AMUSEMENTS.

Barnum & Bailey Circus.

The department of surgery and medicine is the principal feature in the care of Barnum and Bailey's zoological collection. George Conklin, with his corps of assistant veterinary surgeons, exercises the utmost vigilance in his daily examination of each cage. Not long ago it was found necessary to remove some ingrowing claws that were setting Princess, the beautiful African lioness, almost frantic with pain.

This required the combined efforts of the entire surgical staff to rope and hold Princess while the operation was being performed. A piece of scantling six by three inches was thrust into the cage to pin the animal in a corner and then a noose was dropped over her head. With one blow of her paw, Princess smashed the stout piece of wood to splinters. Another scantling was thrust in, only to be likewise converted into kindling wood.

While this was going on, ropes were slipped about Princess's neck and body. She was drawn firmly against the bars and, as her feet stuck through them, they were seized and held. In this way the surgeon-chiroprapist was able to go about his work and, in a twinkling, he had snipped off the ingrowing claws.

Elephants, deer and monkeys are docile under the hands of the veterinary surgeon. Some time ago Duchess, a monster elephant, was suffering from rheumatism—an ailment calculated to make anything of flesh and blood irritable. The animal quietly submitted to all the dictates of Mr. Conklin and was bound in hot bandages and swathed in a curious and cumbersome costume. It even consented to have its temperature taken daily.

It is said the menagerie of the Barnum and Bailey greatest show on earth, which exhibits in Pensacola next Monday, contains the rarest and most costly collections of wild animals ever assembled in one group.

"The Gingerbread Man."

A comic opera of delightful quality and unusual merit both in book, lyrics and score, is "The Gingerbread Man," which will be given here Saturday with the original No. 1 company, fresh from a tour of the larger cities, where it has enjoyed unusual success in this, the third year of its presentation.

The reason for this success is obvious. The piece is one of certain merit—first of all for its particularly beautiful music—which, by the way, was composed by A. Baldwin Sloane, who has given us such tuneful compositions as "The Mocking Bird," "Jack and the Bean Stalk," "Sergeant Kitty," "Broadway to Tokio" and "Coming Through the Rye." Mr. Sloane's music is not only tuneful, but it is written in a musicianly style and, although it has a trick of catching the ear, it has "class" which enables its composer to rank with the best that America produces. Mr. Sloane never writes alike, and his themes are so varied that the fault of sameness, so noticeable in many composers, some even who have achieved greatness, is not noticeable. He has no particular style, and musicians familiar with his work are often surprised at the broadness of the field in musical literature. This, as a rule, insures a more successful score, and in "The Gingerbread Man" we find an almost perfect one.

SCIENCE SETTLES IT.

Dandruff is Caused by a Germ That Saps the Hair's Vitality.

It is now a settled fact that dandruff is caused by a germ. Falling hair and baldness are the result of dandruff. Dr. E. J. Beardsley, of Champaign, Ill., got hold of the new hair preparation, Newbro's Herpicide—the only one that kills the dandruff germ. He says: "I used Herpicide for my dandruff and falling hair, and I am well satisfied with the result." Dr. J. T. Fugate, of Urbana, Ill., says: "I have used Herpicide for dandruff with excellent results. I shall prescribe it in my practice." Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. Physicians as well as the general public say so. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

One dollar bottles guaranteed. W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 South Palafox street.

ASSAILANT OF EDW. YNIESTRA IS CONVICTED

ROBERT MOORE, NEGRO, CONFESSES TO ASSAULT AND OFFERS TO PLEAD GUILTY ON PROMISE OF LIGHT SENTENCE. YNIESTRA IS PENSACOLA BOY.

In Mobile yesterday the assailant of Edward Yniestra was convicted of assault with intent to murder. He will get a sentence of not less than 10 years in the coal mines.

The negro said he would plead guilty in case a light sentence was promised him, but the state refused to take such a plea and put such evidence before the jury that conviction followed a session of 15 minutes.

Yniestra was shot by the negro. In noting court proceedings, The Register prints the following:

"Robert Moore, a negro known to the police as 'Steeple Knob,' was the star defendant in the city court yesterday. Moore faced a jury on the charge of assault to murder. After being out less than fifteen minutes, the jury reported a verdict of guilty. Moore will be sentenced to from ten to twenty years in prison Saturday by Judge Semmes.

