Mr. J. A. Richmond Dead.

Mr. J. A. Richmond, who, prior to the absorption by the Cumberland Telephone Company of the Citizens' Long Distance Telephone Company, was local manager for the latter corporation in Columbus, died at a hospital in New Orleans last Thursday. Mr. Richmond, who for several years past had been living in Canton, recently went to New Orleans for the purpose of having an operation performed, and died soon after the operation was finished. Mr. Richmond was universally popular in Columbus, and his death is a source of sincere regret to his numerous friends here.

Mrs. Addison Brannin of Aberdeen, Miss., was a recent guest at the New Gilmer Hotel, visiting her friend, Mrs. Julius Frank, who is now domiciled at the Gilmer.

our friends at Stacy last week and found them to be wide awake on educational, church and fraternal affairs. They have under construction at the old Bethlehem church a new two-story building 28x42 feet at a cost of about $896.00. The lower story will be used for a church and school house, and the upper story will be used by Stacy Lodge of Odd Fellows, which was recently organized. We are glad to see our Stacy neighbors making the start for better schools, churches and lodge rooms and bespeak for them unbounded success, as any undertaking that is supported by such men as L. I. McGee, J. G. Gault, J. J. Street, R. C. Stacy, S. K. Davis, Hon. A. J. Wallace, W. R. Weathers and other good citizens of Stacy will always be crowned with success.

Mr. Oscar Mitchell, a substantial farmer living near Vernon, spent a few days of the past week in Melbourne as the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. O. Gartman, and while here paid the writer a pleasant call and also subscribed for The Dispatch. Mr. John Beasley, of Sunnyside, was a visitor to Melbourne recently.

While at Fernbank last week, we were pleased to meet with our friends Messrs. Jesse and Lea Mouchette, of Spring Hill, who informed us that their father, Mr. Jake Mouchette, who has been on the sick list for some time past, was much improved and we hope that this is the beginning of his convalescence.

Hon. J. H. Hill of Sunnyside was in Melbourne one day last week on business and while here paid the writer a pleasant call.

Master Storzell Smythe, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Parkdale of Fernbank, is quite sick and we hope for him a speedy recovery.

We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Ida Gregory, which had event occurred at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Gregory, of Fernbank, on the ninth inst., and extend condolence to her bereaved relatives and friends.

Messrs. A. J. and S. L. Holley of Caledonia were visitors to Sunnyside last Saturday evening.

Mr. J. E. Ellis, one of Western Alabama's most highly respected citizens, who hails from Star, spent one night last week in Melbourne as the distinguished guest of the writer.

Messrs. Jack and Emrich Beasley, of Sunnyside, were Melbourne visitors last Sunday evening.

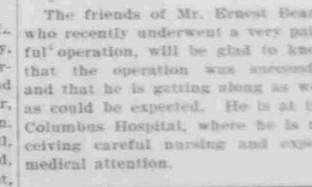

Mr. and Mrs. George Draper, of Melbourne, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy at their home on the 10th inst.

Mr. Eddie Ellis of Star, one of Western Alabama's most popular and highly respected young men, opened the Friendship High school on the 13th inst., with a good enrollment. Mr. Ellis is quite a young man, but is a fine instructor, and those good people of Friendship are to be congratulated on securing his services.
