

The Woman's Store Presenting Printzess Garments

To the Discerning Public

Printzess garments for women are, in a great many respects the most unusual clothes for women that are manufactured. In their evolution may be traced the ideas of the great style creators at work—Callot, Paquin, Doucet, Beer, Jenny. The very factory in which Printzess garments are made is unusual—the most enlightened, humane and scientifically modern of its kind.

Each Printzess garment is in itself a style authority.

Each Printzess garment will wear until you tire of it—and it will be more than one season ere you tire of it.

Each Printzess garment is distinctive enough for a distinguished wearer.

Each Printzess garment is built on honor—the honor there is superlative quality, in exacting care, in the master artisan's love of his handiwork.

Each Printzess garment is like the perfect frame for a lovely painting—its wearer looks her best through its aid.

R. E. LEIGH

ORDINANCE NO. 503.

An act to regulate the running or operation of motor vehicles and other vehicles whose motive power is other than animals, along or over the streets, avenues or alleys and the streets, avenues or alleys of this city; to provide that in an action to recover damages for injuries inflicted to person or property by any motor vehicle that proof of operation or running of same contrary to any provision of this act and proof of injury to make a prima facie case for plaintiff; and to provide the method of procedure to enforce the provisions of this act and to fix a penalty for the violation of any of the provisions thereof.

Defining the Term "Motor Vehicle."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the mayor and City Council of Columbus, that the term "motor vehicle" in this act shall include all vehicles propelled by any power other than animal, whether same be used for pleasure or business or commercial purposes, except road rollers, street sprinklers, fire engines and fire department apparatus, police patrol wagons, ambulances and such vehicles as run only on rails or tracks.

Speed Permitted.

Sec. 2. No person shall operate a motor vehicle on a public highway, or street, avenue, or alley of this city, at a greater rate of speed than is reasonable and proper, having due regard to the traffic and use of the highway, or so to endanger the life or limb of any person or the safety of any property, or in any event on any public highway where the territory contiguous thereto is closely built up, at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles per hour, or elsewhere in this city at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles per hour.

Special Speed Regulations.

Sec. 3. No person running or operating, or causing to be run or operated a motor vehicle, shall pass a person driving a horse or horses or other domestic animals, or foot passengers walking in the roadway of the highway, at a greater rate of speed than eight miles per hour, nor pass a public school, in school days, when school is held, between the hours of eight o'clock ante meridian and four o'clock post meridian, or pass a building of public worship on the Sabbath day during the usual hours of service, at a greater rate of speed than eight miles per hour, or cross a levee or causeway where the traveled portion of the roadbed is less than twenty feet wide at a greater rate of speed than ten miles per hour.

Speed at Bridges, Crossings, Sharp Curves, Steep Descents or Dams.

Sec. 4. Upon approaching a bridge, levee, sharp curve or steep descent, and also in traversing such bridge, levee, curve or descent, a person operating a motor vehicle shall have it under control and operate it at a rate of speed not exceeding ten miles per hour, and upon approaching a crossing of intersecting highways at a speed not greater than is reasonable and proper, having due regard to the traffic then on such highway and the safety of the public.

Meeting Pedestrians, Drivers and Riders.

Sec. 5. Upon approaching a person walking in the roadway of a public highway, or a horse, or other draft animal, being ridden, led or driven thereon, a person operating or causing to be operated a motor vehicle shall give or cause to be given reasonable warning of its approach, and use every reasonable precaution to insure the safety of such person or animal, and, in case of horses or other draft animals, to prevent frightening the same.

Stopping on Signal.

Sec. 6. A person operating, or causing to be operated a motor vehicle shall, at request or signal, by putting up the hand, from a person riding, leading or driving a restive horse or horses, or other draft animals, bring, or cause to be brought such motor vehicle immediately to a stop, and, if traveling in the opposite direction, use reasonable precaution in thereafter passing such horse or animal; provided, that in case such horse or animal appears badly frightened or the person operating such motor vehicle is requested to do so such person shall cause the motor of such vehicle to cease running so long as shall be reasonably necessary to prevent accident and insure safety to others.

Giving Name and Address in Case of Accident.

Sec. 7. In case of accident to a person or property on the public highway, streets, avenues or alleys of this city, due to the operation thereof of a motor vehicle, the person operating, or causing to be operated such motor vehicle shall stop, and upon request of a person injured, or any person present, give such person his name or address, and if not the owner, the name and address of such owner.

Rules of the Street or Avenue.

Sec. 8. Whenever a person operating a motor vehicle, or causing the same to be operated, shall meet on a public highway any other person riding or driving a horse or horses or other draft animals, or any other vehicles, the person so operating such motor vehicle, or causing the same to be operated, shall reasonably turn or cause the same to be turned to the right of the center of such highway, street, avenue, or alley, so as to pass without interference. Any such person operating, or causing to be operated, a motor vehicle shall, on overtaking any such horse, draft animal or other vehicle, pass on the left side thereof, and the rider or driver of such horse, draft animal or other vehicle shall, as soon as practicable, turn to the right of the center of such public highway, street, avenue, or alley, so as to allow free passage to the left. Any such person so operating, or causing to be operated, a motor vehicle shall, at the intersection of public highways, streets, avenues or alleys of this city, keep to the right of the intersection of the centers of the highways when turning to the right and pass to the right of such intersection when turning to the left. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed as limiting the meaning or effect of any of the other provisions of this act.

