

Received Callers On 90th Birthday

Mrs. Phoebe Amelia Pratt Observes
90th Anniversary of Her Birth at Her Home in Chelsea, Mass.

MRS. PRATT.

Says She is in Excellent Health and Feels as Vigorous as a Girl. Due to the Use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mrs. Phoebe Amelia Pratt, widow of William Pratt, yesterday celebrated her ninety-ninth birthday anniversary at her home, 166 Broadway, Chelsea, Mass. A reception was held from two to six, during which the old lady received numerous callers and was the recipient of many presents. She was assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt, of Stoughton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Pratt, of Chelsea; Mrs. Eugene Pratt, two of her grandchildren, Chester and William Pratt, of Chelsea, and Ida and Mabel Pratt, of Stoughton.

The reception was planned by her relatives and the members of the First Baptist Church of Chelsea, of which she is a member.

During the summer Mrs. Pratt wrote:—"Gentlemen—I am now almost 91 years of age and in excellent health, owing to the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Catarrh of the throat troubled me for four years, and I tried many remedies, without any benefit, until a friend induced me to try Duffy's Malt Whiskey.

My general condition was very poor also until I used Duffy's, but I am very glad to state that since using this grand medicine the catarrh has left me, my general health is better than it has been for years, and I know that it has prolonged my life. I most certainly would not be without it."

This letter of Mrs. Pratt was taken at random from among thousands received from men and women who gratefully thank Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for their wonderful freedom from disease and for their marvelous old age. More are published in a booklet, which you may have free by writing. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a gentle, soothing, tonic-stimulant, which replaces the weakened, diseased tissues, tones up the nerves, strengthens the heart, makes digestion and nutrition perfect. It purifies the blood and regulates the circulation so that every organ is made to do its work perfectly and fully, keeping the whole system in vigorous health and lengthening the days far beyond the century. Every testimonial is published in good faith and guaranteed.

Like all good things, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is imitated by unscrupulous dealers. Accept nothing but the genuine, which is guaranteed absolutely pure and without fusel oil. It's sold by reliable druggists and grocers everywhere; $1.00 a bottle. You will know it by the "Old Chemist" trade-mark on the label. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Seen, Heard and Done Among Those Who Go, Come and Tarry—Women and Society, Here and Elsewhere

CAMP NOMUSKEETE HAS ROMANCE AND PASS WORD.

There are so many jolly campers enjoying outdoor life these bright June days that it is evident they are all pleasantly located. But, there is a party near the life saving station who believe they are "IT"—that no other combination of company, location and eceteras are comparable to theirs.

They named their camp "Nomuskeete" because in the whole two weeks of their stay they have neither seen nor heard nor felt Amos Quito the torment of some locations.

They have a password that opens, not only the doors to all their hearts but all the boxes, cases and original packages kept under lock and key. And—now listen, and promise faithfully to never tell that The Journal told you—it is "Aimee," spoken very softly and tenderly on the beach as the evening star first appears.

The location is on top of a "hill" with a breeze from Gulf or Bay at all of the twenty-four hours. And—she—now—for goodness sake—don't breathe it, but—they do say there'll be a wedding in camp before the "break up" and return to the mainland next week.

In the party are Mr. A. F. Miller, Mr. J. B. Davis, Mr. O. R. Brown, Mr. W. W. Gilmartin, Mr. Frank Spiese, Mr. William T. Miller and Mr. W. Bergan of West Point (N. Y.) Military Academy who are spending their vacation here; Mr. Dave Kinzie of California.

Also Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Foreman, and Masters George and Hubert Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kirby and Miss Flo Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Merrill, Mrs. F. R. Post, Misses Irma and Capicola Post, Misses Adeline, Florence, Claudia and Mamie Miller of Lake City, Fla.; Miss Katherine Clute of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Sadie Stockard and Miss Cecil Childers.

