SWITCHMEN GET RAISE

FOREMEN OF L. & N. YARDS GET 10 PER CENT INCREASE AND SWITCHMEN HAVE SALARIES RAISED 5 PER CENT.

The foremen and switchmen in the yards of the Louisville and Nashville are congratulating themselves over the increase in salary which they have just received. The order for the increase reached Pensacola a few days ago.

The increase in salary amounts to about 10 per cent for yard foremen and about 5 per cent for switchmen. This dates from June 1, and foremen are now receiving $2.30 per day, while white switchmen get $1.75 and colored $1.70. The yard clerks, as well as those employed in the office of the yardmaster also get a 10 per cent raise.

This makes the second increase to be given the men in this department during the past two years. During the past year the work in the yards has been done in a manner which called for an increase of salaries, inasmuch as it was done at a less cost than at any other point, considering the amount of business done.

MANY TRAINS WERE CROWDED

VISITORS TO THE O. R. C. PICNIC CAME HERE IN LARGE NUMBERS YESTERDAY.

Visitors in large numbers came to the city yesterday in order to spend a day in the Deep Water City, the occasion being the annual picnic of the Order of Railway Conductors, which was given yesterday at Magnolia Bluff.

The crowd was a very large one, the total number of tickets to be taken up being 751. But for the inclement weather, which has prevailed for several days in various sections the crowds would no doubt have been much larger.

Compared with the territory covered the number coming from Florida was larger than any other, the train arriving from there bringing 161 passengers. The special excursion from the P. & A. was comfortably filled, having on board 315 passengers, while the excursion from Selma had 275.

The visitors spent the day about the city and on the bay, attending the picnic in the afternoon and night. While a number of them returned last night their tickets are good for two days on any regular train, and many of them will remain until tonight and tomorrow morning.

TWO HANGED IN PENNSYLVANIA

By Associated Press. Lancaster, Pa., June 29.—Lee Furman and John O'Brien were hanged today for the killing of Samuel Ressler, an aged toll-gate keeper, on the night of July 1, 1904.

Furman and a man named Craig after shooting and slightly injuring several persons at Gordonsville, near here, were pursued by citizens. Craig was captured and sentenced to 20 years in prison, but Furman and O'Brien escaped. They reached the Ressler toll house after dark. Ressler answered their knock and as he opened the door he was seized, dragged from the house and shot. Mrs. Ressler escaped through a window and gave the alarm. The men robbed the house of a small amount of money and escaped. They were arrested ten days later in Norfolk, Va., while stealing a ride on a train and identified as the Ressler murderers. Furman was twenty-two years old and his home was in Trenton, N. J. O'Brien's home was in Baltimore and he was twenty-five years of age.

WEST ELECTED BY GEORGIA SENATE

By Associated Press. Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—W. S. West of the Sixth senatorial district, of Valdosta, Lowndes county, was elected president of the Georgia senate on the thirty-first ballot today.

Governor Joseph M. Terrell's message was read to both houses of the general assembly.

SURVIVORS AT MADAGASCAR

By Associated Press. Port Louis, Island of Mauritius, June 29.—The Russian transport Anadyr has arrived at Diego Suarez, Madagascar with some of the survivors of the Russian battleship Orel, which was captured by the Japanese during the battle of the sea of Japan.

The Indian believes there are boa constrictors in the streams of North America and also that the South American tapir lives in North America. He calls the boa constrictor the iste-ach-war-nayer and calls the tapir nocas-olmer.

The Indian believes he has a cure and preventive for rabies, or hydrophobia. He also believes he can cure any snake bite on earth, from a ground rattler to a velvet tail or diamond rattler. An Indian never was known to go mad from dog bite or die from a rattler's bite, while other races succumb to the venom of a snake or go mad from the bite of a rabid dog.

The Indian when in battle and fatally wounded believes that if his medicine man can reach him with his bitter medicine before he dies it will give him instant relief and he will be able to escape from the battlefield. He thinks every man is honest until he finds him out, in which event he loses all confidence in him and never gets over it.

The Indian never makes up after falling out with any one. He may speak to an enemy as he passes, but dies with the hatred in his heart.—Eufaula Journal.