Brakes, Bell, Horn and Lamps, and Muffler.

Sec. 9. Every motor vehicle shall carry, during the period from one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise, at least two lighted lamps, showing white lights, visible at least two hundred feet in the direction towards which such motor vehicle is proceeding, and shall also exhibit one red light, visible in the reverse direction. Said red light shall be so hung upon the motor vehicle that it will illuminate and make visible the register number of said vehicle; provided however, that the user of such motor vehicle may proceed to his destination in event of bona fide failure of his lights to operate, if he sounds his bell, horn or other signal device at least once in every two hundred feet, does not proceed at a rate of speed greater than six miles an hour, and takes the first reasonable opportunity to put his lights in order; otherwise such operator to be deemed guilty of a violation of the foregoing provision. Every motor vehicle while in use on the public highway, or any street, avenue or alley, shall be provided with at least two good and efficient brakes, and also with a suitable horn, bell or other signal device, for giving notice of its approach. Every motor vehicle using gasoline, gas, oil, naphtha, or other similar source of energy, shall use the muffler, so called, and the same shall not be cut out or disconnected within the limits of the city.

Intoxicated Person Shall Not Operate a Motor Vehicle.

Sec. 10. No person shall operate or attempt to operate a motor vehicle while such person is in a state of intoxication, or is in other respects incapable of properly and safely operating said motor vehicle, on any public highway, street, avenue, or alley of this city.

Penalty for Racing on Public Highway.

Sec. 11. Any person driving a motor vehicle upon any public highway, public road, street, avenue or alley, in a race or on a bet or wager, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, and in default of the payment thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the city jail for a period not exceeding twenty days.

Right to Recover Damages for Injury; Rule of Evidence.

Sec. 12. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to curtail or abridge the right of any person to prosecute a civil suit for damages by reason of injuries to person or property resulting from the negligent use of the highways by any motor vehicle, or its owner, or his employe or agent. And in any action brought to recover any damages, either to person or property, caused by running or operating such motor vehicle in violation of any of the provisions of this act, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be deemed to have made out a prima facie case by showing the fact of such injury, and that such person or persons operating or causing to be run or operated such motor vehicle, was at the time of the injury running or operating, or causing the said motor vehicle to be run or operated in a manner contrary to the provisions of this act.

Any Police Officer Authorized to Make an Arrest may Arrest Without Warrant.

Sec. 13.—Any police officer, or other officer authorized to make an arrest, is hereby authorized to arrest without warrant any person running or operating, or causing to be run or operated, any motor vehicle contrary to the provisions of this act, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions. And in case the owner, or person or persons operating or causing to be operated, a motor vehicle shall be taken into custody because of a violation of any provision of this act, he or they shall be forthwith taken before the mayor and be entitled to an immediate hearing; and if such hearing cannot then be had, be released from custody on giving a good and sufficient bond to appear and answer for such violation at such time and place as shall then be designated, in the manner as now provided for by law, or secured by the sum equal to the maximum fine for the offense with which he is charged, or in lieu thereof, by leaving the motor vehicle being operated by such person with such officer as may have the accused in charge; provided, however, that should the person or persons in custody so request the mayor before whom the complaint is made, or before whom person or persons in custody shall be taken, shall adjourn the hearing of said case for ten days upon the execution of a good and sufficient bond in the manner above provided, and if the defendant or defendants fail to appear to defend said case, the sum or sums so deposited or bond so given, shall be forfeited to the city and disposed of as bond given and money deposited for bail in other cases, or the motor vehicle which may be so left by said person or persons may be sold at a public auction by order of the mayor, after giving notice of said proposed sale for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of a general circulation in this city, describing accurately the motor vehicle therein and giving the date of the proposed sale, and from the amount realized upon such sale a sum equal to the maximum fine for the offense charged shall be disposed of in like manner, and the surplus, if any, after deducting all expenses incurred in keeping or sale of such motor vehicle, be returned to such owner on demand, but no such forfeiture and disposition of such security shall in any wise impair the jurisdiction of the mayor to hear and determine any such charge made against the owner of such motor vehicle, or the person or persons operating, or causing to be operated, the said motor vehicle, or to inflict upon conviction thereof, any punishment prescribed by this act.

Penalties for Violation.

Sec. 14. The violation of any of the provisions of this act except as otherwise provided for in section 11, by any owner, chauffeur or operator or any person causing to be run or operated any motor vehicle, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable upon conviction thereof by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars for the first offense, and not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding ten days, or both for a second offense, and punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding ten days, or both, for a second offense, and punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars and imprisonment not exceeding thirty days for a third or subsequent offense.

Unconstitutionality of Part Not to Affect Entire Act.

Sec. 15. If any section or provisions of this act be declared unconstitutional then such unconstitutionality shall apply only to such section and shall not invalidate any other section or provision of this act.

Double Wedding Solemnized.

A double wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Redus, four miles northeast of Columbus, Tuesday night, when two of their daughters took unto themselves husbands. Miss Lovis Redus was married to W. W. Milligan, a teacher at Black Creek school, while Miss Ruby Redus wedded J. G. Pennington, a local barber. At the conclusion of the ceremony both couples left for Birmingham and Jasper, Ala., where they will visit friends and relatives.
