WHY?

Why, muver, why Did God pin the stars up so tight in the sky?
Why did the cow jump right over the moon?
An' why did the dish run away with the spoon?
'Cause didn't he like it to see the cow fly?
Why, muver, why?

Why, muver, why
Can't little boys jump to the moon
if they try?
An' why can't they swim just like fishes and fings?
An' why does the live little birdies
have wings?
An' live little boys have to wait till they die?
Why, muver, why?

Why, muver, why
Was all of yose blackbirds all baked in a pie?
Why couldn't we have one if I should say "please"?
An' why should I worry when little boys tease?
An' why can't fings never be now-but bimeby?

Why, muver, why?

ARMY AND NAVY NEWS.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. W. C. Wise, U. S. N., and their daughter, Mrs. Arthur L. Fuller, were guests at the Chamberlain Hotel, Fort Monroe, Va., Oct. 7.

Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wife of the Vice President, who has been the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. John W. Timmons, U. S. N., and Mrs. Timmons, at their home in Washington, left this week for Indianapolis.

A wide circle of friends will regret to learn that Capt. John M. Hawley, U. S. N., late in command of the Brooklyn, has been granted a sick leave for three months following a course of treatment at the naval hospital at Chelsea, Mass. Captain Hawley is the owner of a residence in Washington, D. C., No. 1514 R street, N. W., and will remain there during the coming winter. Captain Hawley has been in command of the Brooklyn only since April, 1904.

Lieut. Comdr. Albert L. Key, U. S. N., appointed as naval aide to President Roosevelt, is thus referred to in the Daily Times of Chattanooga, Tenn.: The compliment to the young southerner will be learned with pleasure by his host of friends. He is a representative of two distinguished southern families, his father having won many honors. He attained a high position in the Confederate Army, was postmaster general under President Hayes, and was for many years before his death a Federal judge. Maternally, Lieut. Key comes of the Lenoirs, one of the historic families of Tennessee. Lieut. Fitzhugh Lee and U. S. Grant III, are also stationed in Washington as aides to the Asiatic fleet.—Army and Journal.

The U. S. Iowa, Captain B. F. Bailey, U. S. Navy, is destined to go to the far east during the coming year. It is proposed to relieve that ship from duty with the second division of the first squadron of the North Atlantic fleet as soon as the Rhode Island or the Virginia joins that command. The Iowa will enable the authorities to order the Oregon to the Pacific coast, the latter ship being in great need of repairs. That work is likely to be done at the Puget Sound Naval Station and will require a period of several years. It will probably be at least six months before the Oregon can be relieved from duty with the Asiatic fleet.—Army and Navy Register.

Mr. M. A. Quina has returned from a visit to his family in Atlanta and brought them to Marietta where they will spend several weeks. Mr. Quina is at his Bay Shore residence with Mr. Ed Gale Quina and family.

Mr. Cone clerk in the local freight department of the L. & N., has been confined to his room for several days result of a severe cold contracted during the recent cold spell for which the freight office was unprovided.

Mrs. J. R. Kellar is expected to return from the north about the last of the month.

Mr. Paul Tornoe's friends will be pleased to learn that he is able to sit up in bed and is slowly convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Fulghum and family are in Macon where their daughter Miss Lurline is in college. They leased a furnished cottage there when quarantining was inaugurated and will remain till cold weather.

Mrs. Warren Candler is in Lake City, Fla., visiting her daughter Mrs. Andrew Sled and her new grandson who will be christened Warren Candler in honor of the bishop.—Atlanta News.

Miss Bessie the attractive daughter of Hon. J. Ed. Williams and Mrs. Williams, who was critically ill of yellow fever Friday and Saturday in the Daily Times of Chattanooga, Tenn.: The compliment to the young southerner will be learned with pleasure by his host of friends. He is a representative of two distinguished southern families, his father hav-

The friends of Miss Hazel Atsinger, the young niece of Mrs. C. C.

SHELBY SPRINGS, ALA.

Under New Management.

A delightful resort immune from fever, offers to refugees elegant accommodations and board at $25 per month, $7.50 per week. Everything first-class.

Goodman, were greatly distressed to learn that when she reached Mt. Washington, Md., she had developed diphtheria, presumably contracted on the journey. She was taken at once to St. Agnes convent and put to bed, and a message came yesterday saying that Miss Hazel is happily recovering under the care of the good sisters and will soon be able to take up her studies.

