CHANCELLOR WOODWARD'S RESIGNATION

The resignation of Hon. Albert Y. Woodward as Chancellor of the 6th Chancery district is not a surprise to the people who have been conscious of the handicap under which he has labored for the past several months.

Mr. Woodward has been a very ill man and has resorted to nearly all specialists to recover his health. While somewhat better, a condition which inspires among his friends the hope that his convalescence will continue and that his recovery will be complete, it is advisable that he give up all work for a while and devote his attention to the supreme work of getting well.

Mr. Woodward has not yet finished his first quadrennial term. It expires on the first of next January. Elected over all opposition four years ago he had the satisfaction of seeing his record endorsed by the people of the district this summer when he was nominated without opposition and recently re-elected.

Chancellor Woodward in the four years he has been on the bench has made a good record. He is a good lawyer and he is popular with the people as well as with the officers of the law. All unite to wish him well and to hope he will again become entirely well.

A. & M. LOSSES; OLE MISS WINS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 15.—The Mississippi Aggies' hopes of a southern championship died with the last rays of the setting sun this afternoon as dust enveloped Rickwood arena just as the referee's whistle sounded finish to one of the fiercest fights ever staged upon a local gridiron. Auburn won, 7 to 0, but Mike Donohue's man-eating Tigers never had tougher opposition.

Marr'd by an unnecessary roughness, the hectic fray served to keep 8,000 fans in a frenzy of excitement as the never to be forgotten struggle swayed back and forward between the goal lines.

The day was ideal for football. Old Sol beamed significantly throughout the combat but there was just enough nip in the atmosphere to put the athletes on edge for battle.

A fumble by Russell on his own two-yard line in the second quarter was recovered by Herb Bonner for the only touchdown of the game. Except for this momentary misplay the game was a tossup from start to finish. Auburn made only seven first downs to A. and M.'s nine, but Auburn gained a total of 163 yards to the Aggies' 134. The visitors resorted to the forward pass frequently, no less than 17 aerial attempts, seven of which proved successful, being recorded by the statistician.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI

Nov. 15.—"Ole Miss" defeated S. P. U. in the last game of the "Ole Miss" campus this season this afternoon by a score of 50 to 0. The Red and Blue team, although badly crippled on account of several of the team being out on account of injuries, played exceptionally good ball throughout the game, keeping the ball well within the enemies' territory nearly all the time.

Ray kicked off for Ole Miss and Cobb received for S. P. U. The Red and Blue warriors received the ball on a fumble and Roberson scored the first touchdown for Ole Miss in this first three minutes of play. Moore received for S. P. U. and made a substantial gain. Cobb attempted a drop kick and Roberson received, making a 40-yard gain. Ole Miss was called for downs.

The game was hotly contested from beginning to end, the S. P. U. holding pretty well. Roberson was the star for Ole Miss, making many long gains. Jiggett, Baker and Roberson played exceptionally good ball, hitting the line several times for good gains and making several pretty end runs. Feemster's tackling was also a feature for Ole Miss. Cobb's long gains around end was the feature for S. P. U.

PRESIDENT MAY "POCKET" TREATY.

Washington, Nov. 17.—President Wilson will pocket the peace treaty if it contains the Lodge reservations, he told Senator Hitchcock at a conference at the White House today.

"The President has read and considered the Lodge reservations," Senator Hitchcock said, "and he considered them a nullification of the treaty and utterly impossible."

The program outlined by Senator Hitchcock after he had seen President Wilson last week will be carried out through the Senate, Mr. Hitchcock said. This contemplated defeat of the ratification resolution with the Lodge reservations attached and the offering of a resolution for a ratification without reservations. With the defeat of the resolution a deadlock would follow and a compromise be sought.

Senator Hitchcock was with the President for an hour.

"I find the president has read and considered the Lodge reservations and that he considers them a nullification of the treaty and utterly impossible," the Senator said.

"Did the President tell you what his course would be in the event the Lodge reservations are accepted by the Senate?" he was asked.

"The President will pocket the treaty," was the reply.

"Even if reservation 15 is stricken out?"

"Yes, that would make no difference in the President's decision."

Two of the committee's reservations remained to be acted on at the beginning of today's session. They related to the German colonies and to certain vital interests of the United States which would be excluded from league action. Many reservations by individual senators are to be considered after completion of the committee program, but with closure in effect it was thought a final vote would not be delayed. Most senators predicted it would be reached tomorrow or Wednesday.

PARIS INTERESTED IN U. S. SENATE ACTION

Paris, Nov. 17.—News of the adopted by the United States Senate of ten reservations to the German peace treaty was received with great interest in peace conference circles. The point apparently being most discussed by the delegates in general was whether the Senate will ultimately insist upon the reservations being formally approved by the other governments as now specified in the preamble. In French circles the indications are that the French government is not prepared to give its formal approval. There likewise is much speculation as to how far the American reservations might possibly affect the reservations of some of the minor powers such as China, Rumania and Jugoslavina desire to make.

China has never signed the German peace treaty. The Chinese delegates offered to sign it subject to a reservation on the question of Shantung but were not permitted to do so. Rumania and Jugoslavina did not sign the Austrian peace treaty, taking exception to the clause regarding the protection of racial minorities.

A. AND M.-ALABAMA GAME.

Leaders Clash For Football Honors On Thanksgiving Day.

