HON. JNO. P. STOKES ANNOUNCES AS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

Former Member of State Senate and Present State Attorney Will Contest With Emmet Wilson for Seat from Third Congressional District.

JOHN P. STOKES

Elsewhere in The Journal today appears the formal announcement of Hon. John P. Stokes as a candidate for congress from the third congressional district in opposition to the present incumbent, Hon. Emmet Wilson.

It has been known for several weeks that Mr. Stokes contemplated becoming a candidate, but this is his first formal public announcement of his candidacy.

The brief career of Mr. Stokes in politics has been an exceptional one. Yet barely 27 years old, he has served with distinction as a member of the Florida house of representatives and a member of the state senate and he now holds the office of state attorney for this judicial circuit.

Knowing the accustomed vigor and energy with which Mr. Stokes goes about things, it is easy to recognize that the campaign for congress in the third district is going to be a spirited one and particularly as the new candidate and present representative Wilson are both young men, each with a loyal following and each advocating the progressive policies to which the democratic party stands committed.

German Prince Abandons His Sworn Silence to Sound Warning

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Berlin, Nov. 29.—Prince Bernhard von Buelow, formerly German imperial ambassador, today abandoned the silence which he once declared he would maintain until death. He declares, he will continue so long as Frenchmen have the slightest hope of regaining Alsace-Lorraine for their own efforts or with outside assistance.