RATHBONE SISTERS PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Rathbone Sisters, Magnolia Temple No. 4 will have a public installation of officers Friday night, which is attracting much favorable attention and promises to be the biggest affair in the history of Magnolia Temple.

Aside from the fraternal interest manifested the social side of the event and the culinary fame of the "Sisters" are also attracting those who know, and the event is likely to break "No. 4's" own record, as a social-official success.

THE SANDERS-STROTHER SUNDAY WEDDING.

There was a quiet home wedding Sunday afternoon at the residence of the bride on Big Bayou, when Miss Blanche Strother and Mr. George Sanders were united in marriage at half past two, Rev. D. A. Brady of Warington officiating.

The rooms were prettily decorated and the first to enter were Mr. James Bennett, the groomsmen escorting Miss Onie Sanders, the bride's maid. The maid wore an elaborately shirred white silk tissue and carried bridesmaid roses.

The flower girl Miss Alice Strother preceded the happy couple the bride entering on the arm of the bridegroom, was becomingly gowned in white silk tissue and carried bride roses.

After the ceremony and informal reception, a delicious supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders will reside for the present with the bride's parents on Big Bayou but later will go to their home in Milton where Mr. Sanders has had remodeled for his attractive bride.

CONNOR-TURTON CHURCH WEDDING.

The announcement in The Journal yesterday that Miss Mary J. Connor and Mr. George W. Turton Jr., would be married in St. Michael church at 11:30 was a great surprise to all but the most intimate friends of the happy young couple, and attracted a church full of friends and admirers to witness the ceremony, the services being celebrated by Rev. Father Pullerton.

The decorations were simple in white flowers and growing green that had a charmingly cool effect very grateful to the eyes.

The large assembly was treated to the most delightful organ recital by Mrs. M. A. Berkwith the accomplished organist, preceding the arrival of the bridal party, as will be seen by the following program:

- 1. "Mighty Jehovah"—Organ transcription.

- 2. "Fleur de Lys"—Organ voluntary.
- 3. "Wedding March from 'Les Huguenots'—(Meyerbeer.)

As the bridal party entered to the stately march, "Des Flambeaux," (Clarke), every eye was turned in expectation.

The groom was attended by Mr. H. Lee Bell as best man and the bride was preceded by her maid of honor Miss May Bell becomingly gowned in soft, clinging white and wearing a large white picture hat.

The bride entered on the arm of Mr. George W. Turton, Sr. who gave her away and they were one of the handsomest couples who have figured at a wedding in St. Michael for many a day. She is a beautiful woman of the fair brunette type and wore an extremely becoming blue and white silk, and a large white picture hat with a touch of blue.

During the ceremony the organ whispered "Annie Laurie" an especial favorite of the bride.

As the bridal procession retired to Mendelssohn's immortal "Wedding March" the joyous strains changed to the tender notes of "Call Me Thine Own."

Mr. and Mrs. Turton left on the noon train for a brief honeymoon trip and on their return will be tendered a large reception at the home of the bride 300 East Government street.

A SUNNY FRAGMENT.

The presence in this city of Mrs. W. A. Emmons of St. Andrews Bay recalled a sunny fragment that was called from "Sunshine" some time ago and illustrates the principal the Sunshiners work upon. It is as follows: "Those shall laugh who seldom laugh before. And those who always laugh shall laugh some more."

FOR—

"The thing that goes the farthest towards making life worth while. That costs the least and does the most. It's full of worth and goodness, too, with many kindnesses; it's worth a million dollars, and it doesn't cost a cent."

- To love.
- To be loved.
- To be told so sometimes.
- To have something to do.
- To be dealt with sincerely.
- To be sympathetically understood.
- To be praised once in a while.
- To have her judgment respected.
- To inspire both passion and reverence in the same man.
- To have a great, big-hearted boss who will let her have her own way until she is in danger of making a fool of herself, and then curb her gently.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Miss Lillian Muller and Mr. Ed Reilly will be married this morning at 11:30 in St. Michael church, and will leave on the noon train on their honeymoon trip.

