerstle Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and they will send it prepaid. Take it as directed and when the bottle is finished, if you can conscientiously say you have not been benefited your money will be returned instantly by the man from whom you bought it.

This is a very different proposition from paying your physician large fees, whether he helps you or not.

If you think your case presents any unusual conditions demanding special treatment and you would like advice, write to the Ladies' Health Club, care of Gerstle Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and your letter will be answered by sympathetic women who have your welfare at heart.

THE CYNOSURE
WENT AGROUND

AND SPRUNG A LEAK, BUT WAS SAVED BY PILOT BOAT AND TUG WITHERS.

The fishing schooner Cynosure, of the fleet of Holst & Co., went aground late yesterday afternoon as she was leaving the harbor for the snapper banks. The accident occurred at a point known as the middle ground.

The smack struck on the ground hard, and remained there bumped until the pilot boat Florida sighted her. This vessel, under command of Capt. T. S. Caro, went to her assistance and passing a hawser succeeded in getting her out of her perilous position. As soon as this was done the pilot boat sighted a steamer and was compelled to go to that vessel to place a pilot on board.

Shortly afterwards the Cynosure began to leak from the injuries received, and she was run ashore near Fort Barrancas. The tug Florence Witherbee was later sent to her assistance and towed the vessel up to the wharf of Holst & Co., where she is now moored. It was stated last night that the schooner was leaking fast and that she was then half full of water.

Wreck on the Grand Trunk.

Flint, Mich., June 9.—Fast through train No. 3 on the Grand Trunk for Chicago from the East was wrecked yesterday about ten miles east of here, near Davidson, by spreading rails. No one was killed. Mrs. Cora Waltrous, of Roxbury, Mass., was, it is thought, fatally injured, and ten others were seriously hurt. Three coaches were ditched. A relief train sent from here brought the more seriously injured victims to a Flint hospital.

May Smoke Imported Cigarettes. Indianapolis, Ind., June 9.—Judge James Leathers, of the Marion county supreme court has decided in the case of the state against W. W. Lowry, indicted for smoking a cigarette, that the anti-cigarette law passed by the last legislature is constitutional, except wherein it may conflict with the interstate commerce law. Smokers may import cigarettes from other states and smoke them but it is held unlawful to sell or give them away. Mr. Lowry was discharged. The state will take an appeal in order to test the law.

TWO FLORIDIANS
LOST IN GULF

YOUNG MEN LEFT MAYPORT LAST JANUARY AND HAVE NOT BEEN HEARD FROM SINCE.

The New Orleans Picayune of yesterday contained the following:

Ever since the 9th day of January last Anton and Franz Bodenmiller, two young men who left Mayport, Fla., in a yawlboat, have been missing.

Yesterday Inspector Whitaker received a letter from Mayport signed by A. Greenberg, a merchant at that place and also inquiries about the young men and giving all the details of their departure.

Anton Bodenmiller was a married man, and left a wife and two infant children in destitute circumstances, and naturally they are in despair at the unaccountable and mysterious disappearance of the husband and his brother.

It appears that Anton and his brother, Franz, were venturesome spirits, and as the uniform of one of them would indicate, he was a cadet in the German navy, and, therefore, loved the sea and its dangers. On the 9th of January last these two young men provisioned a twenty-three foot yawlboat named Monarch of Liverpool, and set sail for Salt Mine, La., enroute to Galveston, which was to be their ultimate destination. From the time they left port nothing more has been heard of them.

Mr. Greenberg writes that some time during February last two young men were picked up on the Louisiana coast, but he received no description of these, nor any information which would identify them with the two missing young men. He was of the impression these were the two young men, and in order to corroborate this he sent the photographs here. Anton had some deeds for property with him, by which he might be identified, and there were certain marks by which they might be recognized. The middle finger of Anton's left hand was stiff, and between the thumb and first finger of the hand an anchor had been pricked into the skin with India ink, and on one of his arms, between the wrist and the elbow, he had a scar caused by the cat of an ax. Franz Bodenmiller had a scar over his right eye.

The wife and her two little ones are anxiously awaiting some information relative to the two missing men.

SOUTH FLORIDA
SNAKE STORY

MIAMI CITIZEN RELATES PECU-LIAR EXPERIENCE WITH SNAKE SWALLOWING
HEN.

"Did you ever eat a snake egg?" asked the voluble Miami citizen of a Metropolis reporter to-day. "Well, I never did, either, but I am afraid to tackle the hen fruit at my house now for a while," and the reporter invited him to explain further, says the Miami Metropolis.

"You see, it was this way. We keep a few hens in our back yard, not for profit, but just to be able to have a few eggs which have not become a part of ancient history. I have calculated that the eggs cost me about $3.87 a dozen, but as I keep the hens shut up in a yard and keep the pen reasonably clean, the neighbors have as yet no objections.

"Well, we also have a cat at our house. Just a common black cat which hunts a little at times, but spends the greater share of its eating and sleeping on the front porch. The other day this cat got an industrious streak on and caught a small snake about eighteen inches long, and not having much of an appetite just then he left it after he had killed it, out in the fowl yard. My wife went out to see if any of those golden eggs had been laid that day, and saw one of her pet Plymouth Rocks in an apparently distressed state of mind. Looking closer she observed the hen had found the dead snake and had suddenly developed an appetite for the meat. She started at that snake head first, that is, the hen's head and the snake's head too. The old hen would swallow a couple of inches of snake and then give a croaking noise. Then more snake would disappear, while the cat, which was also a spectator, would look appealingly at my wife and then at the hen. The last six inches of that snake seemed to be about as difficult to the old biddy as a compound cathartic pill is to a small boy, but it went down, and the hen walked deliberately up to the trough and took a chaser.

"We looked for a dead hen in the yard the next morning, but instead, found an extra egg. Now, what do you think of that?"

The reporter respectfully declined an invitation to accompany the gentleman to his house to partake of an egg flip.
