

JANUARY WHITE SALE

THE WOMAN'S STORE

January White Sale begins to-morrow, Monday, January 13. Nearly a year ago we contracted with manufacturer and importers for white goods to be delivered the first of this year. Since these contracts were made there has been an advance in all cotton fabrics from 30 to 60 per cent. Buying our white goods when the market price were at the lowest we are now in a position to offer you these fresh, new white goods at less than they could be bought today at wholesale. You may wonder why we do not hold these goods until next May or June when we could sell them at fully one-third more. Well that would be nice for us, but we are always looking out for your interest as well as our own. Just now, during the dull season, we would rather take a small profit and keep our goods for a larger profit later. You owe it to yourself to make an exceptional effort to be present at the beginning of this sale merely to satisfy yourself that we are right now giving you a chance to save all the way from a fourth to a third of what you will ordinarily have to pay for any thing that comes under the head of white goods. India, lion, Persian, lawns, French lawns, white wash silks, cambrics, certain swiss, muslin under-wear, laces and embroideries—every article that you need in this line of goods—at prices such as are quoted below:

40 inch white lawn 7 1-2 cts.

ALL MUSLIN UNDERWEAR, THIS SALE AT ABOUT ONE-FOURTH THE REGULAR PRICE

ALL WINTER GOODS MUST GO, Regardless of cost.

Don't forget that our clearance sale of all strictly winter goods, such as dress goods, winter underwear, blankets, comforts, outings, flannellets and hats is still going on. We have cut the price.

BELOW COST.

on nearly everything in winter merchandise. We would rather take a loss on these goods than store them away another season. You will save fully 50 per cent by taking advantage of this opportunity.

WE INVITE COMPARISON.

This is the usual time of the year when many stores hold cost sales, whirl-wind sales and bargain sales of all kinds. Wouldn't it be a fine opportunity to make the rounds, examine the offerings of the different stores and make comparisons? We have too much respect for your intelligence to tell you we are selling all our goods at cost—no merchant can sell at cost and stay in business. But we have such confidence in the quality of our goods that we know no house can give you any better value for the money than we do. We are more than willing that you make the rounds of all the stores, come here and make comparisons.

You will find that our values are unmatched elsewhere.

STATE LINE NEWS.

I have noticed for some time that your worthy writers of Caledonia and Melborne often leave room along the State line for some one else to drop in a few words, so I will reach down about Luxapallia and come on up the line a few miles.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the Christmas holidays real well and to appreciate the coming in of the New Year (especially our young ladies, as this year has 366 days.)

The health of Steens and on Rt. No. 1 is not so good as usual.

Measles is a subject often discussed all over this section now.

Mr. A. J. Sanders has been kept in some days with measles and has been greatly missed by the busy people who visit Steens, as he is a worthy business man of that place.

Dr. Penington is kept very busy all the time, and his fast growing practice will soon be so great that he will surely need an assistant all the year instead of just during the summer season.

Mrs. T. L. Tunnel, who has been suffering for some time with a broken ankle, was able to be moved to Mrs. Jennie Brownlee's last week and is still slowly improving.

Dr. J. R. Burleson of Hamilton, Ala., visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Green this week, after which he left for New Orleans, where he expects to take a post graduate course of lectures.

Miss Susie Green, after spending some time at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. A. K. Green, returned last Sunday to Elrod, Ala., where she holds a very desirable position as teacher, and we are glad to report Mrs. Green very much improved.

Rev. Mr. Dorris was kept a little busy during the holidays, it seems, as he lives near State line and several couples wished to cross over the line from Alabama to be married.

Mrs. Dr. B. E. Turner has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Glasgow, near Vernon, for some time.

Mr. W. L. Brock, our surveyor, is kept out from among us most of the time, surveying in different parts of Lamar County. He is a jolly good fellow and we miss him when he is away.

Prof. W. C. Hays, one of our worthy young men, is expected to return to Jacksonville this week where he is attending the Alabama State Normal this year.

The school at Sunny Side is moving on nicely with Prof. I. G. Rector as principal. The people of that section will do well to keep Prof. Rector at the head of their school, as he is a worthy and an experienced teacher.

Any one wanting to know of the great progress of Star school should read the Lamar Democrat, but for the general news of a large part of this grand old country of ours, read the paper which has such a wonderful circulation and that is The Dispatch. We wish for it a still more prosperous year in 1908. "A."

MILLPORT NEWS.

I have been resting over quite a while, but having been solicited by numerous friends to send in my short dots again I conclude to see if you would grant me admittance on your list of correspondents once more.

