Miss Willie Tiller Gives Party.

A very pretty birthday party was given Tuesday night by Miss Willie Tiller, in celebration of the anniversary of her sixteenth birthday. The house was very tastefully decorated with vines and cut flowers, and the young guests spent a most pleasant evening. Games and music helped the time to pass quickly, after which the guests were invited into the dining room, where a sumptuous spread was in waiting. A big birthday cake formed the centerpiece of the table, and was exceptionally pretty. Miss Tiller received many lovely presents from her friends, which she will keep as pleasant souvenirs of the occasion. Those present were: Miss Mattie O'Brien, Miss Bell Daniels, Miss Lizzie Sholtz, Miss Willie Tiller, Mrs. M. A. Sholtz, Mrs. A. H. Cook, and Messrs. Bairs Condon, Earnest Roach, Edd Marton, Redge Roach, Lawrence Neilson, Johnnie Delmar, Tolson, Bruce Frank Cook, and Master Eddie Sholtz.

Wednesday Social Club Meets.

A social club composed of a number of bright little children of Pensacola, has been formed and christened "the Wednesday Social Club" by its members. The object of the club is for an afternoon each week of enjoyment, the various members being host or hostess in turn. The first thing that the by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists. Lewis Willis, at her lovely home on North Hill. The guests arrived at eleven o'clock and six tables of bridge were played. The highest score was made by Mrs. Campbell Avery, who was awarded the first prize, a lovely gold top comb. The consolation prize was captured by Mrs. R. H. Turner, Jr., a Dresden vase. The guest's prize, a handsome shirt waist pattern, was presented the guest of honor, Mrs. Walker Willis.

Refreshments were served at the commencement of the bridge party, and a very delightful time was spent. The ladies playing bridge were: Mrs. Walker Willis, Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mrs. W. J. Forbes, Mrs. B. Forbes, Mrs. Wilmer Hayward, Mrs. Frank Whiting, Mrs. J. Campbell Avery, Miss Berta Hyer, Miss Cora Brent, Mrs. John C. Avery, Miss Louise Quina, Mrs. R. H. Thursday Euchre Meets With Miss Chipley. The Thursday Euchre Club will be entertained by Miss Elise Chipley for Miss Lizzie McGaughey this morning at eleven o'clock.

Browning Club Meets in March. The Browning Club will not meet this week, as the meeting has been postponed until March the seventh, owing to the many events planned for carnival week.

Progress Club Euchre Party. The Progress Club euchre and dance occurred last night as usual at the club, and with a very good attendance. There were five tables of euchre and after the euchre party a few couples indulged in dancing, after which refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be Wednesday night, as usual.

Mrs. Roch Celebrates Birthday Anniversary. Many friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. M. L. Roch, yesterday to celebrate her birthday anniversary. Every year at this time, this pleasant party meets to congratulate Mrs. Roch and show their great appreciation of her, by making the day a merry one. At dinner Mr. and Mrs. Roch entertained their children and grand-children at a happy family reunion.

The dinner was one to be remembered, as every dainty the market affords was beautifully served. In the afternoon Mrs. Roch entertained with a euchre party in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Simmons, a charming lady of Memphis, who will be here until after the carnival.

There were four tables of bridge, which was played in the pretty parlor, and a delightful presentation. At six o'clock the score was counted, which resulted in Mrs. J. Bleighauer winning the first prize, a cut glass bon-bon dish; Mrs. E. O. Roch the second prize, a pair of embroidered hose; Mrs. Grover Blumer the consolation, a half dozen lovely handkerchiefs. After the score had been counted, the guests were invited into the beautifully appointed dining room, which was almost dazzling in its array of cut glass and silver. The centerpiece of the dining table was a beautiful arrangement, in a beautiful cut glass vase.

Big cakes of pink and white, which carried out the color motif of the room, adorned the table. A delightful salad course was served. Mrs. Hazel Bleighauer assisted by Mrs. Eugene Roch, and Mrs. Trobruk, served at the punch bowl. The dainty little dining room maids were: Miss Gladys Bell, who wore a lovely white frock, with big blue bows of ribbon on her hair; Miss Viola Roch, who looked very sweet in white, with pink ribbons, and Miss Elmir Bell, who was dressed in a dainty white frock with blue ribbons.

