Union met Saturday at Caledonia schoolhouse and held an all-day session. The following officers were present: E. M. Franks, president; Morgan H. Van Diver, vice president; G. P. Harvey, secretary; R. S. Loftis, doorkeeper and T. J. Spruill, conductor. Delegates were present from various locals, as follows: Dowdle Local, L. C. West, W. W. Egger, John W. Bailey, L. E. Wells, T. H. Cain, John W. Andrews and T. B. Wheeler; Flint Hill, C. L. Brown, G. A. Pullen, D. M. Woods, G. C. Brown and A. L. Andrews; Black Creek, R. A. Green and J. W. Shelton; Steens, L. G. Vaughan, H. H. Vaughn, D. A. Heron, G. W. Reeves and A. H. Glenn; Mount Vernon, L. G. Franks and Leech Cooper; Caledonia, S. A. Morris, R. R. Barrentine, H. H. Boyd, H. J. Dodd, T. F. Perkerson.

J. W. Bailey, secretary of Dowdle Local was employed as county business agent to look after the buying and selling for the union. Mr. Bailey has handled several thousand dollars already for cotton seed and fertilizer and now he will give more time than ever to the union. He was a good selection.

R. R. Barrentine, president of the warehouse commission, reported good progress and he has called a meeting for Thursday, Feb. 20th, at 9 a. m. to meet in Columbus and see property there, and Friday, the 21st, to visit Steens and see what would be offered at that place.

The next county meeting will be held at Dowdle school on the second Saturday in March, at 10 a. m.

The union is making rapid progress in Lowndes county and will soon be in a position to help the farmers get better roads and many other needed reforms.

A large number of visitors were present at Caledonia and a good dinner was served at noon, which was appreciated by the crowd.

All union men wishing information as to prices on goods bought by the union can get same from county business agent, J. W. Bailey, Caledonia, Miss.

Every man in Lowndes county is invited to meet with the next county meeting, as several things of vital importance will be settled at that time.

The union is arranging to have several good talks from men interested in good farming in the near future and other things of practical interest.

MELBORNE NEWS.

With much regret we chronicle the death of little Robert Lanie, son of Mr. R. B. Ray, which sad event occurred at the home of Mrs. Jessie Youngers, near Melborne, on the morning of the 7th inst. Little Robert was nine months and 12 days old, having been born on the 12th day of April, 1907. The little fellow had been sick for several weeks past, and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Ray has the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends in this, his sad hour of bereavement. As will be remembered, his wife was laid to rest last April when his baby was only seven days old. After the death of his wife, who was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McReynolds of Melborne, his sister, Mrs. Jessie Younger, took the little fellow to raise and was a mother to it until it died. All was done for the little fellow's relief that human aid could accomplish, but to no avail. He quietly crossed the cold river of death and no doubt has been reunited with its mother on the other and better shore, where there is no sickness, rain, heartaches, or death. The interment took place at Ebenezer cemetery on the 7th inst. at 4 p. m., in the presence of a large circle of sorrowing friends and relatives who had gathered to pay their last sad respects to the deceased, to all of whom the writer extends condolence. May they ever follow in the footsteps of the meek and lowly Jesus and finally be re-united with their missing loved ones in that land of pure delight where the day excludes the night. Many neighbors and friends were very kind to Mrs. Younger and Mr. Ray during the illness of his darling babe, for which they are very grateful and request the writer to express their deep gratitude.

Mr. Jephtha Seay, a highly respected citizen and very efficient letter carrier on route I from Melborne, was in Vernon on business last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Rector of Melborne were Columbus visitors last week.

Mrs. J. M. Lavender is on the sick list at her home in Sunnyside, and we hope for her a speedy recovery. We learn with much regret that our friend, Dr. B. E. Turner of Sunnyside is still quite sick and hope that he may soon be restored to his usual good health. "Dan."

Mr. J. T. Gunter and Miss Carine Gunter left yesterday for Rome, Ga., where they go to visit Mrs. A. R. Davis.

Numerous friends of Mrs. S. W. Hogan will regret to learn that she is ill at her home on Military street.

conductor on the Montgomery division of the M. & O., met with a very painful accident last Saturday night, while entering the local yards in standing on top of his caboose and as it passed over the railroad bridge entering the city his head struck one of the beams over the bridge, he receiving a very painful injury. Owing to the slow approach of the train into the yards he no doubt escaped what might have proven a serious accident.

M. & O. Handles Much Freight.

The Montgomery Division of the M. & O. Railroad Company is now enjoying frequent and large consignments of freight, there being a continuous run of freight trains over this division. On last Monday there were twenty full cars of freight to be worked at the local freight depot.

Mr. J. F. Chiles, the veteran car repairer of the M. & O., had the misfortune on last Monday morning to fall from a platform at the M. & O. freight depot and receive a painful cut under his left eye. Medical attendance was promptly given him and he is now resting comfortably at his home.

Mr. A. L. Watson, section foreman of the Montgomery division of the M. & O., is now working his full force of section men, which he was forced to cut down some thirty days ago. All over the line of the M. & O. the section departments are working their full quota of men.

Mr. Land, an efficient car repairer of the Southern in Mississippi, is performing the duties of Mr. J. F. Chiles during his absence from his post at the M. & O., on account of his recent accident.

Mr. R. E. House, a popular train dispatcher who has at different times worked over the entire system of the M. & O., and who has many friends in the city, is holding down one of the tricks at Artesia.

Conductor Bud Bell is relieving Conductor Coker on his run during his absence.

The Cotton Market.

There was a slight decline in cotton Tuesday, the market having lost ten points during the course of the day. At the close of business Tuesday afternoon New York spots were quoted at 11.65, May futures in New York at 11.06, New Orleans spots at 11 3-4 and May futures in New Orleans at 11.14. In the local market middling was quoted at 11 1-4.

Mr. L. E. Mayfield is renovating and refitting his drug store on South Market street. A handsome metal ceiling is being put in and the walls will be repainted and redecorated. A massive soda fountain is also being installed, and Mr. Mayfield has secured the services of Mr. Parker, an experienced mixologist from New York, who will have charge of this branch of the business.

Mr. Harry Selig left last Sunday for New York, where he goes to purchase his spring stock. Mr. Selig's business is constantly growing, and he will buy this year the largest and most varied assortment of dry goods, clothing and general merchandise that he has ever brought to Columbus.
