GRAND RUSH FOR CHRISTMAS DOLLAR

Puzzle Army Charged in Force Upon Last Week's Vegetable Problems.

MISS MAUDE CLARKE, 212 EAST GOVERNMENT STREET, GETS JOURNAL'S PRIZE DOLLAR IN TIME TO PURCHASE GOODIES FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

It is apparent by the many answers received this week, that The Journal's Puzzle Army knows "everything," and it would surely be hard to produce a puzzle which would be too difficult for the members of this charming little band to decipher. How quickly the vegetables in the puzzle pictures turned into real corn, radishes, cabbage, etc., under their bright eyes and brighter minds. From the great bunch of correct answers the name of Maude Clarke, 212 E. Government street was first drawn. Miss Maude's list was printed in a neat, childish hand. The prize dollar is awaiting her call at The Journal office to receive it.

The correct answers to last week's puzzles are as follows:
No. 1.—Corn.
No. 2.—Celery.
No. 3.—Potatoes.
No. 4.—Beans.
No. 5.—Lettuce.
No. 6.—Radish.
No. 7.—Turnips.
No. 8.—Cabbage.
No. 9.—Beets.
No. 10.—Asparagus.

Correct Answers Received.

Here is Bobby's letter to Santa Claus. Or course All little boys at this season are writing letters to Santa Claus and Bobby is no exception. Possibly, though, he is not quite so selfish as some of our little Readers for he not only remembers his father, mother and sister but the cook also. Can you guess the various things which Bobby has asked Santa Claus to bring?

but as it was his first attempt he will no doubt do much better next time.
Mary R. Hibun encloses with her answers a little note to the "puzzle editor" in which she states that would like to win that dollar for Christmas. Just keeping on trying Miss Mary, you have one more chance before Christmas.
Margery McLean, a new recruit of the "Puzzle Army" sends in a correct list accompanied by the following note:
Dear Mr. Puzzle Editor—This is my first time to try the puzzles and I hope they are all correct and that I will get the dollar to spend for Christmas. I will try and be a regular soldier in the army. Yours respectfully, Margery McLean.
As many of the boys and girls are sending letters to Santa Claus this week's puzzles will be very easy to decipher as no doubt nearly all of the little puzzlers will ask Santa Claus in their letters for the same things that "Bobby" has.
