

Advice to Young Husbands.
If you are a husband, and as such soon expect to become a father, take heed. Before you can realize your fondest dreams it is necessary that great suffering be borne by her whom you love better than yourself; you would do anything in your power to alleviate her suffering, would you not?

Mother's Friend
A liniment of unquestioned value in pregnancy, will wonderfully ease the ordeal through which your wife must pass; it is easily within your power to procure it; surely it cannot be other than your duty to do so. One dollar per bottle at all drug stores. Our valuable book, "Motherhood," is free to all who ask.

JOURNAL'S ARMY IS GROWING RAPIDLY

Many Who Have Been Absent are Returning—Ed. Wheat Gets the Prize Dollar.

The Puzzle Army rallied this week but there are a few, half and blind still lagging in the rear and a lot more who have not yet returned home from their vacation outing.

Ed. Wheat, 518 North Baylen is entitled to the dollar this week, whenever he calls for it at The Journal Office.

Following are the correct answers to last week's puzzles:

- Answers for Nov. 12.
No. 1. Jared Ingersoll.
No. 2. Jonathan Dayton.
No. 3. Gunning Bedford.
No. 4. Abraham Baldwin.
No. 5. Richard Bassett.
No. 6. John Dickinson.
No. 7. Daniel Jenifer, Jr.
No. 8. Roger Sherman.
No. 9. John Blair.

- Tom Hagood, Spartanburg, S. C.
Eloida Jones gives all correct but "No. 6, James Wilson."

- Mildred and Kathleen McKinnon, "No. 10, James Wilson."
Boykin Jones, "No. 10," left blank. All the above were addressed to "Puzzles, Journal, Pensacola, Fla." Improperly Addressed.

Virginia C. Walker, Robert and Anna Booth, Royal Ralston, addressed theirs to "The Journal" and to "The Editor of The Journal" and they went to those departments. The word "Puzzle" was on the corner of the envelope but those busy people have no time to read all that is written—the person who distributes the mail merely glances at the first line of each address and governs himself accordingly.

Malcolm Meyer just addressed his to "Daily Journal," while Gladys Pratt addressed hers to "Mr. Frank L. Mayes, Manager," and both were rescued from the business department where hundreds of letters are received and assorted too rapidly to more than throw aside the puzzles, until convenient to put them in the "puzzle box" where they are placed immediately when properly addressed.

From a number of letters received there is room for only the following short ones:

A Journal Bouquet.
Dear Mr. Puzzle Editor—I don't suppose I will see that dollar this time but I hope my answers are all O. K. I have been thinking how hard and how honestly you all worked for us through the yellow fever time. Mr. Editor I don't see how we could have done without the dear old Journal and I vote for you to have the hearty thanks of everybody, a nice feast and a big holiday. Your little friend, Mery R. Hilburn, Pensacola, Fla.

Thanks, little lady. The Journal readers generally have expressed similar appreciation which is reward that pays big interest on our invested efforts, all the time.

"Dear Puzzle Editor—Since the yellow fever broke out, you lost one of your bravest soldiers, but it is over now and I am going to fight for that dollar. Hoping I win it I am your little soldier, Philip Wittman, Jr., 1618 10th Ave. and 11th St., City.

All right my boy. Glad to find you and trust you will win the battle and the dollar.

Got It At Last.
"Dear Mr. Mayes—Check received for $1.00, many, many thanks. We little Bagdad Puzzlers have been trying a long time for that dollar, but it came at last. We send the puzzles again hope they are right and we will get another dollar. Your little friend, Mr. Carey Stewart Bagdad Fla."

Here is a business like note that is manly enough in tone, to indicate that the writer is indeed a gentleman without the prefix. You are most welcome Mr. Carey. Kind o' thought you were a boy.

"Dear Mr. Mayes—If I do get that old dollar this time just keep it for me till I come, as I will be home by next Sunday. I was glad my little friend Carey Stewart got the dollar last week. We are having such a fine time in the cane, cotton etc., that "we boys" are not anxious to go home only we want to start to school. Glad the fever is over. Hoping you will have the dollar for me. Pebbley Barrow, Geneva, Ala."

"Dear Mr. Puzzle Editor—This is the third time I have sent answers to the puzzles. I hope to see my name in print, even if I don't get the dollar. Bessie Perryman, Crestview, Fla."

CLOTHING IS NEEDED FOR THE WORTHY POOR

As the cold weather approaches numerous appeals are made to The Salvation Army for clothing of every description, and any article of this nature will be thankfully received and donors assured that it will be bestowed only upon the worthy poor. Clothing for women and children is especially needed. If those able to assist will notify Captain Norris, the officer in charge of the local Salvation Army post any articles donated will be gladly called for.
