Styles Are Most Impartial.
Her suit's a Russian blouse affair.
In color Prussian blue;
Her bow are one resplendent glare
Of London purple hue.
A nifty German submarine
She wears upon her head,
With foliage of Paris green
And buds of Turkey red;
Her skirt waist is of flimsy stuff,
Suggestive of Japan;
Around her neck she wears a ruff,
Of ancient English plan.
The costume may not match, I know,
Nor make for harmony.
The maiden surely means to show
Her strict neutrality.

Beard-Long Engagement Announced.
Mr. John J. Long, of Ita Bena, Miss., announces the engagement and approaching marriage of his daughter, Frances Margery, to Mr. Eugene Truman Beard, of this city. The wedding to take place the latter part of October.

Twentieth Century Club Members to Meet.
A meeting of the Twentieth Century Club has been called for four o'clock tomorrow afternoon at their rooms in Main street.

The members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church, will hold their regular business meeting Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when they will pack the barrel to be sent to the Girl's Co-Operative Home at Corinth, Miss. Any one wishing to contribute canned fruit, preserves or jelly to this cause will send it to the church by that time.

Mrs. A. L. Witherspoon has returned from Montague, Tenn., where she has been spending a delightful summer.

Lawrence-Caine Wedding Solemnized.
A beautiful wedding was solemnized on Tuesday morning at 11:00 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hew, when Miss Cleo Caine, sister of Mrs. Hew, and Mr. A. B. Lawrence plighted their troth.
The elegant home was transformed into a scene resembling fairyland. Boughs of evergreens and bows of tulle were artistically arranged through the reception rooms. The stairway was wreathed in vines, while white tulle fell in graceful festoons and caught in huge rosettes. At the end of the parlor, an altar was improvised. Banks of ferns in clouds of tulle formed the background, while stately palms and tall standards filled with candles, completed the artistic arrangement.
During the period of waiting delightful music was rendered by Mrs. Jack Hew, and Miss Marie Gunter sang in sweet voice "I Love You."

The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Susie Will Gunter, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a becoming gown of blue taffeta, and a black picture hat, carrying an arm bouquet of pink roses. She came down the stairs and took her stand near the altar. The bride came in with her brother, Mr. Winston Caine, who gave her to be married. The groom entered with his brother, Mr. Grady Lawrence. The ring ceremony was impressively said by Dr. Beverly Eggleston, of the First Presbyterian church.
The bride wore a handsome going away gown of blue, with small hat and carried bride's roses. She was the impersonation of all that is noble and true as in the radiance of love's divine light she gave her heart into the keeping of another.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for Memphis and New Orleans. Upon their return they will be at home with the groom's parents on Market street.

Members of Euchre Club Entertained Friday.
Miss Katherine Banks, one of the sweetest of the younger social set, entertained delightfully on Friday afternoon the Euchre Club, composed of a large number of the young girls of the high school.
The reception rooms of this lovely home were beautiful and fragrant in large bouquets of Killarney roses.
Cards were played at six tables. Miss Eleanor Steele, having won the highest score, was given a dainty handkerchief. Miss Josephine Senter won the booby and also received a handkerchief.

Crabs, sandwiches and ice tea were served the guests, who were: Misses Eleanor Steele, Elizabeth Leigh, Katherine Maer, Nina Weeden Oliver, Josephine Senter, Elizabeth Waring, Leon Gunter, Lucy Carter, Ida Dashiell, Marie Hopkins, Frances Woodward, Etta Edwards, Marie Street, Martha Searcy, Rebecca Hardy, Catherine Donnell, Louise Peacher, Caroline Slack and Juliette Hamilton.
Mrs. W. A. Deale is spending a week with her sister in Macon.

Ellen Wilson Memorial Homes.
First statement of the definite detailed plans for the Ellen Wilson memorial homes to be built in Washington are disclosed in an article in the journal of the American Institute of Architects.
The block of homes, to serve the purpose of a memorial to the late wife of the president and to furnish clean, sanitary homes for the poor of the alleys, is to contain a play ground and wading pool for the little children, a small library and an administration building, in which will be housed a laundry plant with facilities for thirty-two women to do washing and ironing at 3 cents per hour.
There also will be a small emergency hospital, a nurse's suite, a large amusement hall, two club rooms and a suite for the settlement worker. A kitchen will allow the serving of small suppers in the amusement hall and will afford opportunity for cooking classes and a diet kitchen. A day nursery will be provided for children left by mothers who must go out to work.
There are to be 150 houses, providing for 250 families, or about 1,000 persons. The total cost of the building will be about $350,000. The rentals will range from $7.50 to $17.50 per month. Plans have been presented to President Wilson, who has gone over them carefully and approved them.

