THE BEST THINGS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Don't always come in the biggest packages. Santa Claus could bring you a very small parcel from here on Christmas morning and yet give you a very valuable long lasting and desirable present. Watches, chains, gold and silver ornaments, with or without diamonds or other precious stones, here in profusion.

CHAT OF PEOPLE AND EVENTS.

The season for Christmas bazaars is at hand, and already interest is kindled by the announcement of their part in the preparations of approaching Yule-tide. On the afternoon and evening of Saturday the 9th, the annual bazaar of the Pastors' Aid Society will be held at the Armory, and in addition, a buffet luncheon will be served. Special care has been taken to make this occasion pleasant to the little folks who will find many novelties and much merriment awaiting them. The following Saturday, the students of the Latic department of the I. I. & C. will give a bazaar for the benefit of the college library.

Miss Stafford, traveling Secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, is in the city, the guest of the college association. It is gratifying to learn that at the Birmingham convention a fortnight ago, the Y. W. C. A. of the I. I. & C. made the banner report, and announced that in the past year $1400.00 had been devoted to their work. The class of 1904 established the office of general secretary, for whose salary they pledged themselves, and whose duty it is to assist the officers of the association, and direct its work.

At the Thanksgiving cotillion of the Choctaw Club, the guests voted a number of recent changes which add to the attractive interior of the club rooms. The wicker furniture has been received, and several gifts, contributing to the charm of the apartments, have come with the compliments of the Ladies Auxiliary. The third of the series of dances which will mark the winter months, will occur Christmas week, and promises to be quite an elaborate affair.

In the audience at the theatre last evening many visitors were seen. A party of ten from Macon were welcomed, and Miss Pollard from Montgomery, Miss May Richards, Miss Lavinia Robertson, Mr. Carey Cocke, Dr. Hartwell Cocke and Mr. Billups Harris, who have been guests at "Malvern Hill" came in to witness the musical comedy "Dorcas."

Mrs. Grover and the Misses Grover will spend the winter in Columbus and will make their home with Mrs. S. C. Munger. The Rev. Mr. Grover has charge of the Presbyterian church at Aliceville, and is also engaged in mission work.

Dr. W. T. Bolling's Columbus friends will be interested in Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed, I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased condition of the Throat and Lungs. At Chapman and Mayfield's, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

knowing that he was the orator for the Jackson Lodge of Elks on Memorial Day, and delivered a beautiful address. At its conclusion he was presented by the Elks with an exquisite electric study lamp.

Rev. Dunbar Hunt Ogden, who during his pastorate here has been so much beloved by the college girls, will make his farewell address to the student body at the chapel exercises Friday morning.

The Rev. T. H. Lipscomb is attending the meeting of the North Mississippi Conference in Grenada. During his absence Mrs. Lipscomb is with Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lipscomb.

Mr. A. A. Kincannon, Misses Frankie Kincannon, Jamie George and little Mary George Kincannon are expected the later part of the week from a visit to New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth returned Saturday to their country place, "Prairie View." Miss Mary Garth is in West Point, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mansell Chapman.

Miss Selena Martin and Miss Alice Halbert of the Franklin Academy faculty have been unable to meet their classes this week on account of sickness.

Miss Cornelia Hudson spent Saturday and Sunday at "Malvern Hill" as the guest of Dr. Cocke who is entertaining at a delightful house party.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Ayres will entertain very informally at cards this evening in honor of Mrs. E. G. McCabe of Atlanta.

Mr. John B. Ross of Memphis, a nephew of the lamented Col. L. Q. C. Lamar, spent several days in Columbus last week.

Mr. James Butler, who is now connected with the railway mail service, is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. H. Butler.