"A short time ago Edward Yniestra, clerk, 553 Conitt street, was held up and shot by two negroes as he was walking near the corner of Hamilton and St. Francis streets. Yniestra was shot in the hand. At the time of the affair the negroes escaped. The police were notified of the attempted hold-up and as a result of their investigations Moore was arrested. The negro confessed to the crime, and offered to take ten years in prison on condition of a plea of guilty. This the state refused to allow him to do. On the witness stand yesterday 'Steeple Knob' denied in toto his confessions and protested his innocence, but the evidence against him was evidently too strong, for he was found guilty."

SOME HARD KNOCKS

Woman Gets Rid of "Coffee Heart."

The injurious action of Coffee on the heart of many persons is well known by physicians to be caused by caffeine. This is the drug found by chemists in coffee and tea.

A woman suffered a long time with severe heart trouble and finally her doctor told her she must give up coffee, as that was the principal cause of the trouble. She writes:

"My heart was so weak it could not do its work properly. My husband would sometimes have to carry me from the table, and it would seem that I would never breathe again.

The doctor told me that coffee was causing the weakness of my heart. He said I must stop it, but it seemed I could not give it up until I was down in bed with nervous prostration.

For eleven weeks I lay there and suffered. Finally Husband brought home some Postum and I quit coffee and started new and right. Slowly I got well. Now I do not have any headaches, nor those spells with weak heart. We know it is Postum that helped me. The Dr. said the other day, 'I never thought you would be what you are.' I used to weigh 92 pounds and now I weigh 158.

"Postum has done much for me and I would not go back to coffee again for any money, for I believe it would kill me if I kept at it. Postum must be well boiled according to directions on pkg., then it has a rich flavor and with cream is fine."

GRAYS EFFORTS CROWNED WITH GLITTERING SUCCESS, AND UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM FOLLOWS THE REMARKABLE RESULTS REPORTED BY PENSACOLA PEOPLE.

Gray came to Pensacola an entire stranger, and now he numbers friends by the hundreds. There must be a cause for this almost instantaneous popularity. There is. The cause can be given in a few words: "Keeping his promises and proving what he says." When he came here he promised that ere he had been here many days people from this city would be reporting good results, and this they have certainly done. Every day these columns contained the testimonials of local people who had used the wonderful Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm and were cured. Some of the cures reported were simply marvelous and created much excitement. It must be remembered that many others were cured, who did not wish their names to appear in public print. These are facts, and the testimonials published are subject to the most thorough investigation. Therefore, sufferers from rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, indigestion, kidney, liver, stomach or blood troubles should call on Gray and let him explain how these Quaker remedies, composed entirely of herbs, cure and how easy they can be obtained. Gray is fair and liberal. He does not promise impossibilities, but what he does promise he proves. Call on him at Hannah Bros. Drug Store. He can be seen there daily from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. It costs nothing to talk to him. Tape-worms expelled by local people can be seen at the drug store.

If you cannot call on Gray, order the remedies by mail and on receipt of price they will be sent by express, all charges paid. Quaker Extract, $1.00, 3 for $2.50; Oil of Balm, 25c. Gray prescribes express on orders of $3.00 or over. Simply address Quaker Gray, Hannah Bros., No. 17 S. Palafox St. Come and see the free Quaker show every night opposite the drug store. The sale begins at 2 p. m., and every lot is sold to the highest bidder regardless of price. Automobiles will be in waiting to take visitors from North Hill car line at DeSoto street.

HON. D. H. MAYS WELL PLEASED

CONGRESSMAN FROM THE THIRD DISTRICT SAYS FAIR REFLECTS CREDIT ON THE COUNTIES PARTICIPATING.

"Your fair is good, and I am agreeably surprised over the quality and quantity of the exhibits, especially of farm products," said Congressman D. H. Mays to a Journal representative yesterday. "I have been to a great many fairs in Kentucky and other places, but for the first attempt I think the Tri-County Fair exhibits are a credit to the three counties participating."

"I would like very much to see this fair continued from year to year, and I hope that the people will see that this is done. All the agricultural people of this section need a little encouragement to show what they can do and it is such exhibits and gatherings as these that lend that encouragement. Our forests are fast being depleted and it is well that the agricultural resources of the section are being developed."

"Yes, sir, the Tri-County Fair is an unqualified success in my opinion."

Business Meeting

At Y. M. C. A. Tonight

The regular monthly membership business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. is called for tonight at 8 o'clock, the following committees appointed at last month's meeting to report: Committee on ritual, committee on anniversary, and committee on badges.

Messrs. Suarez, Diaz and Basley are to be responsible for the entertainment of the evening, which will be interesting, according to indications. A warm welcome awaits the new members, all of whom are expected to be present, to receive their real introduction into the association.