The many friends who attended the funeral of Mrs. D. C. Eltzen yesterday morning and the many beautiful floral offerings laid upon her bier were but a faint expression of the sorrow of all who knew that lovely little woman. General sympathy is felt for her two nephews Mr. Paul Tornoe and Mr. Ulric Eltzen who made their home with her, and for Mr. Gus Eltzen her brother-in-law, between all of whom and Mrs. Eltzen there existed a mutual affection.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cary, baby and Miss Bonifay, the trained nurse, are now in Birmingham.

Mrs. Marion Caldwell and Miss Caldwell who have spent the summer in Kentucky, are now in Greenville, Ala.

Miss Ruby Morris daughter of Mrs. Frank O. Johnson has been quite sick for several days and her family were very anxious but the young lady escaped the fever and is now up, to the relief of their many friends.

Miss Marion Herman, sister of Mrs. Charles H. Bliss has arrived from Ohio and will make her home with Mayor and Mrs. Bliss.

Notice of Meeting.

There will be a regular meeting of Rathbone Lodge, No. 30, K. of P., to-night, Work in Second and Third Rank. All members who can are requested to be present.

Economy in Coal.

Coal is vital. About three big brained men out of 7,000 know the size they require for their furnaces—just about three. The other 6,997 take anything the dealer sends along, regardless of the number of rooms to be heated, size of smoke duct, damper, draft, cold air box, etc. Results: Fifty per cent more coal used than is necessary and not heat enough to go around.

Even the most ordinary intelligence is not applied to the question of coal consumption at home with a view to economy and efficiency. A dealer, looking at my furnace, said, "Egg coal," and delivered fifteen tons. Egg coal! Must have been gauged to ostrich eggs. Some of the lumps were six inches long and nearly three inches in diameter. Three tons of a lump kept the Queen Anne or Elizabeth shack down to about 56 degrees, and as a reinforcement we bought gas radiators. Coal bill $18 a month, gas bill $14. My neighbor after six years of experience and a modicum of brain power used pea coal and had a royal good fire night and day; a ton and a half a month and no gas. His furnace and all of its equipment were exactly like my own. Sense and no sense. In the aggregate vast sums are wasted through ignorance of how to use coal and gas.—New York Press.

A Lesson of Life.

The life of most men will be saddened or lightened by the thing that may chance to befall them. In the men whom I speak of whatever may happen is lit up by their inward life. When you love, it is not your love that forms part of your destiny, but the knowledge of self that you will have found deep down in your love—this it is that will keep you to fashion your life. If you have been deceived it is not the deception that matters, but the forgiveness whereto it gave birth in your soul and the loftiness, wisdom, completeness, of this forgiveness—by these shall your life be steered to destiny's haven of brightness and peace, by these shall your eyes see more clearly than if all men had been faithful. But if by this act of deceit there have not come more simplicity, loftier faith, wider range to your love, then have you been deceived in vain.—Maurice Maeterlinck.

MORE MONEY IS NEEDED FOR FUND

As Expense of Caring for the Sick is Heavy and Funds Are Diminishing.

More money is now badly needed for the relief fund, which is being used in caring for the sick of the city. The work that is being done among the poorer class in furnishing medicines, food and nurses requires a large amount of money. These families would suffer greatly were it not for the assistance being rendered them. The contributions up to the present date are as follows:

BEULAH

Special to The Journal.
Beulah, Oct. 18.—This section was visited by a very bad rain storm last Sunday, October 15th. It is seldom that as much rain falls in so short a time as came down in about two hours during the forenoon of that day. There was a fair attendance at Sunday school as it ceased raining shortly after 12 o'clock, but the clouds looked so threatening that many stayed at home for fear of another deluge. The farmers of this section are digging their sweet potatoes and selling them at the line as fast as possible as they are rotting in the ground badly on account of so much wet weather. The peddlers are only paying 90 cents per bushel now, but what consumers in the city have to pay I do not know.

Mr. Henry Garrett and Mr. A. J. Busby are busy making syrup. They are the only ones that have commenced that I have heard of.

Mrs. Frank Wilson continues to improve but slowly, as she has been a very sick woman. Her father is making her a visit now which will cheer her up and make her convalescence less irksome.

Mrs. A. Watters and family spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Hirst, down on the bay. Mr. Jim Hirst brought them home Monday.

Mrs. Thos. Barrineau of the eight mile was in the settlement Tuesday trying to get pupils for a class in music. By getting the required number she can get a teacher so that her own little girls can have the benefit of taking lessons at home.

COAT AFTER THE MODIFIED EMPIRE DESIGN.

A charming model is somewhat after the modish empire lines. To the yoke over the shoulders the coat is shirred, a panel effect being attained both back and front. That in the back shows a double box pleat, while the front follows a plastron line. The original model is in a pretty shade of red, with handsome black braids and fancy buttons. Shirr
