"SUCCESS."

A man's failure is sometimes his most conspicuous success. When we have our own will and way about everything we are not infrequently plunged into despair. It is the ship which steadies its course by the north star that safely reaches the harbor, and it is the man who seeks to know the will of God and in all things tries to do it who weathers the storms of life and enters at last into the safe harbor, where buffetings and trials are no more.

INDIRECTION.

Fair are the flowers and the children, but their subtle suggestion is fairer; the roseburst of dawn, but the secret that clasps it is rarer; Sweet the exultance of song, but the strain that precedes it is sweeter; And never was poem yet writ, but the meaning outmastered the meter.

WAS A SOCIAL SUCCESS.

The inauguration yesterday of afternoon tea to be served daily on the mezzanine floor of the San Carlos hotel was a pleasing innovation in the social life of Pensacola. The presence of such a number of our representative ladies indicates that the mezzanine floor with its setting of ferns, restful furnishings and delicate tea service will undoubtedly be the scene of many bridge parties and social gatherings this winter.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Rev. Mr. Eugene R. Pendleton will preside at both services today at the First Baptist church. This morning he will speak on "A Proper Enrichment of Public Worship," and tonight on "The Sweetest Rest There Is." The quartette, composed of Messrs. Phillips, George, Smith and Perry, will sing two fine anthems.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH IS TAG DAY IN PENSACOLA.

"Tag Day" for the Associated Charities has been arranged for Monday, November 28th, when, according to Mayor Reilly's formal proclamation, Pensacola people must prepare to be cheerfully and enthusiastically separated from their spare change for the benefit of sweet charity. This is an excellent idea upon the part of the official board of the Associated Charities, this tag day proposition, for it will be a reminder to any number of well meaning people who would give to charity, but who sometimes forget, don't you see! With the proposition placed squarely before them, as will be the case on the 28th, the way will be made very, very easy indeed.

Right at this time of year, when various cool, chilly breezes make the best of us grumble just now and then,—right now during this time when the Thanksgiving spirit is abroad in the land, should be a most opportune time for charitable impulses and their material expression. The Associated Charities, under the direction of Dr. Hall is an organization which has already demonstrated its true worth to Pensacola. It has looked after any number of important cases, made careful and true estimates of questionable cases.

and has, at all times, been an institution which has been necessary and worthy.

Few people, in fact, realize its wide importance in the city's development. Tag day, remember, is one week from tomorrow, Monday, November 28th.

So save your change!

THE BACHELORS' THANKSGIVING BALL.

An interesting event of Thanksgiving night will be the Thanksgiving ball which is to be given by the Bachelors' club at the K. of C. hall. A number of invitations have been sent, and the dance, like all of the affairs given by the boys, promises to be one of pleasure and interest to all.

DR. S. H. CHESTER AT THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Dr. S. H. Chester, of Nashville, Tenn., will speak at the First Presbyterian church tonight at 7:30 o'clock, his subject to be "Missions." He is spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ferriss, and is one of the most notable of Southern churchmen. His mission work has attracted widespread attention, as he has been unusually successful in this direction.

ARE VISITING MR. AND MRS. W. A. D'ALEMBERT.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Favorite, of Gulfport, are spending a few days in the city. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. D'Alemberte at the San Carlos hotel.

THE MONDAY EUCHRE CLUB.

Mrs. E. F. Bruce will entertain tomorrow afternoon. Her guests are to be the members of the Monday Euchre club.

THE TUESDAY BRIDGE WITH MRS. JONES.

Mrs. John B. Jones will be a hostess of Tuesday. She is to entertain the Tuesday Bridge club.

MRS. SYLVESTER WEEKS WAS HONORED.

Mrs. Sylvester Weeks, past Grand Matron of Florida, Order of the Eastern Star, has returned from Jacksonville, where she was in attendance on the triennial session of the General Grand Chapter, of which she is ex-officio member. There were four hundred members present. The entire United States, including Hawaii and the Philippines, Canada, England, Scotland, Benares and Calcutta in India, British Columbia and Mexico. She was honored in being the orator for the Grand Matron of Florida in presenting to Mrs. Ella S. Washburn, General Grand Matron, a cut glass vase of American Beauty roses, and on behalf of Florida Grand Chapter an exquisite shirt waist to Mrs. Lorraine J. Pitkin, Worthy Grand Secretary. The order numbers about one-half million members and is rapidly increasing. The session for 1913 will be held in Chicago.

MRS. E. A. FERNALD ARRIVES IN THE CITY.

Mrs. E. A. Fernald has arrived in the city from Philadelphia, and will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Frank Taylor, on Jackson street. She is accompanied by Lieutenant and Mrs. Keyes' baby, the parents being abroad this season. Lieutenant R. L. Keyes is chief engineer of the U. S. S. Idaho, which recently arrived in England, and Mrs. Keyes, who was formerly well known in Pensacola society as Miss Fernald, has joined her husband in London. They will also visit France, and have some very interesting plans for the coming months.

DR. M. A. LISCHKOFF IN THE CITY.

Dr. Mozart A. Lischkoff has returned from Palatka, where he has been on business. He is now a leading young physician practicing in New Orleans.

AT THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TODAY.

In the absence of Mrs. McNeill, who is ill, Mrs. Jack Griffith, of the First M. E. choir, will sing with the choir today at the First Presbyterian church, and will also be heard in a solo there this morning. There will be two selections by the choir, the first to be the Cantata Domino by Buck, and the second Schilling's "Nearer My God, to Thee," by Mrs. Sessoms and the choir. Tonight Mrs. Sessoms will sing a solo.

