WILL TEST THE JIM CROW LAW

The Jacksonville Metropolis of Saturday says: Constable A. E. Lightbody to-day arrested J. E. Cashen, a colored man, for violating the street car law recently passed by the Florida Legislature.

Cashen, who was formerly a member of the liquor firm of Baxter & Cashen, boarded car No. 79, and seated himself in that portion of the car designated for white people, and declined to move.

H. M. Knauth made the complaint and Cashen was thereupon arrested and taken before Justice of the Peace E. E. Willard.

Cashen secured the services of Wetmore & Purcell, the whole plan being a desire to make a test case of the law, which Wetmore alleges is unconstitutional.

Judge Willard designated Monday week as the date for a hearing of the case, and if he should hold Cashen for the Criminal Court of Record, then it is the purpose of the lawyers to go before Judge Call on a petition of habeas corpus, when the constitutionality of the law will be argued.

Manager Robb, of the Palms, a colored resort on West Bay street, to-day inaugurated a hack line to LaVilla, Oakland and other suburbs, in order to accommodate the colored people who have boycotted the cars since the law became effective.

The Original.
Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox.

PICKPOCKETS HELD UP STREET CAR

By Associated Press.
New York, July 10.—Pickpockets took possession of a Twenty-third street car, and, by locking the rear door, robbed the passengers on the back platform at their leisure. The gang fled into intoxication and jostled the other passengers while relieving them of their valuables. Several of those on the car have reported the loss of watches, pocketbooks and valuable scarf pins.

BIG ADVANCE IN COTTON PRICES

By Associated Press.
New York, July 10.—An advance of more than $2 a bale was recorded in the cotton market here to-day on reports of heavy rains in the west, private advices of crop damage and the belief that the June acreage report of the bureau of statistics had underestimated the percentage of decreases. The movement was accompanied by great activity and excitement. All options in the local market sold over the 11c mark during the first few minutes of trading. October, after opening at 10.85c, advanced to 11.21c, a little more than $2 a bale over the closing figures of Saturday. Other months were equally strong and excited.

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN
DIES AGED 87 YEARS.

By Associated Press.
Tacoma, Wash., July 10.—John Selby, a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars, died today. He was 87 years old. Mr. Selby served under General Zachary Taylor in the battle of Buena Vista and later was with the United States troops operating in Northern Mexico. He was given special work by the government and in recognition of his service received a personal letter of thanks from President Abe Lincoln. The remains will be sent to Jacksonville, Ill., his former home, for interment.

CITY HAS TWO DOG CATCHERS

BOTH APPOINTED YESTERDAY TO HOLD DOWN UNPOPULAR
JOB, VICE JIM POWELL, IN DURANCE.

The city now has two dog catchers in the persons of Rufus Suarez and Jack Malone who were appointed yesterday in place of Jim Powell, who is in durance vile upon the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. The new officials sallied forth yesterday afternoon, but owing to the inclement weather the catch of mongrels was far from good. Better luck is expected to-day when the gentlemen of the wire lasso will get an early start and endeavor to gather in enough dogs to make expenses.

There are about three dozen dogs in the city pound at present and in all probability they will be electrocuted this morning the death dealing apparatus having been installed during yesterday. Chief Schad will probably act as grand high chief executioner.

Several more vigorous kicks are said to have been registered against the methods employed by ex-dog catcher Powell in gathering his canine harvest, one gentleman alleging that Powell entered his yard and caught a dog therein. The new dog-catchers have been warned against similar practices.

MANY CUT AND BRUISED IN PANIC ON BRIDGE CAR

By Associated Press.
New York, July 10.—One man was fatally injured and many other persons cut and bruised in a panic on a surface car on the Brooklyn bridge early to-day, following the blowing out of the fuses in the controller boxes at both ends of the car. The passengers leaped from the car, whose speed was undiminished. Frank Lawrence of Brooklyn, the first to alight, was borne down by others who leaped upon him, and received injuries which will cause his death.