Gridiron fans' interest shifts this week to the great game on Thanksgiving Day between the Mississippi A. and M. Aggies and the University of Alabama.

This classic of the Southern 1919 foot ball season will be staged in Birmingham, and it will be the center of interest in the South on Thanksgiving Day.

Last Saturday the Mississippi Aggies went down in defeat before their old time rivals the Auburn eleven and now they are scheduled for a clash against another Alabama eleven that has been their long time foe also.

The Mississippians played savage ball in the Birmingham game last Saturday; they went there with the determination to win, but their efforts were in vain.

Now, it is up to them to redeem themselves, and they are going to be opposed not only by the great University of Alabama eleven and its followers but Alabamian fans generally and the followers of Auburn as well.

Alabama defeated L. S. U. by the score of 23 to 0, a larger score than that by which the Aggies humbled the Louisianians.

It will be a battle to the finish. Many Columbians are planning to go to Birmingham for the game.

NAZARENE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

By the request of one who attended and reproduce the following account of the Convention of the Church of the Nazarene, held in Kansas City late in September.

It was our happy privilege to attend the General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, held in Kansas City, Sept. 24 to Oct. 7. Volumes could be written in describing it and yet we would declare the story not been told. It was indescribable, unthinkable. The best we can say in this limited space is that it was simply great. Great in attendance; great in visitations of grace and glory; great in salvation work, great in legislation; great in the offerings made for the support of the various branches of the work.

Every section of the United States, Canada, Mexico, India, China, Africa, Scotland, Armenia, and other places were represented. The most perfect harmony ever exhibited in a legislative body prevailed, and if any thing approaching sharp contention arose, a song was all that was needed to sweep it away, and joy, tears and love would abound. The evangelistic services every night were constant seasons of glory and salvation. Many seekers and happy finders was the regular order.

The offerings eclipsed anything we have heard of since the early apostolic days. The afternoon of the first Sabbath was devoted to Home Mission. The conditions of many large cities without any services on full salvation lines, was presented to the people, and the possibilities of a strong church in each of them held up. The crowd was asked for $25,000 and they responded quickly with $200,000.

A Home Mission Board was elected to take this work in hand and a General Home Mission Secretary elected to push the work. Rev. U. E. Harding, who has accomplished such marvelous things in the building up of the Indiana District during the five years he has been Superintendent of that district, was elected to this position. We predict much development for this movement.

Every one felt that it was necessary to have some arrangement for these young churches, thus founded, to have some way provided to build houses in which to worship, and carry on their work. So the matter was presented and an offering taken which ran to nearly $100,000.

We thought, of course, that the people had done about all they were able to do, but the great things were yet to come. One evening was devoted to Foreign Missions and the needs of the heathen presented in an elaborate and impressive program. In one hour's time an offering was made amounting to $1,300,000. Such a scene, doubtless has not been witnessed, at least in modern times. Where the Scriptures say "God loveth a cheerful giver," critics agree it should read "Hilarious giver." Our people literally fulfilled this Scripture. Amid uproaring shouting, crying and waving of handkerchiefs, leaping and dancing people gave from a few dollars to $50,000 in a single gift.

These three movements, Home Missions, Church Extension and Foreign Missions, insures a doubling of the membership of the Church of the Nazarene within the next quadrennium, and gives a stability to our church not hitherto known. Our people seemed to get the vision that God had raised us up to carry the gospel of Holiness to the ends of the earth to usher in the coming of Jesus, and they arose to the stupendous task.

What Nuxated Iron Is Made From Sworn Statement of Composition of Its Formula It increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances. The Board of Directors have authorized the broadest publication of the sworn statement of the composition of Nuxated Iron, one of the most widely used tonics, strength and blood builders in the world, so that the public may examine it for themselves and judge as to its merits. It is conservatively estimated that this remarkable formula is now being used by over 3,000,000 people annually in America alone. Among those who have used and strongly endorse it are many physicians formerly connected with well-known hospitals, former United States Senators, members of Congress, and former Health Officials. Newspapers everywhere are invited to copy this statement for the benefit of their readers. It is suggested that physicians make a record of it and keep it in their offices so that they may intelligently answer questions of patients concerning it. Every copy is advised to cut it out and keep it. A copy of the actual sworn statement will be sent to anyone who desires such. It is as follows: Iron Pyrophosphate (Special specific Standard) Quantity given below. Sodium Glycophosphates U.S.P. (Monsanto) Calcium Glycophosphates U.S.P. (Monsanto) P. E. Nux Vomica U.S.P. Cascara Senna Magnesium Carbonate Pa. Glycer U.S.P. Oil Cassia Cinnamon U.S.P. Calcium Carbonate Prep. U.S.P. Each dose of two tablets of Nuxated Iron contains one and one-half grains of compound iron in the form of iron pyrophosphate of a high specific standard which in our opinion possesses superior qualities. In any other known form of iron. By using other makes of Iron Pyrophosphate we could have put the same quantity of actual iron in the tablets at less than one-fourth the cost to us, and by using metallic iron we could have accomplished the same thing at less than one-twelfth the cost; but by so doing we could not have most certainly impaired their therapeutic efficiency. Glycophosphates used in Nuxated Iron is one of the most expensive ingredients known. It is especially recom-