MR. AND MRS. QUARELS ARE AT THE OLD MILL INN.

Mr. and Mrs. Quarels, of Pittsburg, Pa., are guests at the Old Mill Inn. Mr. Quarels is a prominent water-way man, and took an active part in the convention which was recently held at the San Carlos hotel.

THE SHAKESPEARE CLUB WITH MRS. BEAR.

The Shakespeare club will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting this week. Mrs. Morris Bear is to be hostess.

THE NOMADS WILL MEET WITH MRS. ANDERSON.

The Nomads will meet as usual tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walker Anderson, and an interesting afternoon will doubtless result. Earliest American history will be discussed, as the ladies have taken up the history of our native land for this year's study. The following is the program: Roll call. "The New World"—Mrs. Walker Anderson. "Traditional Migrations"—Mrs. Gonzalez.

THE OPENING BALL OF THE PROGRESS CLUB.

On Wednesday night, one of the most elaborate events of the season will be given at the Progress club, which will be the formal opening ball of the season. This will be a full dress affair and some very handsome costumes will mark the event among the wives and daughters of the members. A full orchestra will be in attendance, and the lovely new club rooms are to be brilliantly lighted with special electrical effects. To make the event more interesting, four sweet young debutantes will make their first bow to the social world, who are Miss Clara Frenkel, Miss Ethel Friedman, Miss Wagenheim and Miss

The Spirit of Thanksgiving is Abroad

With Its Many and Various Suggestions to the Busy Housewife.

Table Linen?

Indeed, a most important subject, just now, before the great feast of Thanksgiving comes around once more, with the "festive boards" in view, which nowadays mean handsome and well-appointed tables.

This is the very time of year that we sell the greatest quantity of fine Table Linens to the most successful homekeepers, because the average woman, in replenishing her store, wants to do so when the change will be most effective.

She knows, that after Thanksgiving, comes Christmas; and after Christmas, New Year—times when she and her housekeeping will be pretty well in the limelight of home folks and visitors. So she wisely consults us, and we're always glad and ready to help her.

This year the patterns are extremely artistic and lovely. Our stock comprises all the Irish and German linens, from the cheapest to the best. We've linens from 72 to 90 inches—Napkins in matching sets.

We pride ourselves, too, in our alluring selection this year of styles and figures and patterns, which are unusually beautiful.

We've the new coin spots, the Scotch thistle designs, the tulip, rose bud, snow drop, shamrock, ivy leaf, pansy, and the Grecian border effects.

The effect of these floating bits of loveliness against a sea of foamy whiteness is one which is almost as delightful to us as it is to the best and most expert housekeepers who see them.

Along with table linens come the beautiful Linen Towels for the guest room, Decorative Linens, Scarfs for sideboards, and the Doilies, among which may be found the fringed Doily with the real tied fringe.

All of these splendid numbers come in much the same patterns and quality as the linens of which we have just spoken. They are all extremely desirable and very beautiful.

Another important item, by the way, just now, is the Asbestos Silence Cloth, made in tops to place under your Thanksgiving table cloth, in order to protect your polished table from the heated dishes which will figure in your dinner service.

These tops prevent the unsightly rings and marks from appearing, because heat absolutely cannot penetrate them.

These are merely Thanksgiving hints and suggestions.

We'll be very pleased, indeed, to go further with you into this most interesting and seasonable subject.

EVERYTHING TO WEAR.

A FEAST ROYAL

on Thanksgiving day makes it more generally observed than it would otherwise be—and who can blame us? So many good things here to help the housewife in the preparation of her Thanksgiving dinner that we hesitate to attempt a list, so we just offer a few suggestions, with the further suggestion that what you don't see here, ask for—we have it.

- Plum Pudding, Fruit Cakes, Cranberries, Cranberry Sauce, Mince Meat, Canned Pumpkin, Apple Butter, Olives, Nuts of all kinds, Fine Candies, Asparagus (in glass and tin), Celery, Lettuce, Crystallized Chestnuts, Anchovies in Oil, Olives Stuffed with Anchovies, Roquefort Cheese.

In accordance with our usual custom, we will close all day Thursday—Thanksgiving Day.

Levy. No more fitting coming out time could have been chosen by these charming girls than the first dress ball which it has been the club members' privilege to enjoy in their elaborate new quarters. Wednesday night will be an important one in the history of the Progress club, which, through a series of events which have stretched over the past few years, has been gradually developing and reaching out to its present attainments and delightful prestige.

For the Woman That's Fat. A Detroit physician says that the cheapest and safest mixture a fat woman who wants to get thin can use is 1/2 ounce Marmalin (get it in the original 1/2-ounce package), 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3/4 ounces Peppermint Water. The proper amount to take is a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

These ingredients may be obtained from any druggist at small cost, and make a combination that is not only excellent as a fat reducer, being able, it is claimed, to take off a pound a day without causing wrinkles, but is also a splendid help to the system as a whole.

No falser or lovelier bride has whispered the mystical marriage vows of witching November than the beautiful Miss Kahn, who, in her wedding dress of white satin with over-draping of white chiffon, was the embodiment of youthful charm and grace. The handsome gown was incrustated in pearl trimmings, with real lace garnitures. Her long veil was held in place by a band of gorgeous pearls and sprays of orange blossoms. Her tiny white slippers were of satin, and she carried a dainty white bible. She was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Kahn.