Wifely Solicitude. "Doctor, my husband is dreadfully troubled with sleeplessness. What is good for it?" "You might try reading him to sleep, madam."

"What would be the use of that, doctor? I try to talk him to sleep every night, and it doesn't do a bit of good."—Chicago Tribune.

A Prescription. Doctor—I don't think it is anything very serious, but you will have to stay in bed at least two weeks. Patient—Say, doctor, do you know that this is a four dollar a day hotel? Doctor—Yes, I'm a friend of the proprietor.—New York Times.

PRETTY WEDDING AT APALACHICOLA

EDITOR JONES, OF CHIPLEY BANNER, AND MISS GRACE HARDING MARRIED WEDNESDAY.

Special to The Journal. Apalachicola, June 29.—One of the prettiest home weddings ever witnessed here was that which united Mr. W. W. Jones, editor of the Chipley Banner, and Miss Grace Harding, of this city, in marriage at the home of the bride's mother Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

No invitations were issued and only a limited number of the most intimate friends of the bride's family were present.

The east and west parlors of the Harding home were tastefully decorated in ferns, bamboo, palms and flowers, and under an arch of flowers and evergreens, between the two parlors, the young couple were married at the home above mentioned, the ceremony being most impressively performed by Rev. F. W. Cramer, of Tallahassee.

The bride is one of the most lovable young ladies that Apalachicola has ever produced and her popularity among the friends she was leaving was attested by the large number of beautiful presents.

After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served and the young couple received the congratulations of the assembled friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left Thursday morning on the steamer "Crescent City" for Carrabelle, from which point they will make an extensive tour through the west, taking in Yellowstone Park, Pike's Peak and other points of interest, after which they will be at home at the Hotel Escambia in Pensacola. These young people are deservedly popular, and the best wishes of a host of friends accompany them to their new home.

BODY WILL REACH HERE TODAY FOR BURIAL

The remains of Joseph Haines, of Andalusia, a brother-in-law of Manager McClellan of the Postal Telegraph Co., will reach the city this morning, coming from Andalusia, where he expired Tuesday.

The deceased had been married only about three months since, and was stricken with typhoid fever about a month ago. The remains will reach here at 5 o'clock this morning and the interment will occur this afternoon in the Warrington cemetery.

ENGINES COLLIDE NEAR PERDIDO STATION

Two engines, one hauling a number of cars of the Terminal Company and the other switching some cars on the line of the Perdido road, collided shortly after 12 o'clock yesterday afternoon near the Perdido station.

At that point the tracks cross. Both engines saw the impending collision, but were unable to stop the engines in time to prevent it. The small engine used on the dummy line was damaged to some extent, but no one was injured.

There will be a meeting of the Structural Trade Alliance at Central Trade Hall, Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. All delegates are requested to attend.

Feed Is More Than Breed

THE right feed will convert the veriest scrub into a paying animal. Add SURENE Dairy Feed to the present ration. Note the immediate gain in milk and the improved appearance of the cow. The extra milk more than pays for the feed, while the evidence of better health indicates the complete assimilation of SURENE Dairy Feed and a greater utilization of the ration. It's the business end of the ration. A trial will convince.

POSSE STILL AFTER NEGRO

AT ONE TIME CHIPLEY OFFICERS WERE CLOSE ON TRAIL OF WOULD-BE ASSASSIN OF MARSHAL WATSON.

Special to The Journal. Chipley, June 29.—The posse in pursuit of Dock Peterson, the negro who shot Marshal Watson here yesterday afternoon, has so far been unable to capture the criminal, although the members have not given up the chase. At one time to-day it was thought the posse was within twenty minutes' run of the negro but just at that time a heavy rain began to fall, and the bloodhounds, which were being used to follow the trail of the negro, were unable to continue. The posse, however, is still at work and it is expected that the negro will be captured.

Marshal Watson is in a very critical condition. His entire body is paralyzed from the wound, and it is not expected that he will survive. The excitement has not subsided among the citizens, and it is anticipated that a lynching cannot be prevented if the negro is brought here.