The slight fall in the mercury and the delightful breeze last night made the dance at the Country Club more attractive and enjoyable than would have been probable any recently preceding evening and those present had a very pleasant evening, thanks to the hostesses.

Miss Virgie Kleusmeir and Miss Maude Duncan have returned from Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Quina 415 East Gregory, are the happy parents of a fine girl born Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Peacock of Atlanta is visiting her sister Mrs. C. Ray Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jennings leave this morning for Tallahassee where Mr. Jennings goes on business. From the capital Mrs. Jennings goes to her old home in Georgia to spend a month or two.

Miss Cora Coleman left last evening for "Whippoorwill Camp" on Escambia Bay three miles north of Mulat.

The friends of Mrs. J. M. Anderson formerly of this city will be glad to learn she has returned from Scranton, Miss., and with her mother Mrs. M. A. Irwin is the guest of Mrs. V. Holsten and family.

SCHOOL BOARD HELD MEETING

AND ELECTED PROF. J. B. LOCKEY
PRINCIPAL OF PUBLIC SCHOOL No. 1.

The County Board of Public Instruction held a special session Monday afternoon and discussed the question of the schools for the coming season. All members were present, with Chairman Clubs presiding.

About the only business of importance transacted was that of electing Prof. J. B. Lockey principal of public school No. 1. Prof. Lockey served during the past term in a most acceptable and competent manner, and the board honored him with re-election.

Owing to the fact that the board could not at present ascertain what finances would be derived during the year from the county and state, but few other teachers were appointed, the members desiring to defer this portion of the business until another meeting.

SMALL CHILDREN DROWNED IN BAYOU CHICO

sons were on the beach and in the bayou searching for the bodies which they felt sure after seeing the clothing, were at the bottom of the bayou.

First One Found.

Philip Peake, who had been out floundering, and who had a light with him, found the body of the oldest girl, it was within a short distance of the shore. The body was hastily carried ashore, and the search continued for the remaining two.

The searching party continued dragging the bayou for the bodies of the two remaining children, but up to an early hour this morning they had not been found.

The accident, which snatched away three young lives, was universally deplored all over the city, and especially in the neighborhood in which the family resides. It was probably the worst that has occurred on the bayou within the past twenty years, and the parents of the children have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

The search for the missing bodies will continue throughout to-day and until they are found.

It was stated last night that Tommie, the youngest of the children, had only reached the age of seven years, and that Nora, his sister, was only a few years his senior.

Some persons last night, who heard of the drowning, advanced the theory that the children had been carried off by an undertow, but others stated that no such thing as an undertow had ever been known in the bayou, especially at a point nearly a mile from the bay.

Judge Landrum was notified of the accident and of the finding of one of the bodies and left shortly after midnight for the scene in order to view the remains.

Later Accounts.

Early this morning Judge Landrum and others who had gone to the scene, returned to the city. It was then learned that from indications the two younger children had gone on the south side of Emma's point, instead of the north side, where the water is shallow. On the south side of the point the water is shallow for some distance, when it suddenly becomes very deep, probably ten feet in depth, and it is supposed the young people were not aware of this fact and waded over into the deep water. The older of the children, from the evidence, must have been upon the beach and hearing the cries of the others or assistance rushed towards them. This was shown by the tracks upon the beach, the length between the footprints being such as to show that she was running towards the water very fast. It is supposed that she plunged into the water and with the others drowned.

The neighbors and others who spent all the early portion of the night in searching for the bodies were still at work at 2 o'clock this morning, and for fear that the tide might carry the bodies out, fishing nets were spread over that portion of the bayou where it is thought the bodies lie.

Single and Double.

"This," said the man who was showing the stranger around the city, as he pointed to a broad stretch of beach, "belongs to old Bigsput. It's all made land. That's his house back there on the left."

"Is that on made land, too?" asked the stranger.

"No. That's on married land. He got it with his wife."—Chicago Tribune.