Venice.
Throughout her career Venice inspired in her sons such devotion as passes the patriotism of most peoples. They revered her as queen, they loved her as mother. Although an exclusive oligarchy ruled the state, yet every Venetian felt that Venice belonged to him. St. Mark was the patron equally of doge and dustman. The legend which all believed, the pagans in which even the humblest had his place, sprang out of the heart of the whole people and symbolized the unity which bound all together. And life in Venice, mere physical life, was pleasant to a larger proportion of the inhabitants and during more generations than it has been in any other city. No wonder, therefore, that when Tintoret, the greatest of her painters—in so many respects the greatest of all painters—was commissioned to decorate the vast wall of the hall of the great council, wishing to express the feeling of every Venetian toward his incomparable city, he chose for his subject paradise.—Thayer's "History of Venice."

First Transatlantic Yacht Race.
The three schooners, Henrietta, Vesta and Fleetwing, were the contestants in the first across the ocean yacht race, in 1866, for a stake of $90,000. Those three yachts made the race in the depth of winter, starting from New York harbor on Dec. 11, 1866, and finishing off the Needles a fortnight later, the Henrietta crossing the line on Christmas eve, the Vesta and Fleetwing finishing in the early morning hours of the great holiday.

For and almost the entire length of that 3,000 mile passage they were accompanied by strong westerly winds, heavy seas and alternate squalls of rain, hail and snow. Neither the passengers nor crew were in dry clothes from beginning to end of the race, and they suffered every hardship, barring shipwreck, that could come to any one making the passage in the winter months.

China's National Tree.
The tung-shu, or wood oil, tree is worthily named the national tree of China. It is stately in appearance, with smooth green bark and wide spreading branches, affording a fine shade. It belongs to the euphorbiaceae, or spurge, family, of which the castor oil plant is a member. It bears a fruit resembling a shell bark hickory nut, but as large as a small orange. Each nut contains three triangular seeds similar to small Brazil nuts. The oil is pressed from these seeds, and the refuse is used as a fertilizer. The oil is used principally for polishing wood-work and dressing leather. Considerable quantities are exported. The wood of the tung-shu is used for making musical instruments, fine boxes and the framework of small houses. It is free from the ravages of insects.

An Old Wrestling Match.
The extraordinary custom of wrestling for a bottle prevails at Hallaton, in Leicestershire, England, where the villagers have to brace themselves for action on Easter Monday in order to retain possession of a plot of ground left to them in the good old days. The bottle is a large wooden one, bound round with iron rims, and contains ale. It is thrown on the ground that the men of the neighboring village of Melbourne may try to wrest it from the inhabitants of Hallaton. When the battle is over, the victors drink the contents. The same bottle has done duty for nearly half a century. As a preliminary to the great struggle, two meat pies and two dozen penny loaves are scrambled for.

INSANITY FOR A JAG CURE

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, Ohio, July 10.—Physicians at the City hospital are curing drug and liquor victims, it is said, by making them insane. The cures are effected by hydrobromate of hyoscin. On admission the patient is given a hot bath and carefully examined. Next day he is dosed with calomel for eight hours. Then the initial injection of Hyoscin placed under the skin with a needle, is given. No symptoms ordinarily follow the first dose. The others follow in from half an hour to two hours, and in some cases the dose has to be increased to bring about the symptoms of dryness of the throat, flushing of the face, dilation of the pupils of the eyes, restlessness and then delirium. The onset of these symptoms in every case marks the crisis in the craving for the drug.

If the patient is allowed to emerge from the influence of the treatment the distress accompanying the craving is noticed. So the hyoscin treatment is continued for the full period of seventy-two hours, or three days.

During the time a delirium, usually of a mild but busy variety, manifests itself. In this the patient bustles himself picking at imaginary objects, throwing bed clothes on the floor, overturning furniture in his search for insects and animals he imagines to be in the room. Usually he is tractable and obedient to suggestions, so he can be controlled by turning his thoughts into other channels without force. Some patients, however, become wildly violent.

Well Guarded Girls.

In New Guinea parents send their daughters to bed in a little house at the top of a tree every night, and when the girls have gone up the ladder is removed, so that there is no coming down till the parents allow it. Elopements under these circumstances must be difficult, and parents no doubt sleep the sounder for knowing that their girls are unable to take their walks abroad until their elders see fit for them to do so.—London Lady.

