Grace-Redwood Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Grace announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jamie Norris Grace, and Mr. Richard Bowers Redwood, the wedding to take place in the fall.

The above announcement creates great interest here, where Mr. Grace and his charming family formerly lived. Miss Grace is universally loved in Columbus and many good wishes and heartiest congratulations are extended Mr. Redwood upon his choice.

Miss Scott Entertains For Miss Cook.

Miss Clare Scott entertained delightfully on Wednesday evening at her home on Ninth street in compliment to Miss Emily Cook, of Hattiesburg, the attractive young daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Joe Cook.

The lovely reception rooms of the Scott home were artistically decorated in pink and blue. Hydrangas were effectively used upon mantles and tables.

Cards were played and after the games sandwiches and ices were served.

Miss Annie Clare Mayfield served delicious fruit fraape.

The guests were: Miss Emily Cook, Mr. William Gunter, Miss Sarah Lipsey, Mr. Hugh Ezell; Miss Catherine Maer, Mr. William Landrum; Miss Elizabeth Leigh, Mr. Robert Whitfield; Miss Ida Dashiell, Mr. Neilson Beard; Miss Catherine Hudson, Mr. Paul Vipperman; Miss Lucy Carter, Mr. Adair Marshall.

Mr. Fred Cox, of Attalla, Ala., arrived Friday to join his wife, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Beard. Mr. and Mrs. Cox will be here several days longer before returning home.

Miss Nancy Patty, of Macon, and Miss Dorothy Sykes of Aberdeen, are expected this week to visit Miss Juliette Hamilton.

Beautiful Wedding Solemnized in Brooksville.

A wedding of broad social interest here was beautifully solemnized on last Tuesday evening in the Methodist church at Brooksville, when Miss Anita McMichael and Mr. Hugh Stallworth, of Nashville, Tenn., were married.

Quite a large assemblage of relatives and friends were at the church, which was brilliantly decorated with white and green, and myriads of candies shedding their soft rays, making a bewitching scene for the happy wedding party.

Mrs. H. J. Dashiell sang beautifully, "Because I Love You," and "I Love You." Miss Annie B. Johnson played the wedding march. Precisely at nine o'clock four little girls entered with the ribbons. The ushers, Messrs. James Sykes Billups, Bevell Peterson, Hugh Anderson and Dr. Bell, of Brooksville, came next. The bride's maids and groomsmen entered as follows: Miss Hattie Wood, of Columbus, Mr. Arnold Carl Saxon, of St. Louis; Miss Erline Mitchell, of Artesia, Mr. Roy Cunningham, of Brooksville; Miss Lucile Petterson and Mr. E. Halbert, of Brooksville, Mrs. James Sykes Billups, of Columbus, was the charming matron of honor, while Miss Mary Ross, of Moultrie, Ga., was maid of honor. Master John Bevell, of Memphis, cousin of the bride, was the graceful ring bearer. The bride entered with her uncle, Mr. J. L. S. Petterson, who gave her to be married. The groom had as his best man Dr. Charles Stallworth, of Lucedale, Miss. The impressive ceremony was said by Rev. J. J. Baird, pastor of the M. E. church at Brooksville.

The bride is considered one of the most beautiful women in Mississippi, and besides her personal charms, she is talented and cultured. She wore a white satin dress with princess lace overdress. The lace was designed and made by her own capable fingers. The matron was lovely in brocade and lace. The maid of honor and maids were exquisite in pink costumes.

Mr. Stallworth is a graduate of the A. and M. College, and for several years past he has been a prominent salesman out of Nashville. Immediately after the ceremony a brilliant reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Petterson in Brooksville.

Those who attended the wedding from Columbus were Mrs. J. T. Wood, Mrs. R. E. Johnston, Mrs. Mann, Miss Louise Wood, Miss Frances Dashiell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gid Harris have leased the new house recently erected on the Bradford Square by Mrs. Graham Jones, and will be at home to their friends there after September the first. Mrs. W. J. Burt and Mrs. Hunter Walker will have apartments with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips leave tomorrow for the Exposition in California. They will be in the West a month and take in all places of interest.

Miss Kidwell Being Honored.

The following from the Jackson Clarion-Ledger will be read with interest by Miss Kidwell's many friends in Columbus:

"Yesterday morning the Armstrong home on North State street was opened for the second of the series of parties in which Dr. Kidwell is honoring her attractive young daughter, Miss Katie May Kidwell, when Mrs. John Armstrong assisted in the pleasures of entertaining.

"The rooms were made most inviting in lovely flowers and the sweet young girls in their toilettes of dainty fabrics completed the perfect picture. The game was played with zest and after this pleasure came the serving of the tempting luncheon as the happy company chatted away the moments.

"The presence of Miss Katherine Lindamood, of Columbus, added to the charm of the occasion. This morning other friends of Miss Kidwell will be guests at bridge."

Dr. C. D. Goodwin will leave this morning for Way, Miss., where he will spend a fortnight at Allison's Wells.

Mr. Charles J. Barnes, special agent for the Frisco R. R., with headquarters in Birmingham, is expected today to join his wife, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Chapsky, at the "Francis."

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Long and two attractive daughters, Misses Emma and Lillie, visited relatives here last week. Miss Josephine Senter accompanied them home and will be their guest for a fortnight.

Mrs. Isaac Winston returned Friday from a visit to relatives in Shreveport, La.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ethridge and little son, of San Antonio, Texas, are the guests of Mrs. Ethridge's mother, Mrs. E. B. Kerksey. Their many friends are giving them a cordial welcome.

Miss Grace Lawrence has returned from a delightful visit to friends in South Mississippi.

Miss Lorenze Cooper visited Columbus last week.

Miss Lillian Cayce spent the weekend with relatives in West Point.

Miss Caro Armstrong is visiting friends on the coast.

Mrs. J. M. Billups, Miss Bettie Goyan and Miss Mary Billups expect to leave the early part of this week for a month's stay at "Prairie View" near Mayhew.

Miss Anna Bell Stephenson, who is attending the normal at the A. and M. College, is spending the week-end with home folks here.

Mrs. T. G. Munger's many friends regret to learn that she continues ill at her home on North Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Ralph Seery and sweet little daughter, Helen Goetze, expect to leave this week for Alabama to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Robinson will leave the latter part of this week for Carrollton, Ga., to visit Mr. Robinson's parents.

Mrs. W. B. Black and three attractive daughters left Thursday for Biloxi to spend a fortnight. Later they will visit in New Orleans. Rev. Black will sail July 15th for Panama to spend six weeks.

Capt. and Mrs. F. M. Leigh have returned from a pleasant visit to Petersburg, Va.

Mr. W. M. Neyman will leave tomorrow for an extended trip through the West.

Miss Catherine McKinley expects to leave this week to visit relatives in Lauderdale.

THINK of Joan of Arc—pure, delicate, directed by a superb, all-powerful force that led her into any danger, and you will feel the character that Anita Stewart has made of "The Goddess."

Anita Stewart has become so imbued with the spirit of "The Goddess" that she is enveloped in an atmosphere of such divine beauty and inspiration, that to gaze on her is to be lifted and completely changed yourself.

Her rendition of Gouverneur Morris' great creation will become more marvelous to you as you read his great story and follow the girl on the screen through her classic struggle with the forces of evil, meeting with earthly love and directing the world to a renaissance of beauty.

"The Goddess" is one of the most remarkable motion picture productions it has been our good fortune to secure, and we take pleasure in announcing that the films will be shown at the