The Glass of Fashion

"Whenever you're puffed up like a toad and happen to be thinking pretty well of your personal appearance," muttered the man about town as he tried to remove a permanent spot from the sleeve of his coat, "just step into a high priced tailor's and survey yourself in a couple of those long mirrors they have—pier glasses, I think they call them—that show you up fore and aft." You'll come out with a chastened spirit. I don't know what it is about the deadly polished surface of those reflectors, but I do know that they're more than half tempted to throw a brick at them and clean out the shop. They make you look as if you'd never been shaved, as if the hair on your neck had been growing in riotous profusion since childhood, as if your hands weren't any too clean and as if your clothes had been made by mother while you waited. And if you're trying on a garment they're fashioning for you, although it's covered with pins, basting and chalk marks, the contrast between the thing and the trousers and shoes you're wearing makes you wish you were in a skirt with a train to it. As I said, I don't know just how to explain the effect produced. I've a notion it's a trick of the trade to drive you to ordering a brand new outfit. It generally sends me into a Turkish bath.—Providence Journal.

To transfer an old oil painting to a new canvas is a branch of art that calls for a union of mechanical skill and talent. There are not many men in the business. It is an entirely distinct work from renovating a cracked or mutilated painting. Transferring a painting from an old canvas to a new one requires years of experience to accomplish the simplest part of it. After the picture has been removed from its frame several layers of fine tissue paper are pasted firmly across the surface. When the paper is dry the back of the canvas is made thoroughly wet. Thread by thread it is picked away until nothing remains but the paint, which is fast to the tissue paper. A new canvas is then mounted and glued to the back of the picture. When the glue is dry the tissue paper is moistened and gently removed from the surface. A little cleaning and retouching by a skilled hand make the work complete.

An amusing episode in politics is vouched for by a minister of religion as having occurred near Gillingham, England. A lady canvasser for one of the local candidates called at a house, found that the voter was out and inquired of the wife, "You think he will vote for my candidate, do you not?" "Indeed he won't," replied the woman. "He has been promised a new pair of trousers if he votes for the other man."

The lady canvasser scented a petition for bribery, produced a sovereign and said, "I will give you this if you will tell me who made your husband that promise."

"Certainly I will," said the voter's wife as she pocketed the money. "I promised him them myself."

Andrew Lang's Childhood. Andrew Lang recorded this concerning his childhood: "A nursery legend tells that I was wont to arrange six open books on six chairs and go from one to the other, perusing them by turns. No doubt this was what people call 'desultory reading,' but I did not hear the criticism till later and then too often for my comfort. Memory holds a picture, more vivid than most, of a small boy reading the 'Midsummer Night's Dream' by firelight, in a room where candles were lit and some one touched a piano and a young man and a girl were playing chess—the fairies seemed to come out of Shakespeare's dream into the music and the sunlight. At that moment I think that I was happy; it seemed an enchanted glimpse of fairyland and paradise. Nothing resembling it remains to me out of all the years."

If a person determines early in life that a cheerful disposition is worth having and strives to obtain it, and does so, that person is a success in a far sense of the word. Of course, comparatively few men and women ever stop to think about success in this form, but if they will acquire the habit I will guarantee a larger measure of satisfaction than they may have met with before.—Leigh Mitchell Hodges.

REV. H. E. O'GRADY

Talks to Editor Amniston Evening Star.

Father H. E. O'Grady, the well known missionary priest, who is present the guest of Father Doyle of the rectory, was seen last evening by a reporter of the Evening Star in reference to the wonderful of which he discovered the formula. Father O'Grady gave him a history of the remedy and all the good that had been done by it. And as the reporter was about to leave, Father O'Grady said:

"I wish you would tell the mothers in Anniston, a few miles around Anniston to keep a bottle of this great remedy in their homes and give it to their children when in need of a gentle laxative and liver medicine. There is nothing like it to build up a roadway system."

Rev. H. E. O'Grady is too well known to need an introduction here, being a missionary of national reputation and a brother of Ex-Senator O'Grady, of New York.

Long Life Liver and Kidney Cure

is a positive cure for all liver and kidney troubles. If your liver is healthy you will not be troubled from constipation, indigestion, jaundice, yellow skin, bad breath, and the many other troubles arising from a torpid liver.