Health of our town is fine. Old Millport is still on the ladder climbing to the top one rung at a time; everybody hustling, merchants busy, trade good, plenty of money, cheerful people and all going to work with a vim.

School reopened with a good attendance under the principalship of Prof. Slides, with Miss Ida Key Denman as first assistant and Miss Leona Davis of Enslly as second.

We had the good fortune to secure Brother Heflin as pastor of our Methodist church. We predict for him a prosperous year in his Master's vineyard. The Baptists have secured the services of Brother Metcalfe as their pastor. He is a very able preacher.

The young people in our town had quite a happy Xmas. They had quite a success in their Xmas tree. We must congratulate the good behavior in town and on the streets during the holidays, there being but a few who showed any signs of drunkenness. Oh, have we all not had a glorious victory in putting out the saloons in old Alabama. That means happy homes, sober fathers, husbands, brothers and sons; it means plenty instead of poverty; it means bread instead of whisky.

The boys and older men of town have quite an interesting debating society with a large membership. Meetings are held at the college and they have been discussing some very interesting subjects.

Mrs. Trull has given up the hotel and Mrs. Bailey of Columbus has taken charge of the same. We wish her much success. She has a very accomplished young lady boarding with her, who is here in the interests of getting a music and elocution class, the latter accomplishment being very much needed for the benefit of our girls.

Miss Sallie Propt of Birmingham is a welcome visitor at the home of her grandfather, Mr. Wesley Propts. Mr. John Belton Dowdle was a visitor here during Xmas.

There has been quite a lot of moving and changing homes in the last few days, not near enough houses to supply the wants of the people.

Mr. Charley Henson and Will W. Waldrop have gone into a business together, expecting to run a barber shop and pressing club and will be found at all times ready and willing to serve their many friends. We wish them a prosperous year.

Captain Parrish and his two daughters left last week for Florida, where they will make their future home. We regretted to see them leave. Last year was a sad one to them, having lost in their home both mother and son.

Miss Blanche Woldrop gave a very enjoyable entertainment in her home on Friday night to a beautiful convoy of lively girls and a lot of nice-looking boys.

Mr. Irby Procter and his lovely wife have been at home on a visit to his and his wife's home folks. Mrs. Procter and Mrs. Curt Williams, also Mr. Jake Loftis and his little wife, formerly Miss Lovie Odern, have been spending some time with relatives here.

Millport girls will get married and leave, but we still have a lot of beautiful girls—no old maids—and a number of fine looking widows, though don't understand us to be advertising for husbands.

Mr. Louie Miller and wife, also Mr. Sam Yeatman and wife, have been guests at the home of their mother, Mrs. Logan.

Mr. Grady Botson of Bessemer was a welcome visitor at the home of Homer Waldrop last week.

Mrs. J. W. White has returned from Georgia, where she was called to attend the burial of her mother.

A number of the girls attending the Millport High school went to examination preparing them for teachers. That's right, girls, equip yourselves for life's great battle and be able to face whatever comes to your lot. I believe the girls are rather outdoing the boys. Years ago girls had to be somewhat dependent on the men for a living but today the girls are going to the front in almost every avocation in life. This is fine on the boys who don't like to work. If they should happen to fool some good girls into getting married, they would be sure of a support.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. S. D. Cheatham has returned to her home in Columbus after her extended visit to Texas.

Well, I have written more than I intended, so if I do not stumble into the waste basket I may come again at some more opportune time.

Wishing the editor and his many subscribers a happy New Year, I am, as ever, "Venice."

A Card.

I wish to state to my friends in Columbus and the surrounding country that on account of the fact that Mr. E. P. Brownlee, with whom I have been associated for the past six years, has retired from business, I have formed a partnership with my brother, Mr. T. J. Clardy, and we have opened a store on North Fourth avenue, near the Southern round house, where we will keep on hand a large stock of dry goods, groceries, country produce, feed stuff, etc., and will be glad to serve our friends when in need of any thing in our line. Thanking the public for past favors, and soliciting on behalf of my brother and myself a liberal patronage, I am, respectfully, G. G. Clardy.

Mr. Earl Hight, a former Columbian, who now holds a lucrative position as bookkeeper for the Refuge Cotton Oil Company at Rosedale, spent several days of the past week with friends in the city.

Mr. Oscar B. Locke, who is travelling for Sprague, Warner & Co., of Chicago, with a territory of the larger towns in several of the Southern States, spent a few days in the city the past week.

Mr. C. C. Buford, of Oxford, Miss., has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Columbus Hardware & Furniture Company.

Trained Nurse desires situation. Address "B. E. S.," General Delivery, City.

Bring Printing to The Dispatch.