The Mantle of Charity.

The lady was making some remarks about the kind of clothing some other ladies at church had on.

"The finest garment a woman can wear," said her husband, "is the mantle of charity."

"Yes," she snapped, "and it is above, the only dress, judging by the furs they make over the bills, that some husbands want their wives to wear."—New York Telegram.

Case.

Prosecutor (examining talesmen)—Have you ever known the prisoner of his counsel? Talesman—Yes. His counsel gave me some advice once in a lawsuit. Prosecutor—You are excused. You would evidently sympathize with the prisoner.—Life.

COLORED GIRL FOUND A FORTUNE

By Associated Press.
Butte, Mont., July 10.—Nannie Brown, an 18-year-old colored domestic while searching for a stray cow near Homestake, a half mile east of Butte, stumbled into a gopher hole in which the gold fairly glittered. The girl carried the sparkling rock home and assays in Butte by a number of reputable assayers show that the rock carries over $1,000 in gold to the ton. The domestic led her employers to the hole and the whole country was at once staked off, the locaters being Con Conking, S. W. Brown, Al Stevens and the Brown girl, who was given an equal share.

Two shafts have been sunk thirty feet, revealing two large gold leads in which the free gold can be easily seen. About $6,000 worth of rock is in sight already and excitement runs high over the discovery.

James Brown, formerly city editor of the Butte Intermountain here, located a claim 100 feet to the side of the gold leads, but later abandoned the property, missing the gold vein, which the burrowing gopher revealed to the negro girl.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY ON OHIO RIVER

By Associated Press.
Huntington, W. Va., July 10.—The finding of the body of an unknown man in the river below the city this afternoon causes the officials here to believe that an awful tragedy has occurred.

Two days ago an unknown man in a boat called at a family boat just above this city and asked Emma Gardner to take a ride with him. The woman consented. She never returned. The boat was caught later floating near the Ohio shore, three miles below here. The man and woman were nowhere to be seen.

The floater is said to be that of the man who started with the woman for the boat ride. What became of the woman is the question that is baffling the police, but the presence of a huge gash on the left side of the man's head leads the officers to believe that both were murdered.

WIND VELOCITY WAS 25 MILES AN HOUR.

During the storm yesterday afternoon the wind reached a velocity of 25 miles per hour and at one time a squall passed across the bay and over that portion of the city lying between Alcaniz street and Bayou Texar at a much higher speed, causing branches to break from several trees and bending many smaller ones to an angle of nearly 45 degrees. Fortunately it passed over within a few minutes and but little damage was done. On the bay the squall kicked up a heavy sea, but no damage was reported.

POSITIONS ON

The length of service is estimated at something over eight years. Medical attendance will be provided by the commission if necessary and accommodations will also be furnished employees at a nominal rate. Free transportation will be given to the Isthmus and employees will be given leave of absence for six weeks with full pay who have served satisfactory for eight months. Full information may be secured by addressing the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

MANY DIE FROM HEAT IN ITALY

New York, July 10.—Telegrams from prefects of provinces to the Italian minister of the interior announce a great number of fatalities due to the heat, according to a Rome dispatch to the Herald. In the province of Alessandria, Piedmont, there were sixty-eight cases of sunstroke and twelve deaths. At Messina twelve sunstrokes and two deaths, and at Bari eight sunstrokes and two deaths. A Berlin dispatch states: "The record-breaking heat is paralyzing all branches of trade. The schools are closed and two hundred persons left the city for cool summer resorts."

The MICROSCOPE.
Proves That Parasites Cause Hair Loss.

Nine-tenths of the diseases of the scalp and hair are caused by parasitic germs. The importance of this discovery by Professor Unna, of the Charly Hospital, Hamburg, Germany, can not be overestimated. It explains why ordinary hair preparations, even of the most expensive character fail to cure dandruff; because they do not, and they can not kill the dandruff germ. The only hair preparation in the world that positively destroys the dandruff parasites that burrow up the scalp into scales called scurf or dandruff, is Newbro's Herpicide. In addition to its destroying the dandruff germ Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.