Faculty Club Holds Business Meeting.
The I. I. & C. Faculty Club held a business meeting Friday night and Miss Alice Wildman was unanimously elected house chairman, while Miss Erié Douglass was selected for vice-chairman.
The club is an innovation at the I. I. & C., and is proving very interesting and pleasant in a social way.
One of the features is an afternoon tea given twice a month, to which the ladies of Columbus are invited. These afternoons are very informal and greatly enjoyed by those who attend.
Mrs. Anna Short, who has been confined to her bed with pleurisy, is able to be up and about again, and enjoy the company of her nieces, Mrs. Thomas Hogan, of Texas, and Mrs. Edward Finley, of Virginia. Her recovery is pleasant news to her many friends in this city, where she is so dearly beloved.

Mrs. Cornelia Benoit, who has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ottey Maer, in Wichita Falls, Texas, very delightfully will not return to Columbus for several months yet. Her countless friends here, however, will have a cordial welcome for her when she does decide to come home.
Mr. and Mrs. Atwater spent Wednesday in Columbus shopping. Mr. Atwater moved his family here from Florida the first of this year and purchased the Ming place six miles west of the river and engaged in diversified farming. They are being cordially welcomed to our midst.
Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Durden have returned from Colorado, where they spent the summer. The property on Main street recently purchased by them is being remodeled and will soon be ready for occupancy.

College Students Name Spectator Staff.
At a meeting of the students of the I. I. & C. Monday, the staff officers for the College Spectator were elected for the session 1915-16, bestowing honors upon Lowndes county girls as follows: Miss Mattie Pegues, assistant editor-in-chief; Miss Emma Chandler, business manager; Miss Lucy Banks, exchange editor.
Miss Pegues has a ready pen, and is exceptionally talented. Miss Chandler's executive ability was recognized, while Miss Lucy Banks is also gifted. Friends of these young ladies are congratulating them upon the high stand they have taken at the college and feel sure they will honor the positions they have been selected to.

Following is the complete Spectator staff: Miss Raiford Rush, editor-in-chief; Miss Mattie Pegues, assistant editor-in-chief; Miss Emmie Chandler, business manager; Miss Margaret Owen, assistant business manager; Miss Ethel Caine, athletic editor; Miss Grace Gilbert, Y. W. C. A. editor; Miss Zaida Musselwhite, local editor; Miss Lucy Banks, exchange editor; Miss Grace Massengale, current events editor; Miss May Massengale, who's who editor.
Miss Mary McQueen's countless friends will be interested in hearing that she is a pupil at the Girls' College at Montevallo, Ala. Miss McQueen is quite a favorite in Columbus and will be sadly missed this winter in church and social circles.

Mrs. Greer Rodgers, of Memphis, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Reuben Banks. This is Mrs. Rodgers' first visit here since her wedding last spring, and her many friends are giving her a most cordial welcome.
Mrs. E. T. Watts and little son, Murray, have returned home, after a very pleasant visit to relatives in Birmingham.
Mrs. Julius Loeb and daughter, Mrs. J. Rubel have returned from a delightful visit of six weeks in Chicago.

Miss Annie Lee Senter, who has been visiting relatives in Humbolt, Tenn., will spend this week with Mrs. Frank Melbourne in Jackson, Tenn.
Mrs. J. P. McQueen, who has been spending some time in Alabama, returned last week to be with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carr have returned from a pleasant visit of ten days to Biloxi and other coast towns.
Mrs. C. Long returned home Friday after a visit to relatives in Mobile.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paessler have returned from a month's stay in the north. Mr. Paessler has resumed his position as ticket agent for the Mobile and Ohio R. R. in this city.

Simple Food Best.
Diet plays a great part in preserving health and therefore has a great influence on the complexion. All rich and greasy foods tend to make the skin greasy, therefore the simpler one's food the better, provided it is nourishing and well cooked.

Impotent Rage.
"It has been a long time since I have read any contemporary poetry that moved me to tears." "Only the other day I read a poem that moved me to tears." "How did it move you so?" "I wept because I couldn't get at the author."—Birmingham Age Herald.

The Store That Sells Wooltex

Here's what Paris says about your new fall suit

Slightly fitted jacket, flare skirt, high rolling collar, novel belt and pocket effects and precise attention to the outline of the garment—that's the commandment on suit styles from Paris for this season.

See how this Wooltex Winningham suit follows the mode in its exquisite and classic simplicity. Remember that it is only one of six in the Winningham group, and but one of many others in the new offerings of Wooltex tailored coats, suits and skirts.

If you are looking for a way to make your clothes-money go farther—to make it buy style that is correct and refined, and material and workmanship that are equal to those of the custom tailor—you will find it both pleasant and profitable to choose from the many attractive models that carry the Wooltex label.

Wooltex coats are priced at $16.50 to $55.00; suits at $25.00 to $75.00; skirts at $5.00 to $15.00. To get the full benefit of the new styles, you should see them now, in your city, at
