Hamilton-Adams Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. William Baskerville Hamilton announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Bykes, to Mr. Thomas Burton Adams, of Jacksonville, Florida.
The wedding will take place in the late fall.

Pretty Dance Given for Miss Nell Kennedy.
Mrs. Nell Kennedy entertained with an elegant dancing party Friday night for her attractive little daughter, Nell. The Twentieth Century Club rooms were chosen for this beautiful function.
Quantities of cut flowers were used while evergreens and tulle made a pretty setting for the happy children who were present. The dance was led by Mr. Hammond Jones and Miss Kennedy.
At midnight a delicious ice course was served.

Margaret Wilson On Concert Tour.
Margaret Wilson, the president's daughter, who has come before the public the last year as a concert soprano and won success for her artistic work, will open her fall tour in Buffalo, N. Y., October 12. During the week she will sing at Erie, Pa., on the evening of the fifteenth, and at Cleveland on the evening of the nineteenth. She will be assisted by Melville Clarke, the harpist, and her accompanist will be Mrs. Ross David, the wife of Miss Wilson's teacher, Ross David, of New York.—Exchange.

Sunday School Class Enjoys "Wesley Tea."
One of the very beautiful events of the week socially was the "Wesley Tea," on Friday evening, in the annex of the First Methodist church, when the members of Miss Sarah Sheffield's class were entertained.
Pretty floral decorations in autumn leaves and roses were artistically used to decorate the room.
Mrs. Sheffield is one of the best theological students in Columbus, and her class is interested and zealous in pursuing the study of the Bible. The tea was given to welcome those who had been away during the summer and for prospective members.
A very unique program on Wesley was given as follows:
Conditions in England when John Wesley appeared upon the scene, Mrs. H. J. Dashiell; Chorus, "Hark, the Angels Sing," the class; John Wesley's place in History, Mrs. Sheffield; Reading, Selection from Chas. Wesley's Poems, Mrs. Lipsy; Reading—Wesley's Grace Before Meals, Mrs. Landrum; Toast, "A cup of good tea," Mrs. William Burt; Description of Wesley's Teapot, Miss Sherrod.

Miss Tutwiler Honored by Her Alabama Friends.
The following clipping from the Birmingham Age-Herald will be read with interest by the numerous friends here of Miss Julia Tutwiler, who is a sister of our townswoman, Mrs. Gessner T. Smith:
"A movement started several weeks ago by Mrs. J. A. Rountree to have an oil portrait of Miss Julia Tutwiler presented to the state, to be hung in the capitol, as a tribute of honor from her pupils of the Alabama Normal College, Livingston, has met with most enthusiastic response. Already it has become of state-wide interest.
"Miss Tutwiler, though under treatment at a local infirmary, is able to allow the necessary sketching during the time she is permitted to sit up each day, and Miss Edna Smith, Birmingham's celebrated portrait painter, has been chosen to do the work."

Lawrence-Caine Wedding Occurs Next Tuesday.
The wedding of Miss Cleo Caine and Mr. A. B. Lawrence will be beautifully solemnized on Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride, in this city.
Miss Susie Will Gunter has been chosen as maid of honor, while Mr. Girdy Lawrence, brother of the groom, will be best man. The ceremony will be said by Rev. R. B. Eggleston, of the First Presbyterian church.
Miss Caine is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Winston P. Caine. She is one of the sweetest girls ever reared in Columbus. Both cultured and attractive, she has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends, who are ready to shower the groom with congratulations.
Mr. Lawrence holds a responsible position with the Columbus National Bank, and is a splendid young man, and is universally popular.

Picture Show Party For Miss Johnston.
Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnston entertained on Tuesday evening with a picture show party for their charming niece, Miss Marion Johnson, of Virginia. After the program at the Princess, tempting refreshments were served at the Johnston home on Main street.
Among the guests were: Misses Louise Lipscomb, Carolyn Slack, Louise Morgan; Messrs. Sam Kaye, Winston Caine, Davis Patten.

Columbus, ever conservative, is slow to accept new fads, but once won over they are enthusiastic. So it is with the golf fad; interest continues and with cooler days, this old door pleasure which is so beneficial, promises to claim much time from the devotees. Yesterday crowds were seen wending their way to the links for a good time.
Mrs. A. L. Witherspoon is expected home the coming week from Mont-eagle, where she spent the summer most delightfully.
Mrs. Hunter Walker, who has been visiting relatives in the city for several days, returned to her home in Brooksville Friday.
Mr. G. M. Flynn spent Friday in Maceon on business.
Mrs. Annie Bradford has returned from a fortnight's visit to Memphis.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bew have returned from their honey-moon, spent in Washington and New York.
Mr. W. T. Krone left Tuesday for Tulane, where he goes to complete his course in medicine.

Mrs. E. P. Wilkinson expects to leave tomorrow for New York, where she will be joined by her daughter, Miss Helen Egan, who has been absent from Columbus for a year in school in Colorado, and later visiting in California. After spending some time in Gotham they will visit Baltimore and Washington, after which they will stop in Atlanta and be joined by little Miss Virginia Wilkinson, who will accompany them home.
Mrs. William Rhett and attractive daughters, Misses Julia, Rosalee, Margaret and Emily have returned from North Carolina, where they spent the summer delightfully.
Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Jackson, Tenn., visited Capt. and Mrs. D. P. Davis last week. Mrs. Smith is lovingly remembered as Miss Margaretta Chester, who was a frequent visitor to Columbus.
Col. and Mrs. William Richards, and grand daughter, Miss Frances Woodward, have returned from a delightful trip to North Carolina.
Miss Katy May Kidwell, of Jackson, arrived last week and spent a few days with Miss Ruth Senter, before entering the I. L. & C.

Miss Myra McConnell will be a pupil of the I. L. & C. this year.
An attractive advertisement in this paper is that of the Loeb Variety Store, in which they feature the beautiful "New Hoosier Beauty" cupboard.

DELEGATES RETURN
over all the routes offered for the southern stretches of the highway, marked the close late today of the first convention of the Jackson Highway association. The permanent organization was completed earlier in the day with Peter Lee Atherton of Kentucky, as president.
E. G. Dent, of Bowling Green, Ky., Walter H. Crim, Salem, Ind., and W. L. Brown, Lafayette, Ind., were appointed path-finders. An executive committee to be composed of President Atherton, Vice-President Creveling, Edmund Taylor, of Frankfort, Ind., W. H. Crim, of Salem, and another member from Ohio to be named later, also was decided on.
Notice was served on all the counties interested in proposed routes for the highway south of Nashville, to send all available data on roads to the office of the association not later than October 30. Robert E. Woods, of Kentucky, was selected as temporary secretary of the association.
The board of directors will hold its next meeting at Nashville November 10, at which time they will receive the reports from the pathfinders and decide upon the complete route for the highway.
The differences between the Mississippi and Alabama delegations were settled when an agreement was reached to increase the number of executive committee members from each state from two to three. This was done to give the northwest counties of Alabama representation on the Alabama delegation, although this section opposed the "central" route sought by the balance of the state.
An effort to strengthen the forces of the Alabama contestants was made today when Delegate Phillips, of Florida, asked for representation for his state in the association.
A motion to include Florida was defeated by a decisive vote. With the election of officers out of the way the convention settled itself to hear the claims of the various routes suggested for the Jackson Highway. The principal speaker was Emmet O'Neal, of Alabama. He advocated the old Jackson Military road as the only feasible route. He reviewed the history of Jackson's movements throughout Tennessee and northern Alabama, and concluded by stating that no matter which way the pathfinders of the association planned the road, the people of northwest Alabama would lend their active cooperation.
