THE INEVITABLE.

I like the man who faces what he must
With step triumphant and a heart of cheer,
Who fights the daily battle without fear,
Whose hopes fall, yet keeps unfaltering trust
That God is God—that somehow, true
His plans work out for mortals; not a tear
Is shed when fortune, which the world holds dear,
Falls from his grasp; better with love a crust
Than living in dishonor; envies not
Nor loses faith in man, but does his best,
Nor even murmurs at his humbler lot
But with a smile and words of hope,
Gives zest
To every toiler. He alone is great
Who, by a life heroic, conquers fate.

SATURDAY DINNER-DANCE AND SPECIAL MUSIC AT SAN CARLOS

Last night inaugurated the Saturday night dinner dances at the San Carlos hotel, always a social feature of the winter social life. The San Carlos management has decided to have a special dinner and dance program on both Wednesdays and Saturdays, during the coming season, the San Carlos orchestra to be augmented by several members of the Fort Barrancas orchestra, whose music has been a delightful feature of the week-end at the San Carlos for some time. Mr. C. B. Hervey, manager of the San Carlos, said last night that in addition to the Saturday and Wednesday dinner dances, it is the intention of the hotel to serve afternoon tea on the mezzanine floor of the hotel. This was one of the social pleasures enjoyed last winter, and will add much to the pleasure of the social life. Pensacola will offer a warm welcome to the San Carlos orchestra, which helped to make the past winter more delightful than it otherwise could have been. The director, Miss Elizabeth Hosmer, has made many friends here, as has Miss Clara Ahern, pianist. The violinist, Miss Maud Kimball Payne, will spend her first winter in Pensacola, but the reputation she has gained in the north and west are assurance of her high talents.

Miss Ahern is not only a most sympathetic interpreter of the piano, but her technique is pronounced by critics to be unusual. Miss Hosmer, who was at the Cawthorn one winter before coming to Pensacola, is a highly finished musician and director, and as a flutist, has never been excelled on any program here.

The music of the orchestra will add much to the diversions at the San Carlos during the coming months.

Ensign G. K. Tyner, U. S. N., of the Pensacola Naval Air Station, is visiting in New York City, registered at the Hotel Marselles, where a number of Southerners make their headquarters when in New York. Many were present at the opening last week of the magnificent new dining room which extends the entire length of a block. The decorations were under the direction of Mr. Charles E. Phenix, the new manager of the Marselles, who is famous as a decorator and whose color schemes are novel and exquisite in their beauty.

VISITED RELATIVES AT MUSCOGEE

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilkinson spent the week-end in Muscogee, Fla., as the guest of relatives and friends.

ENTERTAINED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

On the occasion of her birthday, Miss Mildred Bedsole, assisted by her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Reeves, delightfully entertained about twenty-five friends at her home in East Pensacola Heights Friday evening. Various games were played and delicious refreshments served.

The cutting of the large, prettily decorated birthday cake with its burning candles featured the pleasure of the evening and occasioned much merriment. The ring was cut by Miss Esther Weiland and the thimble by Miss Minnie Staton, Chief Petty Officer L. M. Harris cutting the dime. The guests departed at a late hour after a very enjoyably spent evening.

COUNTRY GIRLS TO AID CAMPAIGN

Practically every school girl in Escambia county outside of Pensacola has been enlisted in the United War Work Campaign by Home Demonstration Agent Floyd, who is in charge of government girls' club work in this county. While not all the girls have been organized into Victory Girls by the home agent all the schools of the county have been visited and the services of the students have been enlisted by Miss Floyd. Pensacola school girls have been organized through other channels, since Miss Floyd does no work in the city.
