POLITICAL COUP BLOWS UP.

Russ Collins, and was dated July 27th. The said letter contained the following:

"Are you going to vote for me as President of the I. I. & C? I will be applicant for this position if Russell is NOT elected.

O. F. LAWRENCE.

This telegram explains the report which was sent out by the above correspondent. It will be recalled that in denying the report that he would be an applicant for the presidency of the college here if Russell was elected, Gov. Bilbo stated that he might be an applicant if Russell was not elected; that he had appointed a majority of the board and if he wanted the office he had friends enough on the board to elect him to it. It was a clever turn in the political game which the Governor applied to the rumor that Collins started intending to help himself with the friends of the college over the State. Collins knew that the people would never stand for Bilbo being President of the college here, and Bilbo sought to make friends for Russell by carrying the idea that if Russell was not elected that he would be an applicant for the position.

His letter to Mr. Lawrence must have been a joke for there is no love political or otherwise between the two. Bilbo in this letter says that if Russell is defeated he will be an applicant for the position here. The admonition to the people of the State is to elect Russell and thus save the State and the College. It's some politics.