Many beautiful presents were received by the hostess who is a general favorite with every one, and many good wishes for other birthdays which would prove as pleasant as this one.

Mrs. Roch's guests were: Mrs. Sidney Bell, Mrs. V. J. Vidal, Mrs. J. Bleighauer, Miss Hazel Bleighauer, Miss Levy, Mrs. Joe Swartz, Mrs. Harry Blumer, Mrs. Grover Blumer, Mrs. Blumer, Mrs. E. O. Roch, Mrs. B. S. Bernard.

Mrs. Forbes Entertains for Miss Aiken. Mrs. W. J. Forbes gave a bridge party yesterday afternoon from three to six o'clock in honor of Miss Sallie Aiken, of New York, the attractive guest of Capt. and Mrs. I. H. Aiken.

There were no decorations used and the party was an informal affair. The pleasant afternoon was spent at bridge, which resulted in Mrs. Frank Whiting making the highest score and winning the first prize, a pretty rhinestone studded comb. The consolation prize was won by Miss Edna Avery, and was a handsome pair of long white gloves. The guest's prize, a gold hat pin, was presented to Miss Aiken.

After the games, refreshments of loes and salads were served. Among those present were: Miss Sallie Aiken, guest of honor; Mrs. Frank Whiting, Mrs. J. Campbell Avery, Mrs. Bleeker Forbes, Mrs. Earle Thornton, Mrs. Walker Willis, Miss Mamie Merritt, Miss Elise Chipley, Miss Lizzie McGaughey, Miss Edna Avery, Miss Lucy Whaley, Miss Belle Whiting, Miss Cora Hunt, Mrs. R. H. Turner, Jr., Mrs. R. M. Cary, Miss Mamie Rosell.

Meeting of Mission Society Postponed.

The social meeting which was to be given by the Woman's Foreign Mission Society of the Gadsden Street Methodist church, Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. E. J. Richards, 221 East Gadsden street, was postponed on account of rain until this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

All members of the society, the associate members, and ladies of the church are cordially invited.

ALWAYS HUNGARY

Ordinary Food Never Satisfied Her. A young lady in Minn. writes of her experience: "After a disheartening struggle for five years against the ill attendant on mal-assimilation of food, I am at last on the high road to recovery, and feel impelled to give credit where it is due.

"Some years ago I had a long illness due to stomach trouble. Every meal I ate caused me either excruciating pain or a dull heavy misery that was even worse. I weighed but 99 lbs. and was almost hopeless as I found that a poorly nourished body means lack of brain power and ambition. "I was always ravenously hungry and while I could not eat the appetizing dishes of the table, I longed for them. That longing is what prompted me to try Grape-Nuts. The food had a flavour that I liked—rich without being heavy. "I left off my daily laxative as I found I did not need it. Grape-Nuts was so easily digested, constipation soon disappeared. I found too, that I did not grow tired of Grape-Nuts and continued to eat it. "It forms my breakfast exclusively and I also eat it with eggs and fruit for my other meals. I have gained 10 pounds in less than a year and that is nothing compared with my gain in strength and courage. "I can now eat a hearty meal which satisfies my appetite and it does not leave me, as formerly, feeling as though I had dined on tacks. "There's a Reason."

McKINNONVILLE.

Special to The Journal. McKinnonville, Feb. 26.—The people of McKinnonville and surrounding country have been held fast in the grasp of the grip for the past two or three weeks, but it seems now to have loosened its hold somewhat.

Mr. Walker, of Atlanta, Ga., was here last week delivering orange trees to purchasers. Our people seem to be greatly interested in the culture of the Satsuma orange, and are engaging in the business as rapidly as time and means will allow.

Mr. A. L. Waters has been staying at his home at Clear Springs, Ala., for the past ten days, where he was called to attend his father's critical illness.
